The Rule and life of the Friars Minor is this, namely, to observe the Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ by living in obedience, without property and in chastity. May our brother who promised to observe all this be filled in heaven with the blessing of the most high Father.

Amen.

Merciful Father, we commend our brother into your hands. We return to you the gift you have given us in his life among us and in the service of your people. We thank you for all that you have done for him, and for all you have done for us through him. Welcome him into your kingdom. Comfort us who remain in this life. Strengthen our faith, increase our hope of sharing eternal life with him, and deepen our love. We make this prayer through your Son Jesus who is our resurrection and life.

Amen.

May He Rest In Peace

Berard William Connolly

Bro. Berard was born and grew up in San Francisco, something that he was proud of all of his life. The family apparently moved about within the City, because he attended four different parish schools, none of them Franciscan. Yet he somehow got to know the friars, and when he felt called to the priesthood, he entered St Anthony's Seminary, Santa Barbara (August 1943).

He liked churchly stuff, and I remember him at SAS (his class was two years behind ours) as member of the sacristy crew. His hopes dissolved, however, when he couldn't get Latin- in those days the litmus test for priesthood- and he had to drop out after a year. Yet he didn't give up on being a Franciscan. After graduating from Mission High, he applied for and was accepted as a Tertiary Brother (November 1945).

After three years (Old Mission San Luis Rey and Santa Barbara) of the systematic humiliation that was the Tertiary's lot, he was allowed to enter the novitiate at San Miguel (July, 1948), where he was reunited with his former classmates from SAS.

After novitiate he spent one year at St Joseph's, LA, and three years at St Francis Retreat, during which time he made Solemn Profession (July, 1951). Following that Berard spent two years at Serra Retreat. Then he went into parish ministry, where he was given more responsibility and felt happier. He was six years at Ascension, Portland. By this time we were well into the '60's and things were starting to loosen up; for one thing, lay brothers were starting to be judged by their talents rather than their rung on the ladder. Still, it was a breakthrough that, when he moved to St Anne's (1968), he was given charge of Religious Education- and even more so that, when he went to St Francis, Provo (1971), he went as Parish Associate.

In 1978 he joined the novitiate staff in Oakland in addition to heading up the ministry to the aged and infirmed for St Elizabeth parish. The following year he was elected to the first of three terms as Definitor. At the same time he became Vocations Secretary and, a post he held for over twenty years, editor of Westfriars. Then he became Provincial Vocations Director and Promoter for SAS (1980).

He returned to parish work at Winlock/Toledo (1986); moved onto Mission San Xavier, where he continued to edit Westfriars, became Provincial Commissary of the FMU, and worked in the parish. Finally, he went back into retreat ministry as Associate Director of St Francis (1993), where he remained until he entered the Serra Wing less than a year ago.

He was 71 years old and a friar for 50 years (plus three as a Tertiary).

Despite a highly distinguished "career" in the Province and his universal popularity, Berard spent a lot of his life not feeling very good about himself. Maybe part was temperament, part of his Irishness. And maybe there was something in his early rearing. But I do know his experience at SAS and his early years in the Order had a lot to do with it. When he failed Latin, he felt he'd failed, period. And the stratified structure of community kept the laics on the bottom or close to it at least his first dozen years as a friar. (In partial defense of our teachers and superiors, it's the only thing they'd ever known). For the sensitive, it was devastating.

Yet Berard turned it to gold. He rose above resentment to be, not just loyal, but a cheerleader for the friars, the Province, the Order. His primary weapon was story. He was an Irish gossip and teller of tales. He had a million anecdotes, especially about the older guys (maybe because even at 16 he thought he was 60), filled with wit and wisdom.

More important, schooled in his own pain, he constantly took time to listen to and affirm others. He was particularly sensitive to the sensitive, and did something about it.

Fortunately, by the end he'd learned the most important of all truths: that others can actually love us. While remaining a mystery, it's no less true. This isn't something we can teach ourselves; we can only give it to one another. And that seems the way it's supposed to be.

Dear Friars

So sorry to hear of Br. Berend's passing away. He always told me he wanted to be buried in our little cemetery here in St. Urband, but I guess it was not to be. He was a great brother, maybe because he was one of my kind. Just a good honest, old fashion person that you could talk to. Not like today when I think men of the cloth just use their authority too much and the common person just has to listen.

Any way I guess I'm too old fashion to keep up with all the modern ways.

I thank you for the letter and picture and I'll always remember Br. Berend. The check ain't much but they ^{say} never pebble of sand makes a beach.

Thank you and God bless all you friars.

The future Bro. Berard was born and grew up in San Francisco, --something he was proud of throughout his life. The family apparently moved about within the City, because he attended four different parish schools, none of them Franciscan. Yet he somehow got to know the friars, and when he felt called to the priesthood, he entered St. Anthony's Seminary, Santa Barbara (August, 1943).

He liked churchy stuff, and I remember him at SAS (his class was two years behind ours) as a member of the sacristy crew. His hopes dissolved, however, when he couldn't get Latin--in those days the litmus test for priesthood--and he had to drop out after a year. Yet he didn't give up on being a Franciscan. After graduating from Mission High, he applied for and was accepted as a Tertiary Brother (November, 1945).

After three years (Old Missions San Luis Rey and Santa Barbara) of the systematic humiliation that was the Tertiary's lot, he was allowed to enter the novitiate at San Miguel (July, 1948), where he was reunited with his former classmates from SAS.

For my funeral may I please have the following:

- 1) a closed casket - no viewing
- 2) the Oregon State Flag on my casket. Flag is with my "wordly goods."
- 3) a non-concelebrated Mass. One priest is sufficient.

A PERSONAL STATEMENT OF FAITH

I believe that every person is created by God as an individual of value and dignity. My basic worth and value as a person is inherent in the relationship of love that God has for me and not in my usefulness in society.

I believe that God has endowed me as His creature with the responsibility and privilege of sharing with God in the dominion over my earthly existence. I believe in the sanctity of human life which is to be celebrated in the spirit of creative living because it does have worth, meaning, and purpose. Therefore, I am responsible to use all ordinary means to preserve my life.

I further believe, however, that every human life is given dignity in dying, as well as in living. Therefore, I am free to refuse artificial and heroic measures to prolong my dying. I affirm my human right which allows me to die my own death within the limits of social, legal and spiritual factors.

I believe I have the right to die with dignity -- respected, cared for, loved and inspired by hope. I consider as unjust the continuation of artificial and mechanical life support systems through expensive medical and technological means when there is no reasonable expectation for my recovery of meaningful personal life.

In order to avoid the useless prolongation of my dying and the suffering of my loved ones, I, Berard W. Connolly, have executed the following Directive to Physicians.

Signed: Berard William Connolly

Date: May 10, 1993

Directive to Physicians

Directive made this Tenth day of May, 19⁹³. I,
Berard William Connolly, residing in the County of San Benito, State of California, being of sound mind, willfully and voluntarily make known my desire that my life shall not be artificially prolonged under the circumstances set forth below and do hereby declare:

1. If at any time I should have an incurable injury, disease, or illness certified to be a terminal condition by two physicians, and where the application of life-sustaining procedures would serve only to artificially prolong the moment of my death and where my physician determines that my death is imminent whether or not life-sustaining procedures are utilized,
I direct that such procedures be withheld or withdrawn, and that I be permitted to die naturally.

2. If at any time I am in a persistent vegetative state or chronic coma and two physicians, one of whom is my attending physician, certify that my state is unlikely to reverse, I direct that all artificial nutrition and hydration, as well as other life-sustaining procedures, be withheld or withdrawn.

3. In the absence of my ability to give directions regarding the use of such life-sustaining procedures, it is my intention that this directive shall be honored by my family and physician(s) as the final expression of my legal right to refuse medical or surgical treatment and accept the consequences from such refusal.

4. I have been diagnosed and notified at least 14 days ago as having a terminal condition by

_____, M.D., whose address is _____, _____, and whose telephone number is _____. I understand that if I have not filled in the physician's name and address, it shall be presumed that I did not have a terminal condition when I made out this directive.

5. This directive shall have no force or effect five years from the date filled in above.

6. I understand the full import of this directive and I am emotionally and mentally competent to make this directive.

Executed this 10th day of May, 1993, at (city, county and state) San Juan Bautista, San Benito County, California

THIS DOCUMENT GIVES THE PERSON YOU DESIGNATE AS YOUR AGENT (THE ATTORNEY IN FACT) THE POWER TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOU. YOUR AGENT MUST ACT CONSISTENTLY WITH YOUR DESIRES AS STATED IN THIS DOCUMENT OR OTHERWISE MADE KNOWN.

EXCEPT AS YOU OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THIS DOCUMENT, THIS DOCUMENT GIVES YOUR AGENT THE POWER TO CONSENT TO YOUR DOCTOR NOT GIVING TREATMENT OR STOPPING TREATMENT NECESSARY TO KEEP YOU ALIVE.

NOTWITHSTANDING THIS DOCUMENT, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO MAKE MEDICAL AND OTHER HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOURSELF SO LONG AS YOU CAN GIVE INFORMED CONSENT WITH RESPECT TO THE PARTICULAR DECISION. IN ADDITION, NO TREATMENT MAY BE GIVEN TO YOU OVER YOUR OBJECTION AT THE TIME, AND HEALTH CARE NECESSARY TO KEEP YOU ALIVE MAY NOT BE STOPPED OR WITHHELD IF YOU OBJECT AT THE TIME.

THIS DOCUMENT GIVES YOUR AGENT AUTHORITY TO CONSENT, TO REFUSE TO CONSENT, OR TO WITHDRAW CONSENT TO ANY CARE, TREATMENT, SERVICE, OR PROCEDURE TO MAINTAIN, DIAGNOSE, OR TREAT A PHYSICAL OR MENTAL CONDITION. THIS POWER IS SUBJECT TO ANY STATEMENT OF YOUR DESIRES AND ANY LIMITATIONS THAT YOU INCLUDE IN THIS DOCUMENT. YOU MAY STATE IN THIS DOCUMENT ANY TYPES OF TREATMENT THAT YOU DO NOT DESIRE. IN ADDITION, A COURT CAN TAKE AWAY THE POWER OF YOUR AGENT TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOU IF YOUR AGENT (1) AUTHORIZES ANYTHING THAT IS ILLEGAL, (2) ACTS CONTRARY TO YOUR KNOWN DESIRES, OR (3) WHERE YOUR DESIRES ARE NOT KNOWN, DOES ANYTHING THAT IS CLEARLY CONTRARY TO YOUR BEST INTERESTS.

UNLESS YOU SPECIFY A SHORTER PERIOD IN THIS DOCUMENT, THIS POWER WILL EXIST FOR SEVEN YEARS FROM THE DATE YOU EXECUTE AND, IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOURSELF AT THE TIME WHEN THIS SEVEN-YEAR PERIOD ENDS, THIS POWER WILL CONTINUE TO EXIST UNTIL THE TIME WHEN YOU BECOME ABLE TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOURSELF.

YOUR AGENT HAS THE RIGHT TO EXAMINE YOUR MEDICAL RECORDS AND TO CONSENT TO THEIR DISCLOSURE UNLESS YOU LIMIT THIS RIGHT IN THIS DOCUMENT.

UNLESS YOU OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THIS DOCUMENT, THIS DOCUMENT GIVES YOUR AGENT THE POWER AFTER YOU DIE TO (1) AUTHORIZE AN AUTOPSY, (2) DONATE YOUR BODY OR PARTS THEREOF FOR TRANSPLANT OR THERAPEUTIC OR EDUCATIONAL OR SCIENTIFIC PURPOSES, AND (3) DIRECT THE DISPOSITION OF YOUR REMAINS.

THIS DOCUMENT REVOKES ANY PRIOR DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE.

YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY READ AND FOLLOW THE WITNESSING PROCEDURE DESCRIBED AT THE END OF THIS FORM. THIS DOCUMENT WILL NOT BE VALID UNLESS YOU COMPLY WITH THE WITNESSING PROCEDURE.

IF THERE IS ANYTHING IN THIS DOCUMENT THAT YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND, YOU SHOULD ASK A LAWYER TO EXPLAIN IT TO YOU.

YOUR AGENT MAY NEED THIS DOCUMENT IMMEDIATELY IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY THAT REQUIRES A DECISION CONCERNING YOUR HEALTH CARE. EITHER KEEP THIS DOCUMENT WHERE IT IS IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE TO YOUR AGENT AND ALTERNATIVE AGENTS OR GIVE EACH OF THEM AN EXECUTED COPY OF THE DOCUMENT. YOU MAY ALSO WANT TO GIVE YOUR DOCTOR AN EXECUTED COPY OF THIS DOCUMENT.

DO NOT USE THIS FORM IF YOU ARE A CONSERVATEE UNDER THE LANTERMAN-PETRIS-SHORT ACT AND YOU WANT TO APPOINT YOUR CONSERVATOR AS YOUR AGENT. YOU CAN DO THAT ONLY IF THE APPOINTMENT DOCUMENT INCLUDES A CERTIFICATE OF YOUR ATTORNEY.

1. DESIGNATION OF HEALTH CARE AGENT. I,

Berard W. Connolly, St. Francis Retreat, PO 1070, San Juan
Bautista, San Benito County, California

(Insert your name and address) do hereby designate and appoint

(Insert name, address, and telephone number of one individual only as your agent to make health care decisions for you. None of the following may be designated as your agent: (1) your treating health care provider, (2) a nonrelative employee of your treating health care provider, (3) an operator of a community care facility, (4) a nonrelative employee of an operator of a residential care facility, (5) an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly, or (6) a nonrelative employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly.)

as my attorney in fact (agent) to make health care decisions for me as authorized in this document. For the purposes of this document, "health care decision" means consent, refusal of consent, or withdrawal of consent to any care, treatment, service, or procedure to maintain, diagnose, or treat an individual's physical or mental condition.

2. CREATION OF DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE. By this document I intend to create a durable power of attorney for health care under Section 2430 to 2443, inclusive, of the California Civil Code. This power of attorney is authorized by the Keene Health Care Agent Act and shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2500 to 2506, inclusive, of the California Civil Code. This power of attorney shall not be affected by my subsequent incapacity.

3. GENERAL STATEMENT OF AUTHORITY GRANTED. Subject to any limitations in this document, I hereby grant to my agent full power and authority to make health care decisions for me to the same extent that I could make such decisions for myself if I had the capacity to do so. In exercising this authority, my agent shall make health care decisions that are consistent with my desires as stated in this document or otherwise made known to my agent, including, but not limited to, my desires concerning obtaining or refusing or withdrawing life-prolonging care, treatment, services, and procedures.

(If you want to limit the authority of your agent to make health care decisions for you, you can state the limitations in paragraph 4 ("Statement of Desires, Special Provisions, and Limitations") below. You can indicate your desires by including a statement of your desires in the same paragraph.)

Subject to any limitations in this document, I hereby grant to my agent full power and authority to substitute one or more attorneys to act under him and in his stead, separately and individually, and to renew, revoke, limit or confine any such substitute or substitutions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, my agent shall not have the power to appoint as a successor anyone who is prohibited by statute from serving as my attorney in fact.

If any part of this clause is deemed invalid, the remainder of this clause shall remain in full force and effect.

4. STATEMENT OF DESIRES, SPECIAL PROVISIONS, AND LIMITATIONS.

Your agent must make health care decisions that are consistent with your known desires. You can, but are not required to, state your desires in the space provided below. You should consider whether you want to include a statement of your desires concerning life-prolonging care, treatment, services, and procedures. You can also include a statement of your desires concerning other matters relating to your health care. You can also make your desires known to your agent by discussing your desires with your agent or by some other means. If there are any types of treatment that you do not want to be used, you should state them in the space below. If you want to limit in any other way the authority given your agent by this document, you should state the limits in the space below. If you do not state any limits, your agent will have broad powers to make health care decisions for you, except to the extent that there are limits provided by law.)

In exercising the authority under this durable power of attorney for health care, my agent shall act consistently with my desires as stated below and is subject to the special provisions and limitations stated below:

(a) Statement of desires concerning life-prolonging care, treatment, services, and procedures: I ask that no means be taken which will prolong my life should quality of life be in question. No "re-starts, artificial feeding or breath giving functions." In other words, "Pull the plug." I want to die with dignity and with a minimum of expense. I look forward to heaven.

(b) Additional statement of desires, special provisions, and limitations: Disposition: A simple Mass of Resurrection at St. Francis Retreat, San Juan Bautista. Cremation with my ashes slipped into the earth on the Tohono O'odham Reservation, Arizona. The old cemetery at San Xavier del Ba:c would be OK. Please see enclosure.

(You may attach additional pages if you need more space to complete your statement. If you attach additional pages, you must date and sign EACH of the additional pages at the same time you date and sign this document).

5. INSPECTION AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION RELATING TO MY PHYSICAL OR MENTAL HEALTH. Subject to any limitations in this document, my agent has the power and authority to do all of the following:

(a) Request, review, and receive any information verbal or written, regarding my physical or mental health, including, but not limited to, medical and hospital records.

(b) Execute on my behalf any releases or other documents that may be required in order to obtain this information.

(c) Consent to the disclosure of this information.

(If you want to limit the authority of your agent to receive and disclose information relating to your health, you must state the limitations in paragraph 4 ("Statement of Desires, Special Provisions, and Limitations") above.)

ineligible to act as your agent. If the agent you designated is your spouse, he or she becomes ineligible to act as your agent if your marriage is dissolved.)

If the person designated as my agent in paragraph 1 is not available or becomes ineligible to act as my agent to make a health care decision for me or loses the mental capacity to make health care decisions for me, or if I revoke that person's appointment or authority to act as my agent to make health care decisions for me, then I designate and appoint the following persons to serve as my agent to make health care decisions for me as authorized in this document, such persons to serve in the order listed below:

A. First Alternate Agent

B. Second Alternate Agent Richard McManus, PO 1070, San Juan Bautista, CA 95045 408-623-4234

10. NOMINATION OF CONSERVATOR OF PERSON.

(A conservator of the person may be appointed for you if a court decides that one should be appointed. The conservator is responsible for your physical care, which under some circumstances includes making health care decisions for you. You are not required to nominate a conservator, but you may do so. The court will appoint the person you nominate unless that would be contrary to your best interests. You may, but are not required to, nominate as your conservator the same person you named in paragraph 1 as your health care agent. You can nominate an individual as your conservator by completing the space below.)

If a conservator of the person is to be appointed for me, I nominate the following individual to serve as conservator of the person Richard McManus, PO 1070, San Juan Bautista, CA 95045

(Insert name and address of person nominated as conservator of the person)

11. PRIOR DESIGNATIONS REVOKED. I revoke any prior durable power of attorney for health care.

CODICIL

I, Berard William Connolly, do include this codicil.

Health Care

1) My feelings regarding extraordinary health care are well known to my confreres. I ask that no such means be used for me as my death approaches and/or the quality of my life is diminished so I am in a vegetative state dependent on the services of others.

2) My brothers have already spent many thousands of dollars on my physical and mental health. I consider money spent on force-feeding and life sustaining efforts something I do not wish.

3) I welcome Sister Death with the assurance that Mary, the Mother of my God is with me now and will be with me at the hour of my death.

Funeral Request

1) Again, my concern for my funeral is well known. This codicil replaces any funeral arrangements made before.

2) I presume I will die while stationed at St. Francis Retreat, San Juan Bautista, CA. I ask that a simple Mass of Christian Burial be offered for me in the St. Paschal Baylon Chapel.

I ask to be cremated.

I ask that my ashes be quietly placed into the ground of the Tohono O'odham Reservation, Arizona. Anywhere on the land of the O'odham, including the Old Cemetery at Mission San Xavier del Bac, Tucson, Arizona, will be fine.

To the Secretary of the Province at the time of my death

1) I ask that if at all possible there be little or no mention of my death and with all my heart ask that my name and vita be omitted from the Province Necrology.

In conclusion

1) Who knows when these requests will be called for; those who knew me in life, and loved me, know for sure I will haunt them if my wishes are not carried out.

2) There is a "testament" in my personal files at St. Francis Retreat, San Juan Bautista.

TO MY FAMILY AND FRIENDS:

It is my firm conviction that my life as a Friar has meaning and value in any circumstance that occurs if I become disabled, incapacitated, or incompetent. My decision to join the Order of Friars Minor was a free choice and is one that has been constantly reaffirmed over time by my free choice to live this life. For this reason I have chosen to appoint a member of the Order of Friars Minor as my attorney in fact to make health care decisions for me in the event that I am unable to make those decisions myself. My attorney in fact may consult with my family and friends about my health care, and I encourage such consultation, but I expect my family and friends to honor my desires as expressed by my attorney in fact. This desire in no way manifests a lack of love for my family or friends; rather, it is an expression of confidence in my attorney in fact to act in accord with my known desires.

Accepting death with responsibility and human dignity is in keeping with the Creator's plan. Talking about sickness and death can be difficult, but it is part of our responsibility to ourselves and to the people we love. For this reason I, Berard W. Connolly, have executed the following Statutory Form Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care.

Very Rev. and dear Father,

Here is my application for admission to the Franciscan Brotherhood. I hope it proves acceptable.

Father, you mentioned that you were driving down to Mission San Luis Rey and offered to drive me with you. This offer was most kind and I certainly appreciate it. Father, have you any idea when you will be going? Will you be going to the Mission toward the end of August or the beginning of September?

Father, have you any information regarding the clothing and so forth that I should bring with me also, are there any laundry numbers to be sewn?

I realize that this letter reads like a questionnaire but I do need the information, Father.

Gratefully

Dear Brother Berard:

In the recent Definitorial sessions at Malibu you were chosen to be head cook at Serra Retreat where you will replace Brother Ambrose, who will go to Santa Barbara Mission. The Father of the Def. had every confidence that you will be able to handle this important job.

Serra Retreat would very much like to have you there by Friday so that you can observe the week-and menu as it is customary there. Brother Ambrose may be able to stay over yet another weekend to go over the routine which they have established there.

As you know there will be three important duties as a Friar: the first, will be your personal service of God and this will be the most important factor of all; the second will be the influence that a real Friar has on the retreatants who after all expect something spiritual from a Friar and fortunately find it in our retreat houses; the third will be the association which you have with the Tertiary Brothers who are a very promising group at Serra Retreat; since you are a solemnly professed Brothers they will look to you in many ways and the ideals which you have will unconsciously be absorbed by them.

We have every confidence in you and look for good days at Serra.

Enclosed is your obedience for Malibu. Brother Ambrose will remain on at Malibu to show you all the details of the kitchen and the tricks of the menu. He can remain there as long as is necessary and until you are thoroughly acquainted with the various demands of this rather large job. I am sure that you will do well.

With sincere regards, I am

Dear Brother Berard:

Greetings on Our Lady's Feast!

In accordance of the request of your letter of the 13th and since you have the permission of your Praeses, you may most certainly take off the days which you plan and come as far north as San Francisco.

In order to do this, you will, of course, have to remain alive over the days of the preparation, celebration and post-celebration of the Serra Retreat Tenth Anniversary. You will doubtless be very busy during those days.

You are a major contributor in the operation of the Serra Retreat establishment and, as such, are promoting one of the most salutary movements which the Church and the Order are able to maintain in the West during these days. There are very places were more is accomplished for such a large number of men and on such a large scale. It is a wonderful blessing to the Province to be able to do this.

With every best wish and sincerely in St. Francis,

I want to thank you for your kind permission to go to San Francisco last month. The sun was so warm in San Francisco and the fog so beautiful!

While there I was able to make Father Solanus' Solemn Mass, visit the good friars at San Juan and San Antonio and have a terrific spaghetti feed at Father Victor's where I stayed.

Again, thank you very much, Father Provincial, and may I have your fatherly blessing.

Dear Father Provincial,

I would like to hit up the several wholesale grocery companies we deal with at Serra for a donation to our Philippine Missions. Church goods companies are also worth tapping for the cause. They always have a stock of slightly damaged small articles which can be used as prizes, etc. Mc Coy's in San Francisco used to give me articles for the Mexican kids living in labor camps in and around San Juan Bautista.

Rather than money -which nobody wants!- I would like to send them canned goods a la U.S.A. I wrote to the Philippine Consulate in Los Angeles and the U.S. Post Office for information on the import duty, taxes, etc. payable on the Philippine side. I now have a pile of confusing letters with even more confusing information. (If only I had paid attention in Father Martial's algebra class!)

What has been the experience of the Missionaries with regard to taxes, etc. on parcels weighing under 22 pounds and with a declared value of under $50 American? I would hate to think of them paying more than the goods would be worth. Has Father Alan worked out anything?

I hear from Brother Norbert but I'm afraid to ask him.
-- He'd want a new jeep or maybe even a '57 Big M.

Thank you, Father Provincial. May I please have your blessing.

Respectfully and fraternally,

Very Reverend and dear Father,

I have put off writing this letter for many weeks. Perhaps I have already waited too long. It is a hard letter to write. After talking the matter over with a friar-priest and having thought over it a long time I have reached the conclusion that I have no choice but to write you.

I am not asking for a transfer. I hope never to. I am happy at Serra Retreat and appreciate its fine community and excellent Superior. However, Father Provincial, I want you to know that in my opinion I am a bad influence on the Tertiary Brothers and candidates. This is an old fault of mine. Complaining about authority in all its forms. I am a griper and a very mediocre Brother. My example does hurt the young Brothers. I believe there are several cases where the harm done can be traced back to me. I have not the courage to reform but I do have a conscience which is troubled at the thought of tearing down what others build up. Perhaps these pangs of conscience are a little late but I do want to inform you of how I believe things stand before more harm is done.

Once more I shall try to set better example, tho, Father Provincial, the tide is so strong that effort to stem it seems hopeless. I gripe without even realizing it. I know your office is burdensome enough without this new problem, however, Father, I believe I owe it to the Province and to the Tertiary Brothers at Serra Retreat to tell you of my failure.

Thank you once more for your kindness and consideration. May I please have your blessing, Father Provincial.

Fraternally and respectfully in Francis

Brother Ben?

Please answer on this sheet and return to Fr. Martial O.F.M. at 1500 34th Avenue, Oakland, California 94601.

1. What is your present assignment in the Province? How long have you been at it? St. Francis of Assisi, Spokane, Washington
Three years next September.
2. What is your preference as to your assignment? What is your second choice? I would prefer to remain at St. Francis. My second choice would be Portland, Seattle or anywhere in the Northwest.
3. In evaluating your own talents, do you think that you could do better in another assignment? What talents I have are best utilized in "small" houses such as St. Francis. I feel I can be of more service here in years ahead under Father Jordan.
4. Would you be interested in going to the Indian or Philippines Missions? I once wanted to go to Arizona but they didn't ask in those days and I'm too old now!! (And fat!)
5. Have you any other suggestions to make regarding assignments or personal adjustment. (compatibility of personalities, particular Priaries, conditions, etc.?) I honestly believe I get along well with people and especially with youngsters. I feel I am best able to serve my community and the people by using my talent in a small parish house such as I have been in for the past ten years. I can cook well enough for a few friars, I have had some success with Altar Boys and parish youth programs. I can handle the door with ease and am somewhat up on today's Catholic living. (Up on but not way out!) I have been in a position to speak on vocations in several schools and otherwise meet and speak to gatherings and to commentate during the liturgy. I now feel my Religious life has a more meaningful purpose and I feel more confidence than ever ~~has~~ during my ten years in retreat houses. ((I know this all sounds like bragging -- but you asked!))
6. Do you have any suggestions or recommendations for the Brothers' Formation Program?

I have followed several Brother Formation programs mostly by contact with men connected with the Mission Secretariat thru the "Brothers' Newsletter." I personally feel our Province is weakest in so called "professional" training. If a Brother knew a trade or a skill I feel he could hold his head a little higher. In my own case I just completed a CCD teachers course (by mail to be sure) but even if I never teach I do feel a little more at ease and a little competence when the subject of religion classes comes up. We are laymen and to be able to speak with the laymen on a common level would enhance both vocations. On my own I have tried to develop a little talent but I can't help feeling that my own life would be more fruitful had a training program been developed when I was a young Brother. The new Brothers of today are going to demand and have a right to expect more of the Province training wise. I believe a Brother can, especially in a small house, make fraternity alive in his community, but he must be able to communicate with some intelligence. ~~My own experience~~ I think it would benefit the Province to look into the Jesuit Brother program especially the Oregon and Maryland Provinces.

Dear Father Provincial,

Thank you for the opportunity of attending the recent Brothers' Institute at Mission Santa Barbara. I feel I gained much from the talks and especially from the insight and spirit of the Lectors.

It's a job filling we old barrels with this new wine but we were given a good start. The Old Mission ain't what she used to be!

We've had a little snow but so far the weather hasn't been exceptionally cold. Today is beautifully clear, bright and nippy.

May I please have your blessing.

Dear Brother Berard:

Many thanks for your note. I appreciate the fact that you took time and the effort to write me and tell me of the gain you feel came to you from the attendance at the Institute in Santa Barbara.

We had a beautiful celebration at Santa Barbara to commemorate our Golden Jubilee. We are trying to get as much out of the one in Seattle tomorrow as we can get because of our need for vocations up that way. I know you are keeping your eyes open for young men who might want to be Franciscan Priests or Franciscan Brothers.

God bless you for everything and please remember the Province in your prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Terence Cronin, O.F.M.

Dear Father Provincial,

I am sure the debris on your desk is as high as Mt. Spokane. I hesitate writing you because of this and because I am not a "provincial correspondent". I do, however, feel you are interested in the opinions of every friar in the Province. I have talked this matter over with two friars and they agreed I should write you.

Rumor has it that the Brothers in the smaller houses could possibly be sent "back to the farm" after this Definitorium meeting. If the needs of the Province demand this, so be it. If, on the other hand, there is a feeling in some quarters of the Province that the Brother in the small house is left out then I feel obligated to add my bit to disclaim this opinion.

In the new element of fraternity within the Order the Brother has come into his own. This is especially true of the Brother in the small house. I spent nearly nine years in Retreat Houses, several in the Old Missions. For the past ten years I have been in small parishes. With all my heart I know I have found my Franciscan vocation only in the smaller house.

I'm not trying to pat myself on the back because what I say is true of any Brother willing to put up a little effort. In the small house the Brother can be the balance within the community. In my years both in Spokane and Portland I have lived with a variety of friars temperment-wise and I believe I have gotten along fairly well. I hope I have made a contribution to the community both within and without the friary. I may be prejudiced but I believe one of the greater assets of a Franciscan parish is a well placed Brother. By not being tied down with the priestly duty and honor and Brother may mingle within and without the community as a Franciscan and try to love the people. I could bore you with my ideas in this regard, Father Provincial, but by and large they are much the same as those of every young friar -- and in this age we are all pretty young at it. Even at 39!

I'll be honest, Father, and admit that behind my concern for the fate of the Brother in the small house is my own personal interest. I'm not too talented but what talents I have do seem best used in contact with people and especially with the little people of all ages. For many years I lived the Franciscan life as it was taught us and I lived it in frustration. As a young Brother I would sneak down from San Juan Bautista to teach catechism to the Mexican migrant children but was careful to cover this little apostolate by saying it just took longer at the grocery store! I was sneakier than St. Paul in his basket.

In my years in smaller houses I have at last grown up and now breathe the clear air of trying to be a Franciscan. This is the Franciscanism we all hoped for even while we feared we'd never live to see it. I think I have found it, Father Provincial, only in the smaller house, within the parish and Franciscan family.

I hope I will be able to spend more years at St. Francis, Spokane. I think I can offer this parish something in return for what it has given me. In the few weeks I have been with Father Jordan my admiration has grown. Together, as a community, we have set out great plans. Tho my part may be small I feel it an important part for the parish, my community and for myself.

I hope I haven't taken too much of your time, Father. I am sincere and very convinced of the place of the Brother in the parish. He is an integral part of the Franciscan family and belongs with his priestly brother wherever that may be.

It is my concern which causes me to write this evening. Then, too, Father Provincial, I really feel I know you.

May I please have your blessing.

Dear Father Provincial -

Perhaps the enclosed will be of some small use during the Chapter. I had hopes of a larger and more extensive presentation but because of its confidential nature I did not use the dark room at Gonzaga U. for the film work.

The streets look rather soulless and buildings aren't really what we're interested in but together with the maps Glenn and I sent perhaps an idea of St. Ann's can be given to the friars.

I have something against photographing people, especially poor people, without their consent. There are people in St. Ann's and lots of 'em. I think this would be a terrific challenge to the friars and one which the friars could be up to.

The parish does seem to have a solid core of "good" parishioners and a large alumni which still looks back to old St. Ann's. Best of all there are hundreds of families with whom we could share whatever this Franciscan charisma happens to be.

Hope the Chapter is going well!

Dear Father Provincial,

Thank you for your letter which we received this past week. Since the matter in your letter is of concern to all friars, I would like to make known my thoughts and feelings.

News travels fast, even to this heart of the inland empire, and it grows at each whistle stop. I think I had a mature enough concern over the situation but concern certainly tempered by some experience, by my own ideas of Franciscanism and by my respect for Fathers Armand and Robert.

Last week a letter written by a committee of some sort made its way to St. Ann's. To be honest, Father, this letter was more upsetting to me than news of the nuptials and concelebration. Perhaps friars are rightly concerned and I know that there are many much closer to the situation who speak with some authority. For me the whole idea of "punishing" by popular acclaim is very un-Franciscan. Up here in Okanogan country we might add, even un-American!

Your letter encouraged me no end. It made me once more glad to be a friar in these times. In the past few years I have been moved and troubled at a recurring plea in all of the Berrigan brothers' writings. Especially in Dan Berrigan there is a loneliness and a begging for understanding from his Jesuit confessor. I do think we Santa Barbara friars have confidence that we will be loved even if not understood. Every family has its skeletons and every friar knows we certainly have our full share but even the "strange" brother ~~deserves~~ must be accepted even if not fully understood.

I hope the rank and file of the friars will understand these more or less charitable failings. I personally just can't get too shook up over a priest friend witnessing the love of one Christian for another and, gads, poor Bishop Pike could well use and deeply appreciate Robert's kind gesture. We have lived thru and put up with much more culpable sins of laziness and bitching. There just might be something to that casting the first stone business.

On a personal note, I believe I have grown in my appreciation of what we have and still I have a new understanding of those who wander off. I am saddened when rumors become fact but I do feel my long and continued friendship with men like Foster and Vince has benefited me more than they.

Life goes well at Good St. Ann's. Tom and I drive the bus with an aplomb which the guys in Provo would envy.

Dear Brother Berard:

It was good to hear from you in your letter which arrived while I was away visiting the great Northwest. I surely appreciate your words regarding the attitude of the friars towards the incidents of last Summer. From the response in the places where we have held little meetings, I am confident that we can look forward to a genuine spirit of cooperation in the months ahead.

The visit there at St. Ann's was again a great experience,--and I think the fact that yourself and Father Tom are driving the bus is a great thing for the parish. Your meeting with the people and the children on these trips will really build a close bond.

Last evening we had an open house for the new place in Berkeley. There was a great turn out of friars,--and things do look good for the next school year.

Dear Father Alan,

As they say back on the olde sod - "I've come to my fortune"! My aunt left me the majority of her estate with the exception of $100.00 to the Jesuit Seminary Association and the funeral and legal expenses. Now what do I do?

When I made my solemn profession I asked that my worldly (sic!) goods go to: 1) my mother, 2) my sister and 3) the Maryknoll Sisters. My mother could well use the money involved.

I'm enclosing a copy of the letter I received this morning from the Crocker-Citizens Bank in San Francisco. Will you or Father Martial advise me of the procedure which will assure proper execution of the estate. I want my mother and the Order to benefit. I'll hold up answering the bank until I hear from you or Father Martial.

Life goes well at St. Ann's. The Sunday folk Mass draws crowds. Tom was just telling me how two couples from another parish were so impressed by the Mass they now want to work with St. Ann's. (What a way to make friends with neighboring pastors!) Soon as school closes Tom and I plan on helping men of the parish repaint the interior of the school. Two scholastics from The Mount will spend two weeks with us this summer to help with a census. These two Jesuits regularly work with our GYO and CGD programs. We're looking forward to seeing Hubert during the summer and then our "boarders" from GU in the fall.

Heard on the news this morning that the Pope has disowned St. Barbara! Tell us it ain't so!!

Come see us.

Dear Brother Gerard,

Greetings: it was great to hear from you, and I want to congratulate you on your good fortune regarding the estate. I have checked the records and find that, as you say, you did give your worldly goods to the ones you mentioned. For a will that is not a paternal or maternal will, this would ordinarily go to the Crown. However, I will be very happy to write to Father General and ask for permission for this to be given to whoever you think should receive it, and since your mother is in need I certainly think that she should be taken care of before any other charity, would enter in.

The summer schedule looks terrific, and I know that Hubert will have a real involvement there, and I think it should be a great help to him in preparing for the future work in the Order. I enjoyed your remarks to the news about St. Barbara. We have already had a couple of inquiries regarding the changing of the name of the Province, so I will have to see this through.

Letter to

Editor:

My thanks to Monsignor Donnelly for his full and factual articles concerning the situation between the Archbishop of Seattle and a segment of the student body of St. Thomas the Apostle Seminary. (ICR 2-26-70 and 3-5-70). The standoff between Archbishop and students is of concern because of the stake we of the Church of Spokane have in the education of our future priests at the provincial seminary in Kenmore. It was gratifying to read of the cordial relationship between our Father Bishop and the Spokane seminarians.

While we are saddened at turmoil within the Church we must by now be used to the fact and have grown in the hope that because the Church is a living thing there must be growth or there is death and to have growth there must be occasional growing pains.

I do not wish to enter into the right or wrong of the action of the seminarians but I would like to make a few observations on how the situation was handled.

First, my profoundest admiration and gratitude to the priests of the Senate of the Archdiocese of Seattle for their statement. I believe this statement on the priesthood and the relationship between priest and bishop and people, ranks among the finest words I have read on the subject. For its charity, for its love and understanding, it could be placed with Christ's priestly prayer of the Last Supper.

Secondly, my revulsion at a statement attributed to the Archbishop: "... he (the seminarian boycotting classes) would be either suspended or expelled from the seminary and his name given to the draft board." (IR 2-26-70, emphasis mine.) Every student is aware of his selective service classification and every seminarian realizes withdrawal from a seminary changes his student/clerical deferment. Why then is it necessary to call on Caesar, to threaten with the draft? This certainly violates the spirit of recent court decisions which forbid local draft boards to use selective service classification as a threat to be used on student protestors and others who take an unpopular role.

In 1968 the American bishops issued an in-depth, urgent call for peace. Among their proposals our U.S. bishops urged the modification of draft laws "making it possible, although not easy" for persons to be selective conscientious objectors, "without fear of imprisonment or loss of citizenship." I quote this to show our bishops are concerned with the selective service system in this country.

When our bishops, sharing with the Bishop of Rome, proclaim peace and question draft laws, it is certainly odd for an Archbishop to rattle General Hershey's yet unclaimed sword because of arbitrary seminary policy.

I surely have no axe to grind with Archbishop Connolly. He was my pastor many years ago when I was a boy in San Francisco. I hope all sides will learn from this experience, will shake hands and will wish one another the peace of Christ. We are a people who can settle our differences without selective service coercion. I too am a nostalgic American, but I just don't feel we need the U.S. Cavalry galloping hell-bent into Kenmore, Washington.

Dear Father Provincial,

Since it seems the rest of my community at St. Ann's is writing you, I don't want to be left out. First, the enclosed "letter to the editor" from last week's Inland Catholic Register may be of interest in case any of our local ward Birchers write you about it. I felt I had to do "my thing" and since my thing isn't very much, I do try to hit the draft whenever possible and I think it wise. I promise not to take on Cardinal Antoniutti and his sacred Dicastery for the present!

Speaking of Antoniutti and his sacred Dicastery, would there be any merit in Westfriars or the Provincial Office coming out with an explanation of this latest nonsense from the Congregation of Religious. Time magazine made something out of it and one or the other periodical for religious has brought it up. Perhaps a few of our Brothers are at sea because of it. While not too many of us are running for office and fewer are qualified, Cardinal Antoniutti has hit an emotional soft spot in every Brother. We older Brothers are just getting over our ghetto mentality and this second Bonaventure comes along and tells us we really don't belong after all.

Now about St. Ann's. There is little fact I could add to what others write about our situation but I would like to tell you of my observations and of my feelings. This has been a good tenure and Tom, Glenn and I have hit it off rather well. I'm not fooled and I know almost the entire credit belongs to Tom. He is an utterly fantastic friar. I always consider him the last of the Christians, or, if the sun is bright and the birds are singing, the first of the Christians.

Glenn wrote you. He first talked the matter over with us. Glenn is an open person and all in all is a good guy. I personally feel, however, that he is a little unbalanced. I know I'm surely not one to talk, but Glenn doesn't seem to grasp the overall picture of his actions or the mission of the church. He is constantly tired. This may be because of mental strain or because of the fact that he can't seem to sleep at night. Tom and I have frequently worried out loud over him these past weeks. To me he is a very helpless person with little or no plans for future employment, etc. This morning Tom and I were trying to figure how much financial support the house can give him when he leaves. Still, it is going to take much more than money.

Perhaps my main purpose in writing is to wonder out loud what changes will be made at St. Ann's. As Tom told you, he and I could run the place with trimming here and there. I say this because this is exactly what we have been doing the past few months. Except for the liturgy -- and here I cannot praise Glenn enough -- and a few appointments, Glenn is completely withdrawn from the parish. In fact, with his sleeping and visiting one or the other family, Tom and I seldom see him. We get together for meals and that's that. Tom and I usually end the evening up down in the basement room -- you've got to try that Spanada wine! -- while Glenn will be out.

I feel this places a great burden on Tom. It is certainly not the amount of work but the worrying which will get Tom down. I personally feel that if Glenn plans on leaving he should do so as soon as school closes. For his sake, he will need time to find work, especially if he should get into teaching. Perhaps I am short changing him but I feel that human nature being what it is, harm will be done in the parish. Again, Father, I could very well be wrong.

Tom has mentioned the possibility of getting Jim Furlong as replacement. From the little I know of him, I feel he will fit in quite well. At least, if Tom has confidence in him I don't think I can question it. With Tom and with Claude nearby Jim could receive a lot of support which I take it he has been seeking.

We are looking forward to Hubie coming up this summer. I'd like to see him try to re-organize the Youth Club. The kids, the CCD and other programs have fallen by the wayside since Glenn's loss of interest. I even feel he now has lost interest in Marycliff which was more or less the one job he liked.

I hate to write a letter like this. I hope I am doing it because I do like Glenn and worry about him and because I think St. Ann's has enough troubles without suffering from troubled friars.

I know the province needs are pressing on all sides but I do think you want the opinion of the various friars who are in a situation. We can hang on and more and more we are seeing the light here at St. Ann's. Tom - and perhaps myself - have too much invested here to see it busted up.

The Wednesday night reading from St. Luke with Mass was great. The people really seemed to have a sense of community. We're trying to get a pot-luck with the group after Easter and then continue the discussion on a monthly or so basis. Palm Sunday 11 o'clock Mass was packed to the rafters, and even along the sides of the church. Holy week here promises to be good. Last year it was the most relaxed, and piously best, one I've yet had. The simplicity of the liturgy and the people participating made it very real and nowhere near the show it was in the "old days".

Big fire at G.U. last night. Gollner Hall, the small hall behind St. Al's, was a complete loss. Arson is suspected. And it wasn't the ROTC building. Talked to a professor I know this morning. Fifteen years of research up in smoke. He was working on a book. Fr. Tom Royce lost all his philosophy material.

Again, Father, I hope you'll take this letter in the spirit I'm trying to write it in.

Faternally,

Beard

First, in regard to what changes might take place at St. Ann's. I really cannot say just what we might be able to do. But it means a great deal to realize that you and Tom could keep things going if you had to. We will surely try to do whatever is possible, and still consult with you, so as not to destroy the fine things you have going there.

From what you write I can see that Lent has been a very good thing for all the people who come to St. Ann's. And I am sure that you will be able to continue with the great work of Glenn in the liturgy.

Secondly, the response from the Congregation has disappointed many, many people. I wrote to the Secretary of the Conference of Major Superiors of Men and suggested that we bring this to the Annual Meeting and frame a response from all the Major Superiors. The President of the Conference wrote to the Congregation a very strong letter protesting this and I am assured that if we do not get an answer to this we will bring it to the entire membership of the Conference at the meeting. I am confident that the American religious, if they can unite in this, will have real influence in Rome. And so far, all seem to be with us.

The except from the local paper might do you some harm there at St. Ann's. I know the Bishop is having a problem defending the actions of the friars, and I hope this will not cause him any further trouble. I think that right now it is important not to give added fuel to the opposition unless it be a matter of real principle.

All best wishes and regards to Tom and Glenn. And a really Blessed Easter,

Fraternally,

P.S. I think you might meet some opposition in calling the Definitorium a Dicaster, -but might as well try.

Congratulations! It was really good to hear from you in your letter of December 13th and to know that you did receive the authorization of the Bishop to distribute Holy Communion. THIS WEEK AT ST. ANN'S.....

Today -- Fifth Sunday in Lent

-- Sunday School for grade schoolers, 10:00AM, school auditorium

-- Final meeting of the Diocesan Marriage Discussion Groups at 7:00PM at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walsh, E.2614 Pacific.

Wednesday -- Lenten Mass with discussion, school auditorium, 7:30PM. A number of St. Ann's People are making this Wednesday evening experience their lenten celebration. Last Wednesday the theme was "bread". As part of this theme, each participant received a small loaf of bread and was invited to share it with someone. To break and share bread with a loved one is part of man, be it a child's cookie or a sandwich or the Eucharistic Christ Himself.

Next Wednesday will be the last evening of this Mass with discussion series. Wednesday in Holy Week will include a penance liturgy and possibly a pot-luck dinner.

Thursday -- St. Ann's Band practice at 7:15 in the friary.

Friday -- Communion to the sick and shut-ins. Please inform us if we are missing someone who would like to receive communion and/or a visit from one of the Fathers.

-- Spring Church Cleaning, immediately following the 8:00AM Mass. Bring your pails, cleaning cloths, good will and energy. Coffee, donuts and conversation will be served at 10:00AM. Also, why not bring your lunch and brown-bag it with the pastor at noon. ALL LADIES who consider St. Ann's "their's" are invited to share in this spring cleaning. While the weekly cleaning of the church keeps St. Ann's certainly one of the neatest churches in the city, there are still a few places which can use this extra push.

Next Sunday -- Passion Sunday. Solemn or Simple Entrance with Blessing of Palm at all the Masses.

DIOCESAN DEVELOPMENT SUNDAY -- Today, Sunday, March 28th, the Catholic People of Spokane are being asked to make a pledge to help the work of the diocese. Many are being called on in their homes by other members of their parishes. At St. Ann's we are using the method which has proven over the past few years to be effective. We are using the mail for this campaign. All people who have left addresses with us received a brochure, letter and return envelope during the past week. We have some extra brochures at the doors of the church for those who might have been missed. We ask that you consider the needs expressed and make a response via the enclosed envelope. If you forgot to bring your envelope today, please consider the matter soon. The Catholic United Fund needs you.

AS WAS REPORTED IN THE BULLETIN Several weeks ago, the Parish Council asks that you make use of the "Suggestion Box" which is in the church vestibule. We are interested in your suggestions which you believe will make St. Ann's a more alive Christian Community. (You are also invited to write down "nice things" about the life and breath of St. Ann's!)

IS YOUR LENTEN MISSION FOLDER GETTING TOO HEAVY? With Holy week and Easter almost here the lenten coin folders you received before Lent may be "wearing out". If so, Brother Berard has envelopes available which are the size of the folders. Also, he has a few extra lenten folders which we were able to obtain. If you misplaced your folder or need another one or an envelope, please see Bro. Berard.

YOU ARE INVITED to attend a community meeting concerning drug abuse among our children, grade school through college. The program is presented by former addicts and staff members from the Creative Life Foundation. We feel it a unique program in that it provides adults with a course of action to take to begin to do something about the drug problem which is becoming serious in Spokane. The meeting will be held at the Washington Water Power Auditorium, Tuesday evening, March 30th, at 8:00PM.

TODAY, the very excellent movie "The Gospel According to St. Matthew" is being shown at St. Francis Xavier Auditorium, 544 E. Providence, at 2:00PM and again at 8:00PM. Donations: adults- $1, student- 50¢ and children- 25¢. We urge you to attend this outstanding religious and film media experience.

WE ARE ASKED TO PRINT THE FOLLOWING FROM A PARISHIONER....

"Dear Brothers and Father Frost,
On behalf of C.E. Carr we wish to thank all the members of St. Ann's Church for the blood given for Edward's transfusions every month. Please include our thank you in the Sunday Bulletin. Thank you for your kind thoughts and love.

Respectfully yours,
Stella and Edward Carr"

St. Ann's Blood Bank Account is always in need of your donation of blood and is available to our people whenever there is need.

WE ARE THANKFUL TO GOD that Friday's wind storm brought no injury to our area and only minimal damage. The parish plant came through with a few pieces of roof paper blown off, several broken branches and a pine cone harvest on the lawn.

RETREAT- St. Ann's Men are scheduled for retreat April 23-24-25. Men who have never made a retreat are especially urged to give thought to the great experience which can be yours. In these times we all need understanding and we can better able understand others after understanding ourselves. A few days at Immaculate Heart Retreat House will help us better understand ourselves. Since reservations must be made, a retreat committee member will be contacting you.

DURING THE FAST WEEK Father Bill Davis, S.J., visited us. Father Davis is the coordinator and director of the Jesuit Mission Volunteers, two of whom are serving at St. Ann's School. The Volunteers, a dynamic group of dedicated young men and women, are sharing the Christ-life from Alaska to Africa. We at St. Ann's should be very grateful for this program which has provided us with two young women who have brought creativity, joy, and professional skill in the teaching of our children. If you have any doubt about what the Jesuit Volunteers are doing for St. Ann's, just ask the children.

THE CATHOLIC ALUMNI CLUB for single adults will hold its monthly meeting on Friday, April 2nd, 8:30PM and W. 909 First Avenue. New Members are welcome.

BECAUSE OF ANOTHER unpleasant incident, we are again locking the church doors after Mass. Should you wish to enter the church during the day, please ask for a key at the Priory. We are sorry for the inconvenience but feel it necessary.

THANK YOU to Mr. Orin Lopeman of the Howard Street Sign Company, for donating the sign in front of the church. Mr. Lopeman is an active member of Mission Avenue Presbyterian Church.

On behalf of my family I want to thank you sincerely for the kind words you gave at the Rosary for my Aunt, Miss McCoy. The family surely appreciated this, and I know that it meant a great deal to them to have you there.

Also, many thanks for your work for the missions. You really have been helping us consistently with this and we are very appreciative of it here in the office.

All is coming along well here in the Bay Area. Certainly there is no lack of activity in the different houses and it is always good to get back after the finish of visitation. Greeting! It was very good to hear from you, -and I surely want to thank you for the very honest report on the state of progress. I can feel for you in the stages you mention, -and am sure you are making a wise decision in determining how to go ahead with the schooling.

Many former students of St. Anthony's have deeply regretted the over-emphasis on Latin in the evaluation. The irony of it is that today they do not even teach it as a formal class.

By all means plan to take those courses at Spokane Falls Community College. It will be perfectly alright to withhold the tuition etc. from the regular assessment. And I hope you will continue right on through the year with whatever schedule will work out best. At present there are about ten or eleven brothers who are going back to college. And again it is evident that in many instances they are doing superior work. I think this is a very good thing for the apostolates of the Province, and above all, for the individual friar himself.

I am looking forward to a visit there at St. Anne's around the 3rd of July. If you are in need of help that weekend let me know.

Dear Father Provincial,

As I mentioned at Visitation, I am beginning to believe that I am an "early" victim of the hell of menopause or whatever this triage is varying degrees when they hit my age. I have been restless the past year. My community is not in getting up with me, and now, to use a quote, I can see some light at the end of the tunnel.

I have lost confidence in myself and in my ability to face people and to do anything or work I want. I have already received several offers of help, but none of them I am able to accept. I am afraid that this is a frightfully easy course of action for me to take.

It is an effort to overcome, or at least live with, whatever is bothering you. I have asked myself several questions and have even come up with an answer or two.

My first reaction on his to ask to bury myself as a witness in a witness' name, or name my place but then perhaps there are already too many "witnesses" in the business and industry, what would I do in my more golden years?

1. I have never had a halfway to ask for a chance to discussion. I am not Right now I feel I can do nothing again at St. Anne's. I feel badly because I think I have been a drag on Tom and Joy, very often because of my own illness. I feel that but I know they are waiting to put up with me and if I can fight my way back into our parish life I guess I can only do my part of the bargain. In staying at St. Anne's I have come up with still another course of action.

On August 1, 1961, the 51st anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China, Chairman Mao Zedong issued a statement in which he said that the Chinese people had decided to launch a Great Leap Forward in the development of the country's economy and culture. This statement was a key factor in the decision to launch the Great Leap Forward in 1961.

In an effort to prove St. Anthony's wrong after all these years, I recently took several college courses at St. John's Paul's Community College. I was amazed at the results. Professors at the college told me I made a big mistake when I did not go on to college after high school. I did not tell them that in my day latin was the sure sign of one's intelligence quota. I have been advised to stay with literature and the social sciences and to get by with the minimum of math and natural science. Here Father Martial will agree if he remembers me from algebra class.

My percentile rank out of one hundred was as follows....

Correctness and Effectiveness of Expression: 95 Interpretation of Reading Materials in the Social Sciences: 96

Anyhow, Father, I think I would like to try a summer class just to see for myself if I can put my mind to study. Fathers Tom and Jay have no objection. Perhaps this may be a needed push in my life at this time. If I can stick with it during the summer, perhaps I can take an evening class here and there and someday even receive a diploma of some sort. When asked my reason for wanting to attend Community I gave: "Personal enrichment".

I am accepted at Spokane Falls Community College, a two year state junior college. 93 quarter hours of credit are needed to graduate with an Associate in Arts degree. I would be in no hurry! During the summer I could get a class at 7:30 and 8:50AM and get back to St. Ann's for summer census work which I am looking forward to.

I am writing to see if this will be alright with you. The house chapter - Tom, Jay and myself! - have no objections. I doubt if there is still an objection to "worldly colleges" but -- there is still the question of money. I picked Community because it is the less expensive. As a Washington resident my fee, including credit hours, books needed, etc., would come to between $80 and $100. Could we deduct this from our assessment once this summer?

Whatever you say is OK. Perhaps you have already decided to send me somewhere else or perhaps I should go to Portland or to the Christian Brothers retreat in New Mexico or to do the above at Spokane Falls. In any case I do think I have to do something drastic for me - going to school is, believe me - at this time. If I get by this summer at college I will be able to audit or attend other classes other places without an embarrassing blank on my application form.

We are looking forward to Rubie's return for a Mass with us at St. Ann's. Jay is on vacation in Oregon and will make the ordination and Tom will preach at the first Mass.

Good luck with the meeting.

Dear Father Provincial --

I took your advice and wrote to the Christian Brothers at the Sangre de Cristo institute.

This morning Brother Charles Reutemann, FSC, wrote that I am welcome to join in on the Fall session, September 1st to December 9th. While the expense does bother me I honestly feel a terrific need for a program such as this.

I wrote Brother Charles this morning telling him I would be there. Now how do we work out the cost??

I understand Angelo Cardinelli will be making the institute so perhaps he and I can work out our trip to Santa Fe.

Thank you, Father.

Dear Bro. Berard:

Greetings! It was very good news to learn that you have decided on the Sangre de Cristo course and that you have been accepted. As for the expense, -it is high, but I am sure it is worth it. The Province will have to pick up whatever part of it the local friary cannot meet. And certainly you should not hesitate in this after the years you have given to the fraternity and its apostolates.

I appreciated the editorial on Glenn. Poor fellow really has acted in a strange way. I hope the impact on you there at St. Anne's has not been too much.

Many thanks for the copy of the Directory. There is a lot of information there that can be helpful through the year.

I do not think Angelo will be making the course this Fall. He wrote telling me that he would postpone it. However, Roy Rivas will be there with you, and possibly one or the other who has not yet made up his mind.

The course here at St. Elizabeth's is coming along very well. The students seem to be getting a lot out of the talks and the work together. I hope we can continue this in the future.

All best wishes and regards to the gang, --and many thanks for the trip to Seattle and Portland, --it was really enjoyable.

Good people --

Perhaps the recent WESTFRIARS will be mentioned during your meeting. The enclosed letter which I sent to WESTFRIARS will let you know the feelings of one more friar regarding Mats.

I do seriously fear a bad re-action on the part of the young men in formation for whom Mats gave some hope.

The Sangre Experience goes very well. I'll presume to send you an evaluation when it is finished. Then, too, I hope to talk Conan into driving up this way come December 9th and hitch a ride to Las Cruces with him. I've never been in the southwest before.

Fraternally,

Beard

Editor:

I have gut feeling as I write this: anger, sadness and sympathy. The September WESTFRIARS was forwarded to me at Sangre de Cristo, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

I am a friar to whom the Chapter of Mats was an experience, a promise of the future. I pray I will keep my faith in it and in the brotherhood I shared in. Perhaps I suffer from the decompression of going from the flesh and blood heights of Mats down to a fantasy-land where grown men feel they have the luxury of fretting over hair and habit. A habit I love and wear.

What I consider the finest thing this Province has done in the twenty six years I have been a part of it, has been passed off in WESTFRIARS with all the enthusiasm of an altar society social. Perhaps I feel chagrin because this was an issue I looked forward to, something to share with the men I am with, men from several Congregations. I wanted them to know that we are alive and are open and that we love. Instead what was forwarded to me was a term paper for an obituary column. Are we suffering clinical depression or are we really that dead?

I was not happy with having Caesar Chavez speak. (Why couldn't he have been given the courtesy of being called by name in WESTFRIARS?) From the first planning stages of Mats I fought against the idea of non-friars participating. However, to me, this was a mere pause in agenda. I hope my personal convictions are strong enough that I will flee neither Union Organizer nor the "theologian who opens new vistas of our Faith to us".

The Thursday evening Liturgy was the highlight of Mats to me. Because I do believe the Spirit guides our religious experience and expression, I believe the Spirit directed the spontaneous outpouring of affection -- and men who had been at odds did embrace that night. I will deny to the hilt any lack of respect to our God during any of the liturgies. As for the Pax, it is to be shared in "according to custom". Men who love one another, who, at least for a fleeting moment, are ecstatic because they are friars minor, have the custom of spontaneous greeting and "noisy back-slapping".

Mats was the re-knowing my classmates and the men I came of age with. It was the meeting of young men and sharing insights of the Franciscan vision. To the young friars and the younger men in formation, bear with us and perhaps we will be caught up in your enthusiasm.

OK - Peace!

Dear Father Martial,

Received your check yesterday. My thanks to you and to Father Provincial.

Had a good St. Francis Day. I made up a morning liturgy here at Sangre and in the evening Roy and I and the director, Charlie Reutemann, went to the Santa Fe cathedral for pontifical Mass. After Mass the friars at the cathedral had all of us over for a great Santa Fe dinner and then a grand spielhaben mitt. Ended up with about twenty friars, the archbishop, a dozen secular priests and a goodly number of Christian Brothers from the local high school and the College of Santa Fe. Father Blaise Shauer, O.P., a local pastor, gave the sermon. He lived with our men in Las Cruces while Newman Chaplain. He's an artist/liturgist, in that order!

Good workshop this week by Dr. Jean Rosenbaum, local shrink who has had a lot of experience with the Brothers and also the St. John Province friars. The workshop is on chastity and last afternoon we talked on sublimation - hence this letter!

Dear Father Provincial —

Greetings from high in the Sangre de Cristo mountains. The Sangre experience is going well. I feel it will be well worth while. I am greatly impressed by the community sense of the Christian Brothers. — True, anything is anti-climatic after Mats!! I hope I don't bore these monks in telling them of the spirit of Mats.

The staff here is excellent. This evening we begin a workshop with Fr. John Gallen, SJ, a theologian-liturgist. Then of course the spirit of Gabriel Moran is in the halls.

I hate to say this but we will need money. The tuition, including room and board and books comes to $1700.00. And they don't give Blue Chip Stamps. I personally feel it well worth it. The instructors are excellent and the room and meals are more than a good friar (eg: myself) should experience. With an evening social hour everyday I'll turn into a lush.

Bro. Timothy McCarthy said the tuition could be paid by installments if necessary. The check should be made out to Sangre de Cristo Center and could be sent to me and I'll turn it over.

I hope I will be able to repay the Province.

Dear Brother Berard:

Greetings! I have just returned from the meeting of the friars in Spokane. It was really good to get all of them together and to go over the plans for the province and the order. We also had the election of the new Abbess of the Poor Clares, Sister Mary Rita Dolan. And one evening we had the Franciscan Sisters of La Crosse together for an evening of discussion on the Franciscan life. It was a great opportunity.

While I was there I heard that you had expressed the thought that you would possibly not be coming back to Spokane. I thought it best to write to you to see just what you had come to by way of a decision in this. I certainly want to be able to work along with you as to the best situation. If you have come to any decision be sure to let me know. Even if I cannot get down to you there in Santa Fe, I would surely like to discuss this with you, possibly by phone, in case you cannot get to Phoenix sometime around Dec. 6th.

You surely have a lot of good friends in Spokane, and I am sure that both Tom and Jay are very sincere in wanting what is best for you.

Dear Father Provincial,

Many thanks for your kind letter. Things are winding up at Sangre. It has been a great experience, an important one hundred days in my young life!

It's true, I have had questions as to my returning to St. Ann's when Sangre is over. This has caused me an amount of soul searching and the seeking of answers. At this time I feel there are several options.

In regards to St. Ann's. In the letters I receive from Tom I do read a great deal of discouragement. Tom takes things too seriously and to be honest, I do worry about him. He has too much to share with others and it hurts seeing him in such a bind with the apathy and the financial situation at St. Ann's. In Tom's letters I also read that he is not at all sure I should return to St. Ann's, that I will again be dissatisfied with the set-up and with my place in it.

I want to return to St. Ann's only if I can be of some service and a help to Tom and Jay. After Sangre I have the confidence I can be both. I am certainly not as frightened of life as before. While I am disillusioned at the parishioners of St. Ann's I still think I can be of service to the parish and the community.

Several weeks ago I wrote Claude for his estimation of my situation at St. Ann's. I am grateful for his letter. While he admitted much of my work has been taken over by others, he said there is still much I can do. Claude also brought up a point I had not thought of before now. He said I contributed a great deal to the larger Franciscan community in Spokane, the six of us. We do have a good spirit and Claude believes I add a great deal to it. He reminded me that no matter how dedicated others may be, even our very fine Jesuit volunteers, they still do not replace a friar in our Franciscan community living.

Much of my difficulty at St. Ann's has been caused by a certain diffidence I have. Others, stronger or more competent, can fairly easily take over. I take things personally but too frequently when Tom, or Jay in the church, enter "my domain" I give up and say the hell with it. I have come to realize this at Sangre.

For the present I want to return to St. Ann's only if I can be of service to the friars in Spokane. I know I have many friends there, I am at home, but here at Sangre I know it is the friars I miss. The northwest is pretty much a part of my life now, I guess I will long have a secret yearning to return to Portland.

Lately I have been wondering how I would get along with the Indians. I do think this is more than a new found interest in New Mexico. Years ago, at Malibu, I asked you about the missions.

I hope this letter doesn't add to any confusion regarding St. Ann's. As far as I'm concerned there is no big deal. I was shakey but I think I have much more confidence in myself now. I presume I will continue at Spokane but the possibility of leaving St. Ann's is now more a reality of life. When the day does come I hope to go to, if not to another place in the northwest, to the desert or to a small house on the fringes of the Province. OK - anyplace but California!

I will try to get hold of you during the Arizona meeting. After leaving here on the 9th I plan on going to Las Cruces, then Tucson, Oakland and back to Spokane. I have never been south of San Diego before so I want to make use of the opportunity.

I hope this letter at least tells you of my feeling this evening. I am certainly ready to return to St. Ann's and, I believe, accomplish something there. Should the men there feel I am not needed at this time, then I'm willing to go somewhere else.

Thanks for your concern. Good luck with the meeting.

Dear Father Provincial -

Many thanks for your kind letter. Sorry you can't make it to Sangre but your excuse is strong and will hold! Charlie invites you to stop by anytime.

The "experience" is in its seventy-fifth day today. Has been fantastic. Last week was spent in an audio workshop. Part of it included the breaking us into groups of five to write, "act in" and film a three minute masterpiece. It is hard to explain the re-acting to one another and the feeling this medium gives you. High praise was given the FCC during the workshop. Karl was very kind in sending me films and material for the prayer services I had charge of. I have to take back a few mean things I've said about "The Hour".

Have a copy of the October 31st Arizona Republic. One of the best articles about the friars I've yet read. Hope it makes the rounds of the Province.

Please thank Father Martial for getting me a copy of the Province Song. I want to use it for a liturgy on December 4th. Like most friars, I guess I have never been sober enough when its been sung to get beyond the chorus. Also, you might remind Father Martial of Phase II of my room, board and tuition.

Good luck in your several meetings. I hope our paths will cross on my way back to Spokane.

Berard

Dear Father Provincial,

Just a quick note to let you know I am back in Spokane. After Sangre and after visiting with a good number of friars in New Mexico and Arizona I came home to Spokane a few days before Christmas. Tried to contact you in Oakland but you had already left for Negros.

It is good being home again. Had a few days of re-entry difficulty but feel I am settled down now. The personal peace I feel and a much greater self confidence are proving themselves. I will write a resume of my re-action to Sangre in a few days. Saw Angelo at San Juan and really encouraged him.

Fred is in the afternoon. We have a nice bunch of people in this Inland Empire! I think we do appreciate one another.

Will get that report off to you soon as I catch up on things like the house accounts(!) and etc. Thanks again for the opportunity of Sangre.

Dear Gerard:

Cheerings! I want to thank you for the great spirit you showed in the painful situation of this past week. I know it has been difficult for you, and my prayer is that this new assignment will be of great help to you and to the team there in Provo.

Father Howard is happy to have you with them, -and I am sure that you will see that it is a real team ministry, -and that you have a great deal to contribute. I know that all you received at Sangre de Cristo Center can be put to very good use there in Provo.

For one thing you will not miss the snow of the Northwest. Provo really gets its share. And perhaps you will be learning to ski, in case you haven't picked this up yet.

All best wishes and regards to the friars,

Dear Father Provincial,

In the happenings in my life these past weeks - and inspite of our frequent seeing of one another - I don't think I fully expressed my gratitude to you and the Province for letting me attend Sangre de Cristo. Each day more of Sangre comes to me. I honestly wonder how things would have gone were it not for the Sangre experience.

I find it impossible to tell what Sangre does for a Brother. I guess it does something different and yet the same for each Brother. The peace I found in those mountains has managed to survive and more than once it has fought the bitterness which seeks a place in my heart.

The enclosed is a letter I sent my "classmates" of Sangre '71. It tells a little of how I am finding life in this Happy Valley. Also a copy of a letter Brother Charles Reutermann wrote. Charlie is one of the great people I have met in my lifetime. The letters I have received from various Christian Brothers has been a great boost. I hope to talk Tony into visiting Santa Fe with me. If not, I may thumb but I want to see Charlie and to be there while Angelo is part of the Sangre experience.

Thanks again, Father. Please pray for me because we Irish have long memories and our hurt too easily turns to bitterness. Being otherwise is what this whole Christian business is about -- even in Zion.

Dear Berard,

Greetings! It was good to hear from you from the shade of Mount Angelo was much interested to hear of your whereabouts, and he has your address, so I hope he keeps in touch with you. Your description of your sudden switch from Seattle had me really wondering, for I couldn't imagine what would have turned people off so strongly -- hardly a beard, I hope! Oh well, you seem to have adjusted to it beautifully, and in true and deep Franciscan style. You are indeed a true poverello, and you haven't lost your humor! How wonderful!

Here, we're about one month into the program, and the date for finishing (since you asked for it) is May 18th. By all means, thrust your way down to see us. Things have been going very well, I would say -- no big hang ups, and we've passed through the reading interviews uneventfully!! The one distinctive feature of the past three weeks is the extraordinary weather -- it's been practically summer, blue skies and all that. The forsythia, jonquils, hyacinth, etc. are all in bloom, and fifteen large-mouth bass have been caught in the pond. And Blackie is going about with his tongue hanging out more than usual.

Tim finishes this session at Sangre and, although he had been scheduled to go to the College of Santa Fe, he now is in the running for Associate Visitor (Provincial) of the New York Province. I think his slate (there are five men on the slate) will get it. The elections are in mid-March. Marv is fine, and looking forward to more summer courses at St. Mary's in Arizona. For myself, it will be a busy summer, with a two-week workshop here, a week with the Brothers of Christian Instruction at Narragansett, R.I., and two weeks with young Brothers at Plano, Illinois.

Had you heard that Francisco Lujan had a stroke in December? He is recovered, though he has a slight impediment of speech. He has had to cut out cigarettes and booze -- the cigarettes being the tougher one.

Your work sounds "fascinating" and challenging. It should bring out all those fine qualities of warmth, empathy, and humor which you have.
Whenever things get tough, just give them a homily and they'll come around!!

The best for the moment, Berard. As ever, and with love.

Sangre has been on my mind the past several days. This evening I am gathering a few of my thoughts, my address book and an unused ditto machine. Don't particularly like "machined letters" but at my rate it would take half a year to write you.

After saying goodbye to Franny several times in Albuquerque, I flew on to Juarez. [I'll tell Dale about Juarez when he's older.] Visited with our friars in New Mexico and in the Arizona Indian Missions for a week. Roy wasn't home. He was in Mexico looking for Ojo's or whatever her name is. I made it back to Spokane December 18th.

Whatever problems I had with my situation at Spokane, and as you may know this was a concern of mine at Sangre, quickly dissipated when I returned. The people I lived with weren't as convinced of Sangre as I and within a week my Provincial told me I was black-balled and would I go to Provo, Utah. The Franciscans are wont to say "I experienced perfect joy" which was Francis' way of telling it when your own receive you not. Anyhow, perhaps it is all for the best and I am now once more finding my place in this God's world.

Utah is the Land of Mormon, the Land of Promise. The cities of Ophir (pop. 47) and Lehi are to the north of us, the peoples of Nephi and Juab to the south. Mt. Nemo stands to the east and Mt. Moab guards us as a sentinel to the west. Hell, even the River Jordan flows in this parish! Provo is a city of 20,000 plus another 25,000 students at Brigham Young University. The town is 98.9% Mormon so no one smokes [Not even tobacco!] and few will drink even coffee. The town's two taverns, "Barney's" and "Gordie's" sell only beer and this to the Catholics and renegade Mormons! I believe three blacks live in Provo. These play basketball at BYU [but no priesthood], there are few long hairs and about the only freaks you see are hard faced old ladies carrying the Book of Mormon. Still, there are advantages like being able to walk any street and at any hour day or night without the fear of being mugged.

Our St. Francis of Assisi Parish covers the whole of Utah County, or 12,500 square miles. In all this space there are still only 400 Catholic families. Our people mostly work at the US Steel mill in Geneva or on sheep ranches. Last summer the parish closed both its grade and high school so we are looking for those "new ways". And isn't everyone? I'm listed as an "assistant in the pastoral team", whatever that means.

I am getting pretty involved with visiting families and in the neighborhood discussion groups. Here I am grateful to Sangre and to the good theology of Tim McCarthy (eg: The Centrality of St. Anthony). Sundays I go on the "road show" or the missions. Have a Communion service if no priest is around. [I did study under Marvi] or else I entertain the kids, read at Mass and lead the singing. This is no doubt my just reward for any uncharitable thoughts I kept while Frankie Nolan played his guitar. Little by little I am learning names and names are becoming persons. I like our people and I hope they will like me. It does take a little while to know what a really nice guy I am.

My main job is being Catholic chaplain at the Utah State Hospital and at the State Training School. The State Hospital as you may guess from the name is a mental hospital. About 20 Catholics out of 440 patients. Ratio for Utah.

OFM CONN 1

I try to visit my people at the State Hospital two or three times a week. Mostly just listen. Saturday morning I have a liturgy which really wanders. Lots of symbols! At the hospital I am in contact with quite a few younger people. Even in Utah, the Promised Land, kids are screwed-up on drugs. Have come on some very tragic situations. The Mormon Church has such a tight hold on life, especially in the small towns - and in Utah each town is smaller than the next -, that many kids are ready to explode. Drugs are an attractive temptation. They appear to be a contact with the "outside world", the world beyond Utah's mountains.

The State Training School is for the severely retarded. After my initial shock, I'm sure Doctor Renaud will appreciate my feeling, I am now better able to see beyond deformity, drooling, vacant stares and animal-like grunting and I am seeing persons. I'm meeting fellow human beings who must have some mysterious purpose in our sharing of life. There is little I can do for them except to hug them, hold their hand or let the little deaf-mute feel my beard. They, however, are helping me grow into a new dimension of life.

When I look back at the past several months I can see how God does do some of the things we talked about at Sangre. I wonder how I would have faced my share of life these past few months if it hadn't been for Sangre de Cristo.

It was hard leaving the northwest, my home for fifteen years, and especially in the circumstances under which I left. But if I had never left I would never have known how much I love others and how many do love me. Hell, when I kissed the Marycliff High girls goodbye..... sorry about that, Rita!

At Sangre I gained a peace of mind and a self-confidence which has been a mainstay to me these past months. I am now settling down. Charlie and Tim's classes are filtering through, last night I sounded like an expert telling about Goodie's color cards and John's sacramental theology was a new opening in my life.

So, good morn, just wanted to tell you that no matter if it rains or freezes I have my plastic Jesus and life goes on. Goes on much better and is much happier because we shared Sangre together.

Peace and watch out for those Jewish Genies.

Berard Connolly, O.F.M.

HELP US HELP THEM

Heavenly Father of us all, You have entrusted the care of Your underprivileged children to the more fortunate members of Your earthly family.

In the accomplishment of this exceptional responsibility, we beseech Your divine assistance.

Supply for the defects of our wisdom; for the deficiencies of our love; for the restraining of our individual energies which might threaten the effectiveness of our mission.

Help us to educate the educable; to train the trainable; to inspire the uninspired; and to be completely dependable with the totally dependent.

Make us kind but never dull; moderate but never mediocre; profound but never severe.

Give us in the special work You have assigned, and prompt us to use the special gifts You have allotted us to bring blessings into the lives of the special children You have entrusted to us.

Dear friends,

Let me introduce myself. I am a Franciscan stationed in Provo, Utah. I am here four months now after having spent eighteen years in schools and parishes in the Pacific Northwest. At Provo I have the care of Catholics at both the Utah State Hospital and the State Training School in American Fork.

I have a list of children at the Training School who are baptized Roman Catholics and this is where I obtained your addresses. I hope I will meet some of you either at the school or through the Association of Parents for the school. If I am visiting in your area I may be able to visit you at your home.

I stop at the Training School once or twice a week. On Thursday afternoons I try to visit Mrs. Vera Harding's class and in the early evening have a class and a liturgy for a few of the more able children.

We both know your children at the Training School are very special people. As far as their spiritual welfare is concerned there is little I need do. They "have it made"! I do want to bring those able to share in them, the Sacraments which are their right as baptized Catholics but even here the Sacrament is the external sign of a unity these children already have with Our Lord.

The one "sacrament" I can bring them all is the gift of human concern. In the three months I have attended the school I have become so convinced of the importance of the human touch, a smile, a show of love and affection which must be ours if we are called Christian. Your children at the school may be "deprived" of much in life but perhaps by not being cluttered with so much of life they can understand a bit more clearly the bond between one person and another. I believe we call this bond simply "love".

Each week I see this in the gratitude of the children at class and in the warm greeting I receive whenever I visit a cottage. Alpine comes to mind right now. I know this in the excitement whenever a parent is coming to visit a child.

I hope you will let me know if there is anything I can do for your child. Here, except for the love all Christians must have, my experience is limited. I have the greatest respect for the staff and policy of the Training School and am anxious to work with them. We are interested in your child.

Finally, and personally, I do want to thank you because your children at the State Training School have shown me a new dimension to life and for this I am grateful.

The Lord bless you and give you and your child His Peace!

Dear Father Provincial,

Enclosed is a summary of a questionnaire sent to each Brother who has made the Sangre experience. I certainly agree with the summation, especially in the expressions regarding found peace of heart, self-confidence and a new appreciation of our religious life. As I mentioned to you, I personally found courage in facing the differences and the uniqueness in the life of the friar minor. I hope you will find the summary of interest and perhaps you may wish to pass it on to the formation committee.

Life goes well in Zion. Last weekend I had the invocation for the annual parents' meeting at the State School for the severely retarded over in American Fork. I understand there was a bit of objection in having a gentile speak; everyone from Governor and Mrs. Rampton on down were very affable. I was glad for this opportunity because I am trying to work my way into the parents' organization and auxiliary groupings. This would be especially true in regard to the Training School. Spiritually these people "have it made" but some parents do seem to need encouragement. — As long as I'm filling this envelope I'll include a letter I recently sent to the parents, if I can find a copy.

I well realize the importance of balance so I have volunteered to help the diocesan high school SEARCH program. Also there's plenty of our own parish outlets.

I plan on attending a wedding in Spokane next month. This will be my first visit back. Tom graciously invited me to share in the wedding liturgy and to stay at St. Ann's "if it would not be too difficult". I will always appreciate Tom's goodness.

BYU graduated over 3,000 yesterday so the town seems to be folding up until the start of summer school. The BYU kids do so much for this area and their zeal is boundless. They are for the most part a very handsome lot which gives credence to the belief that Brother Brigham married often but well.

Fraternally,

Bernard

Dear Berard:

Greetings! Many thanks for your recent letter. The Sangre experience seems to have brought a very positive response from the men who took it. And from our own men I can see that it is just what can fill a great need today. I will really be able to use this report.

Brother Sean wrote about a program they have for older brothers. He sent some material on this and I have offered it to some of the men who would fit into these years. We may not get anyone for it this Summer. But, I hope we will be able to get more and more of the older men to take advantage of such a program.

Congratulations on your work with the retarded. Your card and your letter are really impressive. I know you will get a great response from the parents, who are in such a difficult situation.

Good that you can get to Spokane for the wedding. The friars will surely be happy to have you back for the visit. We hope to have a few of the simply professed up that way in September.

Your impressions of BYU are really very interesting. I know that you see the positive side of all, and there is surely a great deal of good in those young people.

All best wishes and regards to the friars,

We heard this morning through a parishioner that Tony is also at Lynnwood. Was operated on yesterday for his back.

Otherwise, all is well in Zion, Tomorrow I leave on my vacation. Howie felt it better I go now before things pick up in September.

Dear Father,

We thought you might be interested in this article we were able to get in the Salt Lake Register. The paper itself is so bad it might be considered pornographic but if you stick with it to the back page you will be rewarded by the Utah County friars.

Also, I was interviewed on KBYU-TV - the voice of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints - before Christmas. It was a short interview but I was able to quote the Wheaton statement. Now if I could only live it!

It was a good Christmas in Zion. Shared in the warmth of several families and hope I was able to bring a bit of warmth to my people at the State Hospital. Tony and I are well taking care of the Arizona Definitior.

Christmas wishes to all!

What's It All About...?

In recent years there has been greater humanness shown in the interpretation of the vow of religious obedience. Priests, Brothers, Sisters have been consulted about their preferences in work and assignments. This has helped to ease the tensions of work and made situations more compatible and happier. Thus everyone can do a better job religiously. However, we are all a prey to self-deception. How many times have we pushed ourselves beyond the limit? How many times have we neglected to take time off (even when urged by friends)? The vow of religious obedience for the Priest, Brother, Sister is a protection against this kind of self-deception. The superior, who has the total spiritual and physical welfare of each member as his responsibility, can order the necessary help. What a welcome change in the attitude of the Church and Religious Orders; people are not sacrificed on the altar of institutions and projects. The individual spiritual welfare takes priority over all else.

About a week ago Father Matt was called to San Francisco to meet with Father Alan McCoy, O.F.M., the Superior of all the Franciscans in the West. As a result of this meeting Father Matt was asked to check in to St. Francis Hospital, Lynwood, California. It is well known, Father Matt has had a health problem for many years and has frequently gone to this hospital for treatment. It is here that the doctors who are familiar with his condition can give him the best help and care. There is no immediate prospect of Father's return.

The Bishop of Salt Lake has been informed of this turn of events. After consultation with him and others we will have to adapt and reorganize our services both here at St. Francis and our Mission stations of Payson and American Fork. Beginning next weekend the tentative schedule will be:

Friday: Confessions - 4:30 to 5:00 and 8:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Saturday: Payson Mass - 6:30 p.m.

American Fork Mass - 8:00 p.m.

Sunday: St. Francis Mass - 8:30, 10:30 a.m. and 12:15 p.m.

The most creative, healing and human way for a man to peckon with pressures is by living in the present with others, borrowing light from the past, hope from the future. That's what it's all about.

WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS! ON BEHALF OF MY FRANCISCAN BROTHERS AND SISTER DONNA I PRAY ALL PEACE AND GOODNESS YOURS. I ASK THE INFANT CHRIST TO BLESS YOU NOT WITH THE SWEETNESS OF CHRISTMAS BUT WITH THE GROWTH AND STRENGTH INHERENT IN THE GAYTOR MESSAGE THAT CHRISTMAS IS THE TIME TO ACCEPT OUR HUMANITY AND TO MAKE IT HOLY. JESUS CHRIST, BORN OF THE VIRGIN MARY THIS DAY, IS A MAN LIKE US AND HE IS HOLY.

ANOTHER CHRISTMAS. SOME 2000 CHRISTMASSES SINCE BETHLEHEM OF JUDAH. OBSERVANCES CHANGE IN MAN'S RUSH ALONG THE PARALLEL PATHS OF RELIGIOUS DEVOTION AND VERY HUMAN MERRY MAKING AND THE TWO TOGETHER ARE THE FITTING WAYS OF CELEBRATING THE BIRTH OF THE GOD-MAN AMONG US. JAPANESE LIGHTS REPLACE CANDLES AND EVEN THE FERTILITY SYMBOL THAT TREE WHICH ONCE ONLY GOD COULD MAKE, IS NOW PLASTIC AND HEAT AND FIRE PROOF AND LASTS YEAR AFTER YEAR. AND WHO HAVE WE REPLACED?

LOOK ABOUT US THIS CHRISTMAS 1972. WE ARE LED BY LEADERS (ELECTED BY POPULAR VOTE) WHO CONTINUE TO MAKE CRUEL HEROD'S SLAUGHTER OF THE INNOCENTS A PRIMARY ROMAN HOUSE BY COMPARISON. (BUT THEY'RE NOT LIKE US AND THEY'RE VIETNAMESE!) PARENTS OF THE YOUNG UNWED MOTHER FALL TO JOSEPH'S TEMPTATION TO "POW HER AWAY A QUINCY". THE TEMPLE HAS ITS CONTINUE TO EXOTICIZE IN THE TEMPLE EVEN AS TO WHO SHALL PRAY FOR THE DEAD.

I SAY THESE THINGS NOT TO DENY OUR WISH OF PEACE AND GOODWILL TO ALL, BUT TO GIVE HOPE THAT JUST AS CHRIST DID NOT HESITATE TO GO INTO A WORLD PEOPLED BY PERSONS LIKE YOU AND I, HE DOES THIS CHRISTMAS ACCEPT US. LOOK AT THE GRIN IN CHURCH. IT MEANS NOTHING TO GOD EXCEPT FOR THE DEVOTION OF THOSE WHO BUILT IT. THE STRAW IS SANITIZED AND THE PICTURE OF JOSEPH AND MARY ARE PLASTER OF PLASTIC AND IN ALL FIRMHOOD OUTLIVE HOLLOW. SO UNLIKE US WHO LOVE AND HATE AND LAUGH AND CRY IN A VERY UNSANITIZED WORLD. BUT YOU AND I ARE THE ONES GOD BECAME MAN FOR.

AT CHRISTMAS IT IS EASIER TO SAY "I BELIEVE IN GOD". AFTER ALL, DOESN'T EVERYONE? AND THAT BABY IN A CRAWLER IS PRETTY HARMLESS. OUR LOVE IS BOUNDLESS. WHY WE MAY DROP AN EXTRA COIN IN THE COLLECTION BOX OR THROW A DIME TO THE BEGLING MAN ON CENTER STREET OR SMILE TO THE CLERK AT LONT AND OUR SMILE MIGHT BE RETURNED. IT DOESN'T HURT VERY MUCH TO SAY "I BELIEVE IN GOD. MERRY CHRISTMAS!" THIS CHRISTMAS I ASK YOU TO SAY SOMETHING DIFFERENT. ASK YOURSELF "DOES GOD BELIEVE IN ME?" THE ANSWER WILL HELP YOU HAVE A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS.

We welcome Father Solano Haugh, O.F.M., to Zion. Father Solano, a classmate of Father Howard's, is helping us out while Father Howard is visiting his parents in Sacramento. This has been the one opportunity for Father Howard to get away and we are very grateful to Father Solano.

Father Solano is a Definitor or Senator of our Franciscan Province, Superior and Superintendent of St. John's High School at Laveen, Arizona, Chairman of the Indian Board for the Missions of Arizona and New Mexico and above all a genial friar from Konatke (where the grass grows thin).

Next Sunday Father Solano will preach on the Indian Missions and a second collection will be taken for these missions. We know you will do whatever you can for the poorer among us. Thanks.

Parish Council Election

Please take a few minutes from the holiday rush and consider who you feel would be an asset to St. Francis Parish as a member of the Parish Council. Then choose that person (or persons) for their consistent place from time to time on the nominating station (copies are available at the rectory) and hand it in. The election will be held on January 14th. Nominations must be in by January 7th.

The Kingdom of Christ is in his Kingdom with all mankind, the bringing together of the whole human family through love. The King is born. Long live the King! Let him live in your hearts through loving others. Give to St. Vincent DePaul's, 10411 Ave and Bath, Mar 1st. 374-8901

Holy Father's Christmas Mass

A live broadcast of our Holy Father's Christmas Mass will be seen over station KSL-TV at 4:00 p.m. today, December 24th.

Collection Envelopes

You have probably noticed that your envelopes for January have different numbers on them. As in the past, we have our parishioners re-numbered each year due to the many newcomers and the loss of a few others. If any of you do not receive envelopes and would like to, please contact Louise Gaff, 374-0887.

Forty Hours Devotion

Forty Hours Devotion will be held at St. Francis in January.

Key 73

We received a letter this past week from Father Sweeney telling of a program in which 150 Christian denominations and evangelistic groups in the United States and Canada have voted to cooperate in a massive campaign during the year 1976. The outward sign will be planned is a NOON CALL TO PRAYER. Every church which has a bell will ring it at noon from Christmas to the Epiphany (Jan. 6). Please stop a minute in prayer whenever you may happen to be when you hear the bells.

Utah County Franciscans

By Bernard Connolly, O.F.M.

"We climbed a small hill, and beheld the lake and the wide valley of Nuestra Senora de la Merced de Los Timpanogotsis..." — the diary of Father Escalante, September
23, 1776.

With this simple entry — the coming of the first white men into present day Utah County is recorded. Every Utah schoolboy knows these first explorers were the Franciscans Sylvestre Escalante, and Francisco Dominguez. Es-calante and Dominguez camped in Utah County, near the present city of Spanish Fork, which they named "Rio de Aguas Calientes," for the hot springs still found at Castilla. An overland route from the City of the Holy Faith in New Mexico to Serra's California Missions was the purpose of the expedition. While the Franciscans remained in Utah only a short while, it was time enough to teach a few Indians about the One God who loved them, to meet tribal chiefs of the Tim-panogas, "the fish eaters", and to hear stories about the very end of the earth at the strange sea of salt water forty miles to the north. Their final instruction to the Indians was to pray the names of Jesus and Mary and perhaps someday the God of love would again be with them in the person of brown-robed men who laughed and who loved the little ones.

Utah would become truly a cross-roads of the west.

The explorers, Provot, Bridger and William Ashley, passed through. In 1842 the Mormon Pioneers under the leadership of Brigham Young entered Utah after their heroic trek from Nauvoo, Illinois.
The white man had come to Utah to stay. In March 1849
John S. Higbee was called by Brigham Young to found the city of Provo.

The spiritual welfare of the few Catholics to be found in Utah County was looked after by Bishop Scanlon as early as 1878. The bishop, with his own and the lord, who shared with the poor who kissed the leper and who asked for candy on his death bed to make amends to Brother Ass as he called his body, asked but one thing of his followers. He asked that they be men who go about spreading joy and peace; saying yes to life, bringing the sense of community to all. He asked his brothers to simply say "The Lord give you peace." To constantly remind his brothers of their mission he called them "friars minor" or in today's English,

"lesser brothers."

It may seem Franciscans have always been around. We find the minor brothers confronting the king and the sultan, dying with the poor in plagues, charting new lands where to tell the Christ-story as did Escalante and Dominguez, a St. Anthony finding lost keys and hopefully, being men who laugh and who love the poor. For the past forty-one years the Franciscans have struggled in the growing time with the few Catholic pioneers in Utah County, traveling from coast to coast begging for a school when a school seemed necessary, licked tens of thousands of Green Stamps so "their" children could ride buses to school, have shared the joys and the sorrow of Utah County people and again, hopefully, have been men who laughed and who loved the poor.

Franciscans serving in Utah County are members of the Province of St. Barbara whose headquarters are in Oakland, California. This Province is composed of four hundred friars wandering in the Western part of the United States and in the Negro Oriental district of the Philippines. Seventy-five young men who have decided to throw their lot in with Francis of Assisi are in formation houses in San Francisco, Sacramento, Phoenix, Spokane and at the University of California at Berkeley. Under the leadership of Father Alan McCoy, O.F.M., Minister Provincial, the lesser brothers are to be found wherever there are poor, wherever there is cause to bring peace. They labor in parishes in seven states, serve the poor in a dozen large cities, bring courage to the mi-

P.A., who is religious coordinator of the parish.

What of the future? Seven hundred years have passed since the first Franciscans began their journey, one hundred ninety-six since Esca-lante, but the message of Francis is ever new. Ever new because it is a call to the gospel of Jesus Christ. Last year Franciscans gathered at Wheaton, Illinois, to reaffirm the direction of the Order today. This "Wheaton Statement" is another expression of Francis of Assisi for our time.

"As a body of men and women who profess Jesus Christ as Lord and who claim Franciscan as their brother, we declare in hope, that these words are meant to become realized in us this day as we search for a way to become good news to all men.

We acknowledge that the way is an Exodus, in a world oppressed by the sin of men who tend to lord it over one another, whose guilt we admit in ourselves, whose crying need for redemption we share, whose plight has moved the heart of a merciful God who came as one of us promising a life where all men are as brothers and leaving us a power, completely beyond our powers, to help make this future possible. While we know that God is present everywhere, nevertheless by the pattern of His comings we seek Him, like Francis before us, especially among the poor.
We recognize as God's poor all those who suffer brokenness, of heart, mind, body, dignity and relationships.

To all these suffering their powerlessness, be it social or moral, we are convinced we dare not go except as men and women who have nothing to lose, who seek to gain nothing, and who expect to receive more than we offer, though it be our all.

It must be clear that the power we offer comes from God through Jesus. We attempt to run the way of Franciscan. We recognize in him a man divested of illusions of grandeur. Being totally overtaken by a God who became one of us, Francis purposely sought occasions to draw closeness to the poorest of the poor.

Catholics to be found in County was looked after by Bishop Scanlon as early as 1873. The Bishop with his own hands and the help of the dedicated layman, Rocco Rita, built a church in Provo. The area was served by traveling missionaries and resident priests.

In 1931 the Bishop of Salt Lake, John J. Mitty, requested the Franciscan Province of St. Barbara to take over the care of souls in Utah County.
And one hundred fifty-five years after the passing through of Escalante and Domínguez sand-shod feet once more cast a print in the black soil of Utah County.

Who are these Franciscans, these men "who laugh and who love little ones?" They are men who since 1212 have with varying degrees of success followed the gospel of Jesus Christ by living in obedience, without property and in the chaste service of others following the example of Fran-cís of Assísí.

The whole world knows Francís of Assísí and he belongs to the world. His genius in bringing the God-man to everyone we see at this season whenever we visit a Christmas Crèche. Francis, the man who built churches with his own hands, who obey-parishes in seven states, serve the poor in a dozen cities, bring courage to migrant worker and support his efforts for justice, seek amnesty for those who will not make war, conduct radio and TV programs so Christ may be the better heard by all, share the hard lot of the Indian in Arizona and "wherever the grass grows thin," sponsor retreat and study centers.

Franciscans in Utah County are Father Howard Hall, O.F.M., pastor of this parish of 3,000 square miles and 450 Catholic families. Father Howard is also a Senator of the Church of Salt Lake City and Spiritual Director of several dozen Lay Franciscans in the State. Associates in the parish are Brothers Anthony La-vorin, O.F.M. and Berard Connolly, O.F.M. Brother Anthony has shared life with Utah people for nineteen years and is presently a "bearded voice in the wilderness" to the far reaches of the parish. Brother Berard also has the care of Catholics at the State Training School in American Fork and at the Utah State Hospital in Provo.
Another member of the parish team who brings both a Franciscan vision and a feminine quality to the apostolate is Sister Donna Storms, F.S.

one of us, Francis purposely sought occasions to draw closer to the outcast, believing that there, above all, he would find his God. In this way he served them with genuine conviction of his own identity as a lesser brother, whose privilege it was to be among them.

This too, is the call we hear.
We believe it was what Fran-cís called "the better way."
We seek to:

1. Practice hospitality expressive of our universal brotherhood.
2. Celebrate the beauty and goodness of all God's world.
3. Give the widest expression possible to the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.
4. Give and live our lives for the total liberation of every person as willed by Christ.
5. Educate ourselves to the cultural sin of abuse and exploitation in our capitalistic, consumer society.
6. Patiently and consistently strip away the non-essentials which clutter our lives and obstruct the realization of the Good News."

We Utah County Franciscans with Intermountain Register readers and all who are the Church of Salt Lake City, a Merry Christmas! Our prayer for you and for us is the prayer of Francis of Assísí:

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me show love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair,
hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness,
joy.
O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in parting that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Dear Berard,

Many, many thanks for your letter along with the bulletin and the fine article you wrote for the Intermountain Catholic. I really think you have a gift for journalism and wield the pen very well. This kind of publicity is helpful to the friars in the area and certainly can be of real service in acquainting young people with our various works. I have felt guilty about having only the three of you there and wish that we could have somebody give you a hand rather soon. I will have to be in touch with Fr. Howard to see if he would want additional help at this time. I know he certainly appreciates the tremendous job that Anthony and yourself are doing. I hope you are all in good health and that the Provo winter is not any worse than the chill of Spokane at this time of year.

With every best wish and greetings to all, I am

Gratefully and fraternally in St. Francis,

AND BROTHER BERRY
JUBILEE CELEBRATION

Next Friday, May 11th, St. Francis Parish will honor [redacted] and Brother Berard on the occasion of their Silver Jubilee of Franciscan life and service. We will celebrate with a Mass of thanksgiving at 7:00 p.m. This will be followed by a reception with refreshments afterwards in the Social hall. In June the Brothers will join the rest of their class for a class reunion and celebration in California and Guaymas, Mexico.

I've known both "Tony" and "Berry" for the last 25 years. We all started out in the Franciscan life about the same time. We were together years ago both at Santa Barbara and San Luis Rey. They have acquired a touch of grey since then; 25 years of hard work and religious living in friaries like San Francisco, Portland, Spokane, Los Angeles, Malibu, and of course Provo have enriched their gift to God and man. Brother Anthony has given almost twenty years of his life to this parish alone. His Franciscan contribution is unique and unprecedented. It is not an exaggeration to say that he is a legend in his own time.

"Berry" in just a year and a half has captured the hearts of young and old alike. "With the Lilt of Irish laughter you can hear the angels sing..." characterizes his warm, thoughtful and personal communication of the Christian message.

As I invite you to come and celebrate with us in thankfulness for these two brothers, I am reminded of the words of St. Francis concerning one of his first followers, Brother Juniper. "I wish I had a whole forest of such brothers."

Next Saturday, May 12th. Adoration begins at 8:00 a.m. and concludes at 5:00 p.m. Why not spend a quiet half hour (or a few moments) in prayer before Our Eucharistic Lord. You'll be glad you did and the whole parish will benefit by your presence.

Confirmation - Last Monday evening Bishop Joseph L. Federal celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation with thirty-five of our young people. Again, our congratulations and prayers are with the newly confirmed.

Our thanks to the many who helped make our celebration of Confirmation beautiful and more meaningful. A thank you to Mrs. Bob Kline for playing the organ and to Mrs. Dave Chapman and Mrs. Jerome Denier for handling the reception afterwards.

A special note of appreciation to those parishioners who shared in the confirmation not because they had a relative being confirmed but because they realize Confirmation is a parish celebration. We did miss having the "parish" in attendance. Hopefully, as we grow in the realization of just what "parish" is, we will see more parishioners celebrating Baptisms, First Communions, Marriages, Confirmations and the other Christian-life experiences of fellow parishioners.

Youth Club - In another week we plan on elections for officers for the parish Youth Club. We ask the young people of the parish to give thought to who they would like elected and to suggest activities for the coming summer and school year. Next week we will have more information on this. Today we ask our young people to give some thought to the youth club. Also - we are looking for an adult couple to help with the youth activities in the parish. More on this next week - but for now, please consider your own qualifications for this frustrating-rewarding-enlightening-enjoyable sharing in the parish. Contact Brother Berry.

Council Meeting
St. Francis Church

APR 11 1976

Held at San Andres Church, Payson

Present: Frank Becken, Mary Spore, Pete Fakler, Pop Fakler, Emile Perran, Bud Goff, Toffee Hauzen, Kyle Mitchell, Anna Oshorn and Bill Phillips

Exposed: Howard Christensen, Heinz Dabren, Sister Zonna and Father Howard

Absent: Joe Valerio

Visitors: Pedro Gonzalez, Mary Lopez, Lorena Garcia, Josie Martinez and Patry Germano.

Frank Decker opened the meeting with a prayer. He then read the minutes of the last meeting. There were no corrections to the minutes.

Fate Parker discussed the financial report. He noted that we have been losing money each month since Christmas. A letter has been sent to Father to ask him to talk to Grove during April, but we have received no reply. Fate handed out a budget analysis for the first quarter of 1978. Ron stated that they had met with Father to discuss a priority list of items needed during 1978. They are now ready to make up their needs. Frank said this should not necessarily be their goals, but rather a list of descriptions. He asked that all members have a job description ready by the next meeting. Will Phillips felt this would be a great help to those coming on the Council in the future.

Many lawyers asked why the college students were not asked to pay for the treatment delivered to them. I responded that we table discussion this until father or father are here to explain.

Ron then explained the problems to date regarding the drainage problem at the school. They talked the Mayor and met with the City Engineer and others. The City agreed that the area is too small and they will put up a 20' pipe at their expense, but they need an agreement. They were to begin surveying last Monday. Ron feels that they will take some of the problem. Much discussion followed concerning our putting in a field drain. Bill asked if we needed a decision on it now. Ron didn't feel we did. It is possible we do not need a field drain. We have a French drain that doesn't.

Torrie Ferran commended the people of Payson for keeping up the church at their own expense. However, they need a parking lot. The City said they are in violation when they park their cars on the street and it is especially hazardous during the winter. They have been asked to park elsewhere. Torrie stated that approximately 17 to 25 people attend Mass on Saturdays. They usually leave from 10 to 11 o'clock. He felt an old shaped parking lot around the church would be best, with access from two directions. Tom said he feels the location is permanent for the church because it is located on land over to the town of Mineral, Nevada. He did not think it could move as easily as some other places. He said he was not necessarily interested in owning the property. He said the pipe may be a little bit shorter than what he had and that much it would cost. Gary Jones said the basement pit under the basement doesn't serve the purpose as too small. Ron suggested they go to the city to have this remedied. Torrie said that possibly we could use the pipe from the school to fix the driveway. Pete told Torrie to call him and then he and Torrie would see about getting the job done. Pete Connelias feels they could get the City to grade the lot.

ON TO FORTVILLE

With Terry O'Connell in Provo, Happy Valley was a large enough to hold us as Bishop Joseph Federal has requested the friars at Provo to also look after the spiritual welfare of Catholics living in Savier and Zanesville Counties. These are the two counties south of the present St. Francis Parish.

The total parish area will now comprise 3,300 square miles with a population of 16,500. This being from there are few Catholics but Savier County does produce 150 Old Catholics annually!

The new parish includes such charming holes, hitherto unknown to the Savier, as French, Highland, Mt. Pleasant, Mahoning, New, O'Connell, French, Mahoning, Highland, and Old O'Connell. I hope you will be happy leaving our Province and the new temples within our new, Provo and Mount.

Details haven't been fully worked out yet but we will have a very good open as a team of two or three men working together in the Province. Masses are scheduled at Highland and at French, O'Connell, and Mahoning.

Edward, Anthony, Terry and I are looking forward to this new province and hope we can bring something new to the Catholics in this remote area. There are presently only two churches in western Ohio, between Provo and the Arizona border. Both are elderly.

It has been a good summer in Provo. Good morning to the Friars and members of the Province (Ed. pub!). We felt close to the Province this summer, but we did not visit with us but we were also able to visit occasionally with the group of men from the Archdiocese. Center in the Valley and will be with a bus load of Savier people on their way from Provo to Mahoning.

Peace

Edward O'Connell

As a part of our jubilee celebration, we Brothers - that lasting relic of the Province's golden age - have been talking about sharing tacos and friendship with Miguel and the orphans in Guaymas. The other afternoon Tony and I finalized the date with Mike.

Will this be alright with you as long as the people concerned have local approval. Would have written sooner but at times I do procrastinate. Have you any suggestions as to how we might get Bart across the border. Know a friendly undertaker?

Things are well in Zion. The weekend I helped give a retreat for twenty-five non-LDS-type kids in the mountains. It was different! A week ago I saw my first confirmation class signed and sealed by Bishop Federal. It worked well and I came up with some ideas -new to me- which I think made the sacrament the more meaningful. We tried to hold the bishop off until kids are 11th or 12th graders but had to compromise with 8th graders and older.

Celebrated just being friars with Kenan Morris, the friar-chaplain at Hill AFB. Kenan is a New York man, did missionary work in Brazil. He and Tony do have differing ideas on the military but Tony keeps on trying!

Dear Brother Berard,

Greetings: it was good to hear from you in your letter of May 7th. I am really glad to know that Tony and yourself are planning the trip to celebrate with Miguel. By all means go ahead with the plans and if you can possibly get Bart to go with you I know he would really have a great time out of it.

Congratulations on the work with the Confirmation class. I think that the way you and Tony have worked with Howard on the team has been a real example for the rest of the Province. I hope we can encourage more and more of the friars to form such teams. This is the type of thing we're going to have to do for the ministry of the future.

With every best wish and greetings to all and looking forward to seeing you in San Miguel, I am

All Parish Picnic - Sunday, pt. 9th!!!

An all-parish sharing in the celebration of Mass will kick-off our Annual Fun-filled Parish Picnic at noon, September 9th! GRA Park will set the scene as we all meet to enjoy old and new friends and join in the excitement and games. It's a bring your own lunch affair with free coffee and watermelon at your disposal and beer can be bought. More important details will enlighten next week's bulletin, but BE SURE and set aside Sunday, September 9th for the happy hilarious event!!!

THE PARISH COUNCIL would like us to start a Parish Newsletter. This would be a great help in fostering a better spirit among all who are in this 3000 square miles parish. Remember how well St. Paul did it with his epistles! Before we can begin this type of venture we want to know the parish response. We cannot begin a newsletter without news! We would need special reporters from the K of C, the Scouts, Women's League, the several areas of the parish eg: Payson, American Fork, Fairfield, and we would need interested parishioners to tell us what's new in their sphere of activity. If you are interested in a Parish Newsletter will you please let the members of the Newsletter Committee know. Members are Bud Goff, Mary Bowers, Ted Johnson and Brohher Berry. We would like to put a paper out for October so we need to know your interest at once. Thank you.

A PRE-CANA CONFERENCE is being held next Sunday at Holy Cross Hospital in Salt Lake City. 328-9219 for more information. We again remind you to let the friars know three months before you plan on marrying. This will make it less hectic on you and on us. Thanx.

INTERESTED IN MUSIC? Practice is held Tuesday evening at 7:30PM in the church. The spirited music at the 10:30 Mass is a result of this get-together!

BOWLERS -- good and not so good! The Escalante Bowling Team is getting ready for a another trophy-crowned season! It's a mixed league. Interested? Call Judi Fortucci at 377-0698. Average bowlers are in demand!

High School Students!

Beginning next Sunday at 4:00PM, we plan on celebrating a special Mass once a month just for high school students. In and through this Mass we hope our young people will be more aware of their unity with one another and with Jesus Christ. From this Mass can flow a good spirit of friendship with each other and a more loving relationship with Christ.

A group of high school students has been meeting to help develop the plan and theme of the Mass, Banners, decorations, scriptural readings, songs, etc. are being selected by the students. It is to be their Mass.

The high school students (9th through 12th grades only, please) from all areas of the parish are invited to share in the Breaking of Bread next Sunday, August 26th, 4:00PM in St. Francis Hall. For more information please check with Father Terry or Brother Barry.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7:30PM at the friary, the Lectors will meet. We invite those who would like to serve the parish by being Lector as well as the men and women who presently are proclaiming the Word of God. To be Lector is an honor as well as a privilege, it is the happy work of helping all better understand the Good News of our Salvation.

A YEAR AGO WE INTRODUCED the "Intention Book" and the idea did not catch on. At the suggestion of the Lectors who met last week, we are again placing an Intention Book in the back of the church. You are invited to write down the particular intentions you wish included in the Mass and in the prayers of the parish family. This book will be brought to the altar at the offertory of the Mass. Space is provided for each day so even if you are not at the Mass, your intentions will be remembered.

And our intentions "could fill a book". Many count on our prayers...our families, the deceased, the happy moments we wish to share with God and parish family, the community we live in, birthdays, anniversaries, etc. If we are Christians we are vitally interested in one another, an interest so well expressed in our praying for one another.

A THANK YOU TO MR. AND MRS. JOE RAINALDI for hosting a great spaghetti feed for the parish Servers. Sixteen Altar Boys spent an enjoyable evening - what could be better after a spaghetti dinner than a rousing football game!

THIS WEEK we were able to send $70.00 to Brother Miguel and the orphans at Hogar Paz y Bien, Guaymas, Mexico. A thank you to those who helped. We hope many will think of our orphans at Guaymas and show their concern by prayer and also by any financial help they may be able to share with the little ones.

THE ST. VINCENT de PAUL TRUCK will be in the area Thursday, August 23rd. A thank you to all who help the poorer through the St. Vincent de Paul Society. For more information please call 374-8994.

Bishop Joseph L. Federal, Bishop of the Church of Salt Lake City in Utah, has asked the Franciscans in Provo to look after the spiritual welfare of Catholics living in St. Elizabeth's Parish, Richfield, Utah, with its mission at Snow College, Ephraim, Utah. This includes parts of Sanpete and Sevier Counties with the towns of Manti, Mt. Pleasant, Salina, Gunnison, Moroni, Monroe and Burrville. The Catholics are few and the area large. Richfield itself is 111 miles south of Provo. It is going to be necessary to "tighten our belts" so that all may be served. Some adjustments will have to be made in the Mass schedules and other activities in Provo, American Fork and Payson as well as at Ephraim and Richfield. We are scheduled to assume care of the new parishes the first part of September. In our generosity we Catholics of Utah County can show we are members of one faith, believers in the One Lord.

FATHER TERRY WILL SOON begin a six-week course on the New Testament. A sign-up sheet will be in the vestibule next weekend. Should you plan on being out of town next weekend (Labor Day!), please contact Father Terry today. We know the course will be interesting and very helpful to all of us. Father's understanding of Scripture is deep and his insights often unique. This course is a requirement for all who teach in the CCD Program, according to the regulations of the diocese. We encourage everyone in the parish to give serious consideration to attending this six week course. Christ becomes a part of us in several ways and a knowledgeable and prayerful understanding of Scripture is surely one dimension of this God-With-Us.

AS EXPLAINED LAST SUNDAY, an Intention Book has been placed in the back of the church building. Here you may write in the intentions you wish remembered by the community as together we share Eucharist. This is your opportunity to ask the prayers of all be it for an anniversary or in sickness and especially for the joyful times when you wish to thank God for the good and happy events in life. We hope this Intention Book will be yet another way of helping us to pray for one another, to love one another.

ATTENTION PAYSON AND SANTAQUIN - Saturday, September 8th at 8:00AM we will meet to paint the church building. We will have Mass at the usual time with a pot-luck meal afterwards.

ATTENCION GENTE DE PAYSON Y SANTAQUIN - En Sábado el 8 de Septiembre vamos a juntarnos a la iglesia a las ocho de la mañana para pintarlo. Despues de pintarlo vamos a tener una comida "pot-luck". La Misa sera al tiempo usual. Que vengan!

FRIDAY IS THE LAST DAY OF THE MONTH. Hope you will send the "calendar envelope" to St. John's Indian School. Father Solano is now Superior at St. Boniface in San Francisco but the Indians are still at Kona and in need of your generous support. Thank!

THANKS TO ALL who gave on St. Vincent de Paul's last trip. From now on all clothing or small orders may be left at the church. However, large articles like furniture or any large orders may be picked up at your home. Just call 374-8994 if you'd like large orders picked up. For orders left at the church (friary garage) please write on the boxes "For St. Vincent de Paul Society"; GIVE TO HELP OTHERS through the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

A THANK YOU to Annie Cosgrove and Stacy Dugan who often stay after the 10:30 to replace the books, pick up the bulletins, etc. Thanks girls and a continuous thank you to the other girls - young and a little older - for the work which does make the House of God more beautiful.

THE PARISH COUNCIL has instituted a program to help the poorer of the parish. This program includes a collection to be taken at the church doors the First Sunday of each month by the Knights of Columbus. This collection will be for the poorer. Parishioners are encouraged to bring canned foodstuffs to this Mass also. These can goods will be distributed to the poorer as need arises. A committee has been formed to visit those in need to see what their needs are and to acquaint them with the help agencies within the civic community. The early Christians were known "because they loved one another". In Utah we are aware of the concern the LDS have for each other. Can we do less?

THIS WEEK BEGINS A NEW SCHOOL YEAR for many of our young people - Springville on Monday, Orem on Tuesday, etc. We wish our young people well as they continue their education. In October the several programs for the younger students will begin. We have the Youth Mass once a month for high school students (9th through 12th grades). We hope this sharing together in Eucharist will develop a spirit of belonging among our young people and from it will flow a better understanding and love of Christ and one another. Brother Berry will again offer a home discussion type program for high school and junior high school students. The suggestions of the young people are always sought after and are most welcome.

REGARDING THE PARISH NEWSLETTER - We have had no response from interested parishioners.
A newsletter would be a great aid in this parish but we cannot begin one unless we have the interest of the parishioners. We need reporters from the several areas of the parish, from the parish and fraternal organizations, the Boy Scouts. Most of all we need to hear from parishioners that they are interested. If you are - or are not - will you please let a member of the newsletter committee know. Members include Mary Bowers, Ted Johnson, Bud Goff and Brother Berry.

Dear [REDACTED]

Father Howard asked me to send you this bulletin telling of our new parish responsibilities in Sevier and Sanpete counties. When I do the bulletin I try to make it folksy but I hope enough information comes across.

Also here is a map of Utah and I have outlined the parish area. The area is large but there can't be more than a hundred Catholic families in the whole of Sevier and Sanpete counties. We understand there are possibilities among the students at Snow College. This weekend Father Howard will go to the new parish with the present pastor - a good guy - and help us to plan on what to do. We are scheduled to begin in September.

On the map I circled several places..... Milford has one elderly Dominican, Father Valaine (better known as the Mad Monk of Milford), a nice enough man and was probably a great preacher at Trent. Cedar City has Father Frank Kunz, a very fine man, up in years and a loner. He lived with the friars in Provo several years ago. Really thinks highly of the friars. Moab has one elderly priest. Helper, Price and Dragerton each have a priest but this is a Catholic area with many Italians and Slovenians working the mines of Carbon County.

As I wrote in the enclosed article I sent to Westfriars, this has been a good summer. The Las Vegas kids with Bill Halverson and gang were a healthy culture-shock to Provo. Naturally we drove them through BYU in the back of the pick-up. The young people on their way to Delano also stayed in the basement and reminded us of sorrowful situations in California.

Terry is just great. The people have taken to him and he has found enough Mexicans to keep his Spanish sharp. Howie and Tony are well and so am I. Be sure to stop off when you haven't too much else to do. We're always anxious for a picnic.

Regards to the munx.

Dear Brother Berard,

Many thanks for your letter of August 28th with the enclosures. I really am happy to know that you are able to help there in Sevier and Sanpete Counties and hope that it will not over-extend your staff. The spirit of the friars there at Provo is tremendous and this really means a great deal for the whole Province. I am glad that you sent a map so that I could find the places you mentioned. From what you say the priests are really scattered, and some contact among them would be a tremendous thing. I hope the friars will be able to help in this way. I have heard from Terry and he certainly is jumping right into things. From your bulletins I can see that there is plenty going on there in the parish, and hope that you will have enough help to carry the many projects. I have been trying to work out a way of getting up your way and hope that I will be able to do so before too long. I am still looking forward to another picnic like that great one we had last year.

Brother definitors,

Unaccustomed as I am in writing the Definitorium.....
I feel I should make my feelings known to you regarding an item on the January 17th agenda. A minor item to be sure yet something which does concern me.

I have calmly survived Definitorium decisions from enthronments to liberation theology, I respect Jolon's Historic Mission Bell and I approve Delano's Huelga.
I never touch unfermented grapes and my Farah slacks are worn thin on my bottom.

But now I am moved to make known my feelings. May I make the suggestion to keep the feast day celebration or at least let the friar have the option. I might go along with a baptismal anniversary but to me my feastday is the important day to me, the day I wish to celebrate.

I have grown fond of Berard, Peter, Accursius, Adjutus and Otto -- and one does not grow older on one's nameday.

Thank you.

Dear Father Provincial,

I have been on the otherside of petitions from parishioners and in too recent memory I have been on the otherside of a request from confreres. Now I would like to express my hope that our Provo community can go on with its present membership.

Father Howard shared the letter from you in which you brought up the possibility of his going to Las Cruces. Terry, Tony and I talked it over and felt it would be fair to the Province, and ourselves, to express our feelings in this matter.

The suggestion that Father Howard might be moved cast gloom over Holy Week. He did receive your letter on Good Friday. While we know Province needs are important and that no community is entirely dependent on one man I do think Provo is unique. We are isolated and no where to go and "bitch". Here we are very dependent on one another. For reasons known but to God we four friars do like one another and do work well together.

I have long felt the unifying force in Provo was Father Howard. While he was in Santa Barbara this was brought out very clearly. The parish kept going with Tony, Terry and I but something was missing in the house. It was Howie's quiet understanding, his willingness to share all things, his evening pop-corn ritual. Perhaps these are simple reasons but we friars do thrive or fail on simple things.

I feel the parish is at the breakthrough of being one of our best parish families. With his patience and understanding Father Howard has converted most of his detractors. This past Holy Week saw so many divergent parishioner working together. Religious education is making great progress, the liturgy is meaningful to the greatest crowds in St. Francis' history. After a rather long winter the parish of St. Francis of Assisi is on the verge of blooming fully. I really think the friar who wintered the storm should share in some of the harvest.

I know from personal experience the diocesan priests have great confidence in Howie. Even this week several asked to meet with him to share a bit of his "recycling". He is very well thought of by the bishop - who in all candor - may wonder about the rest of the minor brothers.

And finally, Father, I owe a great personal debt of gratitude to Howie for providing a shelter for my "exile" and helping me once more a viable friar.

My thoughts and prayers in hopes the Provo community will be able to stay together. Others in the Province may not understand it but we do like - and even love - one another.

Thank you, Father Provincial.

Faternally,

Berard

Dear Brother Berard,

Many thanks for your letter of April 21. Father Howard told me that he had asked the community to write, and I do appreciate hearing from you. It is great to get a notice of a community that is doing so well. I certainly have felt this myself when I visited there in Provo.

I can assure you that there is no need for worrying regarding the change of Father Howard at this time. Due to the note that he had put in regarding the possibility of retreats in the future we simply sounded him out in the matter of Holy Cross in New Mexico, and even though he certainly would be willing to take on anything that would serve the best interests of the Province, we would never want him to leave a very important role there in the community unless there were a real dire emergency, and I am sure that this has not arisen at this time.

In August I would like to attend the Chapter of Mats, see my folks a few days, make my retreat and then go to Mexico.

Tom Rosenberger spoke very highly of the Centro de Idioma y Cultura Latinoamericana in Cuernavaca. I have written them and am impressed by their program and the spirit of the people at the school. If I am to do it I would like to enroll at CICLA and spend three months there, Christmas in Guaymas to see if I've learned anything and then back to the states.

The cost at CICLA is $240 a month plus about $150 to stay with a Mexican family recommended by Tom. If the Province could help the first month or so I could beg, borrow, steal or earn for the rest. My vacation could help cover transportation and perhaps some tuition.

In January, and hopefully with some working knowledge of spanish, I could be assigned or return to Provo. Howard Hall invited me to St. Mary's, Kevin Dunne wants me in Highland Park. I'm interested in college people and I'm interested in Third Order. Believe it or not, I feel my greatest talent is in speaking!

What about a replacement? John Fowlie has a deacon already working in American Fork and he could easily work in Provo also. I hear John has the possibility of two Victory Noll Sisters coming for full time religious ed. and parish work. As I told you, much of my work here is work I have taken on myself.

I hope this isn't a heavy trip I'm putting on the definitorium. I hope it will understand my needs and feelings at this time. Am I looking forward or am I merely in the menopause. This letter may not be all that clear but it is a start. With you helping in my discernment we'll probably do alright. I am content to stay in Utah if you wish. I would like to do my thing at Cuernavaca. I am asking not to be moved before Mats.

I talked much of this over with Lou during the Plenary meet at Scottsdale so I am sending him a copy of this letter. Also, here is a resume I wrote a few months ago for a formation committee.

Howie's jubilee celebration in Provo was just great. Eddie Fronske was keynote speaker for the Diocesan Youth Conference and wowed the 500 kids present at the Salt Palace.

Thanks, John.

Dear Father Alan,

We have discussed your talk at the house chapter and have reflected on how we responded to the recent meat shortage. We are wondering if the enclosed from the Salt Lake Tribune is special for Utah consumption.

Dear Brother Berard:

Greetingg! Many thanks for the clippings. Am glad to know that you will now be better received in Utah,--since you among the prophets. I was really surprised to find that the press was present at the meeting of friars. The stories that have come out have really many different versions. The meeting did bring out some good discussion. Father General took a very active part in the sessions.

All best wishes,--hope I can get to prove for a good session perhaps some time during the Summer when you will all be home.

Dear Father Provincial,

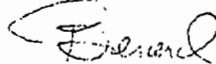

Bonnie was telling me some of the Brothers on the coast are being appointed, commissioned, ordained, sustained or whatever to the office of Lector and Acolyte.

I have been assisting at Communion and lectoring for six years so is there something I should check on or read up on concerning this.

Life goes well. Was with Bonnie in Richfield over the weekend. Komatke - where the grass grows thin - can't be much hotter.

Looking forward to seeing you on the 21 of July.

Dear Brother Berard,

Many thanks for your letter with the inquiry on the ministry of Lector and Acolyte. We have been interested in this for some time, and since Fr. Brian Flynn was working with some of the friars in Theology, we asked if he would prepare those in this area who would like to receive Lector and Acolyte, and he did so during the past months. Actually, Fathers Pierre and Brian are working out some material on this so that we can present it to the Province. I am sure that with your background both in ministry both as Lector and Acolyte there would be no difficulty in your being appointed to these offices. I will be happy to be in touch with you on this as soon as we get some material.

With every best wish and looking forward to being with you on July 20, I am

I am glad that Bonny had a chance to be up there with you and hope that it will be a little change for him. He really had a very fun year there at St. John's.

Dear [REDACTED]

Again I want to thank you for the opportunity of the Brothers' Institute. I, and I am sure the other Brothers attending, appreciate you and the others taking the time to help us be the friars we want to be.

It was especially good being with the friars and sharing their hopes and their ideals. As I grow older some of my values change but more and more it is the friars who have meaning in my life.

Dear Father Provincial and friars of the Definitorium,

I am writing this in behalf of a confrere and classmate - and unknown to him.

When and if the time comes for selecting the friars for a Samoa mission I hope full consideration will be given Brother Anthony Lavorin. I know of no friar more dedicated to the poor nor more zealous in things of God. I have known Tony for almost thirty years.

Since news of the Samoa invitation was made known, Tony has many times expressed his interest and his hope in being sent. He has written departments in the Samoan government and in fact has made plans. Getting Tony out of these mountains is a problem but he recently went to Scottsdale to visit two Samoan deacon candidates.
To me this is proof of his genuine interest.

Both Tony and I realize age, and perhaps health, may be against him but in all fairness I hope you will not overlook the greatness of the friar and the man that is Brother Anthony.

I do not doubt your wisdom - well, most of the time I don't doubt it. I write you because I know that being in Utah Tony is out of the "mainstream" and could be overlooked when you go over the friars who have volunteered.

Thanks for your time and consideration.

Dear friars,

Man proposes and God.....

Due to personnel changes here in Zion and the fact that rather few friars of the area thought the proposed mini-chapter was a good idea at this time, Terry Wenzl and I think it may be best to postpone the meeting until a better time for all. Hopefully a friar in the Intermountain/Southwest area will get it going and the interest will be more vital. Thirty friars responded out of seventy which isn't too bad an average for we friars!

Thanks for answering and let's hope we can get up enough interest for another try.

Dear brothers,

Last weekend in Tooele (!) I shared with ten college men and women, two nuns and a diocesan priest, in a vocation workshop. It was a closed SEARCH-type experience - you know, sleeping bags and up all night - and many good things happened.

Our theme was the religious as a clown. This may sound obvious but there actually was a lot to it. I so appreciate the theme as brought out that I'm sending this resume to the formation houses in hopes you'll post it, read it and probably forget much of it.

Life goes well enough in Zion. It's snowing lightly this morning. Have a happy Easter!

Peace!

Franciscans, Early in Utah

By Berard Connolly, O.F.M. of St. Francis Catholic Church

"We climbed a small hill, and beheld the valley and the lake of 'Nuestra Senora de la Merced de Los Timpanogotzis' — the diary of Father Escalante, Sept. 23, 1776.

With this simple entry, the coming of the first white men into present day Utah County is recorded. Every Utah schoolboy knows these first explorers were the Franciscans Francisco Dominguez and Sylvestre Escalante.

They came seeking an overland route from the City of the Holy Faith in New Mexico to Serra's California Missions.

The Franciscans remained in Utah County only a short while, but time enough to tell the Indians about the One God who loved them, to meet tribal chiefs of the Timpanogos — the fish-eaters — and to hear stories about the very end of the earth at the strange sea of salt water 40 miles to the north.

They told the Indians to pray and that someday the brown-robed men who laughed and loved the little ones would return.

Utah became truly a cross-roads of the west. The explorers, Etienne Provost, James Bridger and William Ashley passed through. In 1847 the Mormon Pioneers under the leadership of Brigham Young entered Utah after their heroic trek from Nauvoo, Ill.

The white man had come to Utah to stay. In March, 1849, John S. Higbee was called by Brigham Young to found the city of Provo.

Francis, the man who shared everything with the poor, who kissed a leper, who obeyed the Pope and who asked for candy on his death bed to make amends to Brothers Ass, as he called his body, asked but one thing of those who would follow his example of gospel living.

He asked that his brothers be men who would go about spreading joy and peace, saying yes to life. To remind them of their calling, he named them the friars minor, or in today's English, "the lesser brothers."

It seems Franciscans have always been around. We find the minor brothers confronting king and sultan, living and dying with the poor, charting new lands where to tell the Christ-story as did Escalante and Dominguez.

For the past 42 years, the Franciscans have grown with the Catholic community in Utah County to where this community stands today giving witness to Christ and saying yes to life. Hopefully they have always been men who laughed and loved the poor.

Today's Franciscans serving in Utah County belong to the Santa Barbara Province, composed of some 300 friars wandering in the western part of the United States and in missions in the Philippines and in Mexico.

The lesser brothers are to be found wherever there are poor, wherever there is a cause to bring peace.

In 1931 the Catholic Bishop of Utah requested the Franciscans to take over the care of souls in Utah County. Some 155 years after the passing through of Dominguez and Escalante, sandal-shod feet once more cast a print in the black soil of Utah County.

Who are these Franciscans, these men "who laugh and who love the little ones"? They are men who since 1212 have with varying degrees of success followed the Gospel of Jesus Christ by living in obedience, without property and in the celibate service of others following the example of Francis from Assisi.

In future columns we hope to tell more of the activities of St. Francis Parish, Provo, but as we enter this Bicentennial year of the coming of the Franciscans into Utah, we want to share a bit of Franciscan background. The background of Francisco Domingues and Sylvestre Escalante, the first white men to look on Utah Lake, men who loved the little ones.

(William Shakespeare)

CLOWNING

An Important archetype for the creative minister is the fool or contemporary clown. His craft is ancient and honorable (philosopher, jongleur, goiliard, jester, etc.) and like the prophet sometimes his success is measured in rejection, derision and crucifixion. So he performs a sacred role in the community: the mirror to the people of their ethic and possibilities, a teller of truth standing naked in the market place and confronting the powerful with his playful disorder, a beggar, a story-teller, a magician. The fool is often a lonely wanderer, without a tribe or family, yet this is his calling and when immersed in his folly he experiences a special intimacy with those who join him; promises implicitly are exchanged and a kinship forms--folly is contagious.

The contemporary clown wears white faces. This is not intended to mask him (though it can sometimes) but rather to provide the basis for an exploration of the inner face, a self-revelation beneath the mask of flesh. There are few moments more sacred to a novice clown (also called joey, tanbard, etc.) than when he finds his "real face," when the inner self surfaces in its wonderfully exaggerated features. Little wonder that clowns act so freely and exert such magic!

The conventions of clowning are fascinating and deserve mention since there are many parallels with religious life. Once a clown dons white face he undergoes a terrible transformation. According to the ancient convention he becomes neither old nor young, neither male nor female, neither black nor white--he is ageless, sexless, raceless, without parents or children. In greasepaint a clown has not ordinary appetites. He cannot eat (unless it is a rubber hot dog), drink (unless he spills it all over himself), smoke (unless it explodes in his face) or sleep (unless he is rudely awakened)--he has not a stomach, lungs, bladder or genitals. He has no nerve endings and cannot feel pain which is why everyone laughs at the clown who is thwacked from behind or over the head by a giant paddle or club. In makeup the clown cannot die, yet he can feel exquisite sadness and emptiness. He is an embodied fantasy, the scapegoat of his people yet their deliverer also. It is not surprising that Christ is frequently portrayed in clown motif. By impertinent truthfulness he can break through the rigid social conventions that bind his audience. Few things are more awesome than a clown let loose in the streets. The freedom he embodies is totally inviting and threatening. His very presence is a statement of liberation that reveals to the spectator his own chains, and it is far more tempting to capture and abuse the clown than to become one. But the clown is legion; his folly is latent in all of us.

Dear [REDACTED]

Our personal thanks for asking Father Dominic Amennuno to help out in Provo this weekend.

Dominic flooded this house with happiness and his simple joy was so beautifully shared in with the people at Mass. We both deeply appreciate his willingness to let us share in the liturgy in an active role.

Assisi must somehow be his spirit - if it isn't it should be. Our one regret is that Dominic never met that nice Italian girl, Angela Moroni!

Dear Brother Berard,

Many thanks for your note and the enclosed in regard to working on the Dominguez-Escalante celebration. I think it is great that the Friars are involved with this and that the people are willing to go ahead in those plans. I am glad you were able to represent the Friars of Utah for the occasion. The suggestion about the poor student at a State College certainly is a good one and I think they will pick it up eventually.

With the enlarged community there and with Fr. Theophane, we really feel we have a pretty good hold in the Land of Zion. I hope your summer has been a good one and that the coming year will be one of real life and growth for the entire area.

Many thanks for the information regarding Tony's departure. Linus said it would be a good idea for me to take part in it so hopefully I'll be seeing you over the weekend.

Thanks too for the TO suggestion... however the secret of my living with John Fowlie both here and in Spokane is that I recognize him as being absolute as pastor while at the same time keeping my identity in house and friar things. I could not work well with John in Third Order so I ask that my name not be considered as a Spiritual Assistant. Hope you understand my thinking... by now you must be aware of the idiosyncrasies of many a friar.

Thanks for caring for the Province of St. Barbara, virgin and martyr. Hope to see you next weekend.

Dear [REDACTED]

First off, thanks for your time and insights shared during our retreading month at Santa Barbara. After your class on vows and spirituality I guess I have to admit with others that you were a pretty good novice master at that. Your presence meant a lot to me personally and I know the other Brothers feel as I.

- Santa Barbara was a fantastic month. For sure the classes were good but to me at least, the "hidden agenda" is the all important. Just getting to know guys like Mateo, Didacus and Bob has given me so darn much hope. It's not too hard to call a friar "brother" but it takes the give and take of living together to call him "friend". You know, that's another reason I'm glad we shared the novitiate!

The other evening I had a call from a parishioner in Spokane asking for Claude's sister's name and address. Could you or Martial dig it up for me.

Also, you mentioned the possibility of me contacting Damian Isabel regarding the Assisi experience one of these years. Now I can't find his address.

Thanks again, [REDACTED]

Lay Franciscans in Utah

Spiritual Assistant

JULY 1977

Dear brothers and sisters,

Pioneer Day is almost dissolved in a wonderful sunset as I write you. This day has a strange flavor for those of us not "pure" Utahns and I admit a bit of my built in gentile paranoia creeps in. Anyhow, what better way to end this state holiday than to share a few of my thoughts with you who with me share in the Francis vision.

July has been a good month weatherwise although for a while we thought Utah County would be drowned in the several horrendous thunder storms. I wanted to write you sooner but I never seem to make Bob Ryan's deadline. That's the trouble having an efficient Lay Franciscan Bulletin editor.

We speak of many things in this monthly letter. I enjoy writing it and I am told at least some of you enjoy reading it. As your Spiritual Assistant I feel this is an important as well as enjoyable duty of mine.

In the past weeks we friars received another fine letter from our Minister Provincial. Father [redacted] is Minister Provincial for all Franciscans living in the western states. Your's as well as mine. [redacted] is deeply interested in Lay Franciscans having been Spiritual Assistant at Sacramento, California, and Reno, Nevada. A [redacted] is deeply skilled in things Franciscan as well as in those wonderful workings of human nature. If I may boast (you haven't been able to stop me yet!) [redacted] and I were classmates years ago. I only hope a bit of his spirituality will rub off on me.

In his letter, [redacted] reminds the friars of the blessings which come to them through the Lay Franciscans. Here is a paraphrase of some of the high lights of the Minister Provincial's letter to the friars:

"The relationship of all friars to our Lay Franciscans can be best seen when we remember that our Franciscan family is a very large one.

"It is sometimes said, half in jest, that the Lay Franciscans are a 'Happy Death Society'. If we friars show little interest then we are in part to blame. My own experience is that you (friars) will find many genuine Franciscans among the Lay Franciscans who put us friars to shame.

"But the Spirit does not breathe in vain. It is a layperson's Order: we are not to 'run' it or 'direct it'. But we are called to work along with the secular Franciscans.

"The best way we can be true to the Lay Franciscans is to be true to our call and by listening! Listening to our brothers and sisters - some of those 'other' Franciscans. For in fact, we need them as much as they need us.

"We learn Christian teaching from good books and teachers; but we assimilate it largely from working with people who have the Spirit of Christ. Similarly we will carry the Franciscan Fire as a deep moving force within us, if we pray and if we have vital contact with other real Franciscans. If you go among these other Franciscans, these Third Order members, you will see a witness of poverty, chastity, obedience, disponibility, minority, prayerfulness, charity, and zeal for the Kingdom of God which will attract you and lead you to want to do and be the same....."

There is little I can add to [REDACTED] words which I know will be an encouragement to you. In light of these words which have renewed my own convictions regarding the office of Spiritual Assistant, I have a request of each of you.

In the several months I have been Spiritual Assistant to this fraternity I hope I have done what I can to encourage you but never do I want in any fashion to "run" or to "direct" the fraternity. (To be honest, you wouldn't let me even if I tried!) You ministers and chapter and all of you too well realize this is your part of the Francis charisma and you are doing it your way, rightly so.

In the Fall a meeting is being scheduled for the Spiritual Assistants in the St. Barbara Province. I look forward to sharing with my brothers who are involved in Third Order. In a rather human fashion, I am anxious to brag to them about the great tertiaries in the Salt Lake Valley. To help me better prepare for the meeting, I ask you to fill out the enclosed questionnaire and to please mail it back to me at your convenience. Your feedback will help me better serve you as together we each follow the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Peace, my dearest brothers and sisters!

Berard Connolly, O.F.M.

PS. My "visitation" of the fraternity goes on slowly but surely. You just never know the day nor the hour when I'll appear at your kitchen door. And, seriously, if you want to see me regarding your Franciscan growth, please call or write me. I'll be up to see you as soon as possible. b.

Dear [REDACTED]

To the Province's grief at the death of Pierre I know must be added your own personal and deep loss.

I am happy he spent his last night on earth sharing happily with you and the brothers. This is the most any friar could ask for.

[REDACTED], my sympathy and my prayers. I wonder if when our turn comes we will find Pierre handing out freshly mimeographed copies of our entrance hymn.

My brothers and sisters,

With sadness I announce to you that Sister Death has called the Vicar-Provincial of the St. Barbara Province. Father Pierre Etchelecu, O.F.M., who was elected Vicar or Vice-Provincial of the Province only last year, died of a sudden heart attack yesterday, July 30th. He was 45 years old and a Franciscan 26 years. Mass of Christian burial will be offered at Old Mission Santa Barbara, August 3rd. May he be with God!

Pierre was superior of the Franciscan School of Theology, Berkely, California. He was a distinguished musician and liturgist. A very genuine friar, Pierre was always a joy to be with.

In your good prayers, please remember Pierre, his mother and brother, and all your brothers in the Province of St. Barbara, especially our Minister Provincial and his council, who have suffered a very personal loss.

Peace!

Brother Berard Connolly, O.F.M.

Dear Berard,

Thank you for your beautiful message of concern and sympathy on the occasion of Pierre's death. I appreciate your sensitivity. Thank you also for sharing with me the beautiful letter that you wrote to the Lay Franciscans in Utah. This was typically very good of you.

Please be assured of my deep gratitude, Berard.

re: San Damiano Retreat

Provincial Office:

Thank you for asking for feedback from the Province regarding building plans at San Damiano.

In the few times I have visited the retreat house I have noticed space at a premium. Perhaps the retreatants, and surely the friars, have grown in stature since Kenan Osborne first thought "Swedish Modern" on that hill top.

From my vantage point of some seven hundred miles away, I would opt for Plan Two, the building of a new chapel and the redoing the present chapel into conference rooms, etc.

Today more than in years past there is renewed interest and experience in prayer. The chapel is the rightful heart of a retreat house. I would like to see it not an all-purpose building but a true chapel. I am confident good liturgical responsibility would go into the design and building. If I may, my only and personal caution is that "honest materials" are used. The plastic altar at Scottsdale will always bother me. Many years ago I became convinced that only the honest materials of wood, stone, steel, wool are proper for church building.

My final thought is a vote of confidence for [REDACTED] He did such a fantastic job in sharing the Franciscan vision and dream at Casa Paz y Bien that I pretty much feel that if Mike thinks it a good idea let him go ahead. I wouldn't want to see him repressed (if that were possible) at San Damiano.

Peace!

Dear [REDACTED]

Enclosed is my contribution to whatever happens building-wise at San Damiano. Thanks for asking. Thanks, too for those great Provincial Letters. With your right foot forward, surely you are doing a goodly thing!

I'm settling in for another year in Utah. I feel this will be my last in these wilds. The northwest still calls! The possibility of going to Sacramento made me take stock in what I'm about and I was pretty well set for the move. I am very happy with the man who is going into formation. Angelo is a great guy and will be a very important part of formation. Besides the usual qualms moves arouse, I guess down deep I had the fear of getting into formation "politics" This vacation I plan on spending a few days possible with Tony in a formation house. Might do me some good. [REDACTED] I only hope my hesitation wasn't an added burden on you. I do know my hesitation resulted in a better person for the job.

As long as I'm in formation and as long as this letter is still personal, there is something which bothers me. At this moment I have hesitant feelings about Greg Sandritter entering the novitiate this year. I don't know if being area vocation promoter gives me the right to say this but I feel being a friars does.

Greg is a nice enough fellow and I do like him but I also have serious reservations about his maturity and stability. I feel he has shown a certain lack of both this summer. He is staying with a parish family which regards pot and somewhat anti social behavior as of little or no consequence. I very often think Greg is worse than the kids. I realize the men living with him in formation are better able to judge but I feel my conscience tells me to at least raise the caution.

On a positive side, Greg has some genuine qualities which may grow and mature under the proper direction. I am also very much aware that he has not been made to feel welcome in this friary. This is a serious lack on the part of we friars! I am not trying to push Greg out but I do ask that care be given him in these formation years. I hope you will appreciate my motive in writing this.

How were things in Guaymas? Tony told me you and he were heading down that way. The Hogar really grows on you. Last night I was showing some slides I took (for a fund raiser) and again fell in love with the little people at the orphanage. Hope Tony's health is OK. He sounded like he's anxious to get to work with the Mexicans in Oakland and with formation.

Life goes well enough here. I plan on spending more time this year with the Salt Lake Lay Franciscans. They are just great people. I'll share

Franciscans Meet

St. Barbara Province Franciscans, both Friars Minor and Lay Franciscans, met at the San Damiano Retreat Center, Danville, California, recently to share mutual problems and successes and to reappraise the role of the Spiritual Assistant (usually a friar or sister) in the lay order.

Brother Bernard Connolly, O.F.M., Spiritual Assistant to Lay Franciscans in the Salt Lake area attended along with thirty friars and a number of Third Order members. The meeting was chaired by Father Terry Wenzl, O.F.M., Southern Regional Minister, and Father Brendan Mitchell, O.F.M., Provincial Minister. Delegates hammered out guidelines defining the role of the Spiritual Assistant and means of increasing vocation awareness.

Forty men and women in the Salt Lake area share the common bond the Order provides for mutual help in following the Gospel of Jesus with a simple and honest outlook. The Lay Franciscans are for the most part active in their parish families and in the diocese. Many walk the extra mile in caring for the sick and lonely. All are invited to share in a directed spiritual life. Members meet monthly in a gathering which combines light-hearted community banter with ever-new study of the Gospel. The Lay Franciscans continue to draw strength from their seven hundred year history and find definite direction toward spiritual progress which enhances their involvement in parish, as well as in the Cursillo, Marriage Encounter and other apostolic movements.

Great interest among the delegates was focused on a plan for the "simple life." Father Geoffery Bridges, O.F.M., Ph.D., San Francisco, spoke to the establishment of fraternities of friars and lay men and women living according to the Franciscan ideal of the Gospel emphasizing the poverty and simplicity of this ideal. Elements in this life style would include:

- 1) A living together in the same or adjoining housing. This would involve the friar leaving the security of his friary and the lay members "selling and giving to the poor."
- 2) A definite choice of a simple life style in food, housing, neighborhood, transportation, clothing, "conveniences."
- 3) A commitment to anticonsumerism; resistance to annual fashion changes, annual model changes in autos, etc., a determination not to be influenced by commercials, fads, and the "need to buy."

- 4) A commitment to coop approach to food buying, avoiding as much as possible large food chains.
- 5) A commitment to promote means to rectify the distribution of good — to work for world food justice.

Quoting from a column in the San Francisco Chronicle, October 26 1977, The Move to Living a Simple Life, Harold Gilliam, Father Geoffery reminded the delegates that millions of Americans are living the simple life and are doing so without knowledge of the Gospel call. Their motives may be practical and secular but a change of value is setting in. This could well be a "preparation for the Gospel."

Reasons for this return to the simple life include the fear of running out of resources, pollution, failure of wealth to bring happiness, inflation;

Parish Sets Celebration

Parishioners of Sacred Heart Church, 9th South 2nd East, Salt Lake City, will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the dedication of the present church building this Sunday, December 11th. His Excellency, Bishop Federal, will offer Mass at 4:00 P.M. Monsignor William E. Vaughan, present pastor of St. Ambrose Parish, under whose pastorate Sacred Heart Church was built, will speak at the Mass.

After the Mass, parishioners and friends who have made reservations will have dinner prepared by the CYO.

Before the present Sacred Heart Church was built, parishioners used an old wooden frame building from 1917 till the present church was dedicated in 1952. The old church was named church of the Divine Saviour. It is now being used as a union meeting hall.

Though often not recognized as such, each of these reasons is another aspect of the gospel call to share, the give drink, to turn the other cheek, to forgive, to not worry, to love.

It is estimated that 5 million Americans are full fledged adherents of living the simple life. Another 50 million are partly involved or are sympathizers to the movement. The Roper Poll, 1975, gives these figures: 51% are convinced we must cut back on production/consumption; 92% disapprove of yearly model changes in cars; 91% are willing to give up meat once a week; 90% are ready to dispense with annual fashion changes in clothing; 75% are willing to keep clothes until they wear out; 77% want to change life style toward less consumption if it meant lower risk of inflation and unemployment.

This simple life style is also the goal of the Lay Franciscan and with varying degree is sought after by two million tertiaryes the world over. The challenge is there — to follow the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ — and the Lay Franciscans seek to find the encouragement in the fellowship of their fellow Franciscans. Men and women in the Salt Lake area interested in knowing more about the Lay Franciscans are invited to contact Mr. Stan Stott, 8301 So. 835 E. Dear [REDACTED]

It was good seeing you in Phoenix. After getting back to Utah I did some thinking, sought in discernment with people I trust and love, and then wrote Tom Rosenberger.

As I told you, trying to get a handle on Spanish has been a hope of mine ever since Martial tried to teach me from Pitarro and Green. Seems like wherever I've been I have left "easy to learn" Spanish books and records. I have a helpless feeling when so many expect a friar to have at least a little knowledge of their language.

May I propose this for your consideration...

I have been in Provo for over seven years. I wonder if the time has again come to be stranger and pilgrim. I do good work in Provo, mostly with the youth. I am especially sought out by collage kids but more and more I feel I have lost my "charisma" with high schoolers except in one on one situations where I still seem to have it. In fairness to the kids I wonder if I should move on. I also feel this parish has lost its unique Franciscan style. We once had a flair here. Just ask the bishop!

I am now fifty. My life is more than half over. I do not want to lose my creativity before time. I want to experience community, to share in house chapters. There are so many friars I do not know and yet I call them brother.

It will be hard leaving Utah, if this is your decision. It is a beautiful state. I am happiest in small towns. I do not like cities and have no enjoyment in the city attractions of movies, ball games, restaurants, etc. I am a valued member of the diocesan Youth Ministry. Many in Utah lean heavily on me. I love and am loved with a passion I nowhere else experienced. I am perfectly willing to leave Utah if I should and willing to remain if I should. If I am to leave, may I ask this:

I am attending the ordination of one of my Portland kids in June. I am committed to youth retreats, workshops with the diocesan office during June and July. I plan a Bible week during June with children at Payson. Also, John and Linus expect me to handle the liturgies at the mission stations during June and July while they are on their vacations.

OFRM CONN 1

What do I do?

Well, I live and breathe and sometimes pray. I feel good about myself and my life - unless I'm in a pit of despair.

My work here in Utah is varied and gives me great opportunity for personal growth and to share what I believe to be the gospel of Jesus. I'm kept somewhat busy and would be even moreso were I not somewhat lazy and a great procrastinator - as the lateness of this proves.

In the friary I cook the evening meal just about every day. I do much of the shopping and am more or less sacristan. I think this is important because there is something special about Franciscans "working with their hands". I take care of the house books and am listed as librarian but do not let that bother me.

Working with youth is my principal assignment. I've been in kid work since the beginning when I had the Altar Boys in Portland, Oregon. (My God, one of them will be ordained a Jesuit this June!) Where once I related to kids as a brother, then as a father, today I feel more like a grandfather. I teach all four high school religious ed. (CCD) classes, hold meetings, try to entertain the high schoolers, play in the snow, listen to and try to heal their heartbreak, laugh and cry with them and otherwise try to do the friar thing. On the diocesan level I am a part of the Office of Youth Ministry, help give youth retreats and prayer nights. I have directed SEARCH programs for the diocese. I am a member of the diocesan vocation committee and work for diocesan and Order vocations. I seem to have good success sharing with the college people at the U of U and Weber State Newman Centers. I enjoy working with the young but am beginning to feel I am not fair to the kids since age is creeping up and I'm just not as exciting as I once was. I know I offer a necessary maturity-balance but ---- hell, I have a hard time climbing these Utah mountains. I'm out of breath just climbing the stairs to see who's making out in the choir loft!

I serve as Catholic Chaplain at the Utah State Mental Hospital here in Provo. Twice monthly I hold a Communion Service where the lucky patients listen to a fantastic homily. As they say, "Berard, we like you because you're like us!" I enjoy this work and feel I have something good to offer. I seem to have understanding for the mentally ill and I have no fear of them although I was once beaten up by a patient. I also visit the Utah State School for the Severely Retarded. Again, I think I relate well enough.

In the parish I bring weekly Communion and visit with a number of shut-ins and they do seem to appreciate my visits. I do whatever listening (as distinct from counseling) I am asked to do by parishioners who have become friends and by strangers. I believe I offer a different dimension.

I have been appointed Spiritual Assistant to some fifty Third Order members in Salt Lake City. I meet with them two or three times a month. I try to make home visits to these tertiaries and visit whenever one is in the hospital. I never miss a funeral! I really encourage men in formation to become interested in the Third Order. It is rewarding in so many ways.

I consider myself fortunate being in a spread out diocese like Utah and sharing with priests, nuns and folks who are generous to a fault. I'm the only Brother in Utah except for some Trappists - but they're locked up!. Because of this I'm in demand as a speaker on pannels and women's clubs and Bar Mizvah. I'm a novelty!

A help in my doing my thing for the kingdom is that Canon Law doesn't perceive a Brother being anything but a monastic laborer, the bishop isn't quite sure what the hell I am and here in Utah I am free of stereotype. Incidentally, here in Zion you can't compliment a man any higher than by calling him "brother".

As I enter my third quarter of life I am at peace. I'm content with still enough gnawing to keep me restless and wondering. I see the unique gifts I am free to offer as a Brother not tied by the ecclesial and I wouldn't trade my life for anything.

The Franciscans
St. Francis of Assisi Parish

Provo, Utah 84601

Dear Berard,

Thank you for your welcome letter of May 3rd. It was a beautiful letter, full of many deep Franciscan sentiments, which I know are true and real to you.

They come across as real to other people too, Berard, and it is for that reason that the Definitorium would like to appoint you to the staff of the Novitiate house here in Oakland. As a member of the solemnly professed community your principal work would be to give support to the Master of Novices and good example to the novices. I think we may be able to make that a little more precise as time goes on. For the time being that would be the substance of the assignment.

I would like to tell you the reasons why you were chosen for this position. To sum it up, it is because you are a genuine Franciscan. You also have a great deal of patience, are a good man to talk to, know all sorts of things about Franciscan history past and present, you work well with young people, and you work well with those who are not so young.

I was just thinking of my father's funeral and how the whole Province of St. Barbara was represented by you. I think you will do equally well in representing the Province and the Order to the novices. I can think of very few assignments that have given me greater joy and community.

Before I send an obedience I would like to know if you think that you should accept this assignment. I will appreciate an early answer if this is possible.

A secondary part of the assignment would be one or two more possibilities. You asked to go to Mexico to study Spanish. Would you consider postponing that, and I do not mean to make any promises, but you are solidly established in the novitiate it might be a possibility. I think that you would also have the opportunity to study Spanish here in Oakland at the same school where Tony has been studying. You could get in touch with him and see what he thinks of it. My Impression is that it has profited him quite a bit. It certainly is not the same thing as living in a foreign country, but for your present purposes you might find it quite adequate.

There is still another possibility and that is that you could spend some of your time working in the parish here at St. Elizabeth's. Recently, Fr. Oliver asked for a friar whose principal ministry on a part-time basis would be the care of the elderly especially those in the convalescent hospitals and care homes and those confined to their own home. This would involve working closely with the pastor and the pastoral staff here at St. Elizabeth's.

These then are the main considerations: living in the novitiate community and being of help to the Master of Novices to the degree that both of you feel comfortable with, with the possibility of some time spent in studying Spanish and/or some time given to the care of the elderly here in St. Elizabeth's parish.

I would appreciate any reflections you may have on this request. I assure you of my prayers and of the confidence that the entire Definitorium has in you.

With every best wish, I am

Fraternally yours in Our Father St. Francis,

the franciscans

Dear [REDACTED]

To further your growing belief that the friars get stranger as they get better, will you please put this in my file or wherever.....

THREE SIMPLE REQUESTS FOR MY FUNERAL:

- 1) I want a closed casket. No viewing. I feel very strongly about this. (I'll haunt you if you don't follow my request.)
- 2) If you can find it in my room, I want my Oregon State flag over the casket. The Northwest will always be "home".
- 3) I do not want a concelebrated Mass. Most concelebrated Masses, in my eyes, lack beauty and I feel they separate the gathered brothers.

Thanks.

Peace!

Dear [REDACTED]

In regard to your letter and our telephone conversation.....

The possibility of going to the novitiate was a bomb shell. It almost blew me away but I guess I have the required orneriness and resilience and here I am!

This time I really read the signs wrong. I prayed - but perhaps not enough -, I sought in discernment with trusted and loving friends and for the first time in my life I requested something of the definitorium. I was so sure of going to Mexico I renewed my passport, contacted the Mexican Consulate in San Francisco, got a schedule from Aereomexicana and sent a registration to the Centro de Idioma y Cultura in Cuernavaca. What went wrong????

I'm still vasilating between feeling sorry for myself with thoughts of "I'm being screwed" and old deep feelings of not straining after vain learning, to perhaps it is better the young friars have the opportunities, to I'll probably be very happy in Oakland - I love Utah after hating to come here after Spokane. Anyhow, [REDACTED] you know me well enough to understand my feelings. I know things will work out.

I am confident I am doing right in leaving Provo at this time. This is a hard thing to do! After the decision was made I looked at things in a different light. I've been here long enough, I see parishioners who will do better than I with the kids. My two regrets are leaving the diocese where I am even more than a "character" and am loved and sought after by so many. I also find it difficult leaving the state with which I have a sincere love/hate relationship. I am very, very much affected by my surroundings. (Did I ever tell you two things I've often prayed for - that I not be stationed in the Bay Area and especially not at St. Elizabeth's? Just asking!)

[REDACTED] I'm grateful for whatever trust you have in me. I am looking forward to seeing more of the friars including yourself when you are not wandering around the Province or wherever else you wander. I'm fairly confident I'll work well with the novitiate and I'll find enough to keep me busy. I don't like the Bay Area but I might come to like it. More than anything I will probably miss the freedom which comes with the use of a car and driving hundreds of miles of empty highways. I'm another friar who finds driving the great relaxer. Or is it called therapy.

So, [REDACTED] I'll be seeing you at Mats and at Oakland in August. I'll leave another set of easy-to-learn-do-it-by-yourself Spanish books in Provo and get on another kick. As Martial told me so long ago "Connolly, you're a dreamer."

Next year in Jerusalem..... or Cuernavaca!

Peace!

[REDACTED] the Obedience came this morning. Thanks for your consideration. I'm actually looking forward to the novitiate house. I'll be in contact with Brian and probably Oliver.

[REDACTED] and Linus are wondering if anyone will be coming to Provo. You may want to drop them a note. Both have been supportive of me regarding this Obedience.

Dear Berard,

Thank you for your letter of May 31st. I am sorry that it has taken me so long to answer, but I count on your understanding. I have been more than usually busy with correspondence, changes, and a bit of traveling.

Thank you for the funeral request which I hope we won't have to use for a long time. I agree with numbers one and three; number two belongs to you alone, since I have never been stationed in Oregon. The letter will be kept on file.

I appreciate you giving me your frank reactions to your change and the beautiful spirit of obedience that comes through your remarks.

However, don't rule out the possibility of going to Mexico in the future and learning Spanish. Spanish is not vain learning. I too made a request to go to summer school and take more Spanish the year that I was transferred to the novitiate, so maybe there is a pattern going on here. I also was turned down.

Maybe it would be a good idea to bring the set of Spanish books along. You may be surprised that you will have some time here to use them. Possibly after you've gotten settled down, maybe about a year from now, you might consider going down to MACC or Cuernavaca for the summer to take a Spanish course. Anyway time will tell on that and there'll be time to talk about it during the coming year.

John Fowlie was here for Ronan's funeral the other day, and although I visited with him together with other friars, I didn't get a chance to talk to him in private. It didn't seem to be the place and there wasn't enough time.

I look forward to seeing you at the chapter of mats and then occasionally when I stop in Oakland after that. All the best to you, Berard, and thanks again for your generosity.

"They shall be pilgrims and strangers, wanderers, for the sake of the kingdom"....francis of assisi

After eight years it is again my turn to be wayfarer for the kingdom. Our Provincial asks me to leave Utah and be an associate at the Franciscan novitiate. I will leave for Oakland, California, August 7th.

I have mixed feelings. I am somewhat humbled, or is it embarrassed, that the Province feels I have a dimension to offer the young friars in formation. I am saddened with the realization I will no longer share in the Church in Utah. You are exciting Church, you are close, you are generous often to a fault.

I have been part of our Lay Franciscan Salt Lake Community for not too long. I am very proud of you because of your generosity in sharing yourselves with the Church and for our brothers and sisters.. (You should hear me bragging about you in a shamefully un-Franciscan way whenever I meet Lay Franciscans from other fraternities.)

Father [REDACTED] and Father Brendan Mitchell, Provincial Assistant, will appoint another friar to be Spiritual Assistant. I am already jealous of him. I know he will share a greater expertise than I. I know you will be as generous with him as you have been with me.

I especially thank Stan and Bob who have ministered to us these years, and to all our ministers. I thank Alyce Bai for her encouraging morning study group. I thank our visitors to the sick, our fantastic pot-luck ministers, our "prayers", our shut-ins, our young couples. I thank you all for being true brothers and sisters. I thank each of you who, in the spirit of our father Francis, each day "begin anew".

My sisters and brothers.... the Lord give you Peace!

Brother To Leave Utah

Brother Berard Connolly, O.F.M., St. Francis of Assisi Friary, Provo, received word from his Provincial superiors that he has been reassigned. On August 7 Brother Berard will leave for California, where he will take on the duties of an associate at the Franciscan Novitiate in Oakland. He will also do pastoral work in a nearby parish.

Brother Berard has spent seven and a half years at the Provo friary cooking for the Franciscan community, in pastoral assignments and in working with youth ministry and in religious education. He is active in the diocesan Search program, in vocation and prayer weekends and in other diocesan youth involvements.

At Provo, Brother Berard is Catholic Chaplain at the Utah State Mental Hospital, conducting chapel services twice monthly. He is chaplain at the Utah State School for the Retarded, American Fork. Brother holds memberships in the National Apostolate for the Mentally Retarded, the Mental Retardation Association of Utah and the Utah Association for Retarded Citizens.

He is Rocky Mountain area vocation coordinator for the Franciscans and serves on the diocesan vocation board. In this capacity he has spoken to groups throughout Utah on the Franciscan and Brother vocations. He is regional representative of the National Assembly of Religious Brothers (NARB).

In 1974-75 Brother Berard spent six months as pro-tem administrator of St. Elizabeth's parish, Richfield, then under the care of the Provo friars. During that time he improved the mission building and undertook a census of Sevier, Sanpete, Wayne and Piute counties.

For the past two years Brother has served as Spiritual Assistant to some fifty Lay Franciscans living in the Salt Lake Valley. The Spiritual Assistant is a resource person for the Lay Order and a liaison between it and the friars of the St. Barbara Franciscan Province.

Brother Berard was a charter member of the Utah County Dominguez/Escalante Bi-centennial planning committee, and in 1975 rededicated a D.A.R. plaque in Spanish Fork City Park honoring these early missionaries. He has spoken before the Provo city council and the Utah County commission and on KBYU-TV. He is a member of the North American Vexillological Society.

On leaving Utah Brother Berard has this statement: "We friars are called to be wanderers but it is so difficult leaving Utah and I ask your concern and love as I take on this new ministry. It is difficult leaving because the Church in Utah is an exciting Church where God's word is joyfully proclaimed in so many trying situations. I am especially grateful to have shared this word with Father John Kokal and the Diocesan Youth Ministry, and with priests, Sisters and folk who are generous to a fault. In the words of a song so important to the youth of our diocese, 'All I ask of you is forever to remember me as loving you.'"

Dear [REDACTED]

May I add this to the work awaiting your return from Guaymas. When you have the time I would like to talk to you about the content.

Last week I saw [REDACTED] in LA. It was a good visit and we talked over the possibility that I may be working the Vocation Office and WESTFRIARS. [REDACTED] was, as usual, very helpful.

VOCATION OFFICE I list Vocation Office first because it interests me the more. [REDACTED] was very positive and feels I would do a good job and work well with him and the other friars in formation and in vocation work.

The difficulty as I see it is simply that [REDACTED] does not want to give it up. He has gotten wind that I may be in line for it and has expressed his feelings to a novice he knows from Sacramento. [REDACTED] also phoned me and said something about the possibility of me taking on the Oakland office when he is unable to come down from Sacramento. He realizes how much he is needed in St. Francis parish with Dave being ill and Harold not that well. At the same time he seems to feel the need for the "outlet" given him in the Vocation Office.

I realize this is a touchy issue but the Office of Vocation is a one man job and I have no desire to be a second man in it. I can see only conflict with [REDACTED] and frustration within myself since my style would differ from his.

If [REDACTED] can see fit to become a full time assistant in Sacramento I would be more than happy to take on the Vocation Office. He could certainly continue with those contacts he has been working on.

If I should be assigned to the Vocation Office I would like to lay claim on the car I believe was purchased for this office.

WESTFRIARS Kevin and I spent several hours on this issue. I also spent some time with Leander over at the FCC Office. I came up with the following I also present for your consideration.

WESTFRIARS is a bigger job than I first thought. At least in its present format. I feel I can accept it only if I am to be Editor and responsible directly to you and the definitorium. I would like to select, recruit and work with my own committee. I mention this because in our conversation I began out as Editor but in the course of the same conversation became Managing-editor. Perhaps I am asking for more than you wish at this time but since you asked... I especially question what Jeff's position would be. He was mentioned by you when we spoke of forming a committee.

I see the need of groundrules being cleared beforehand. A statement of policy much like the present WESTFRIARS policy would be approved by you. I think the matter of finances should be clearly spelled out and a sufficient budget formalized.

In moving the operation to the Bay Area there would be some extra initial expense: new permit, perhaps a different addressograph system if we cannot use the present type and the purchase or rent of a good IBM typewriter with carbon.

In the Bay Area we would not have the use of the at times exotic lay-out materials as available at FCC and in the Los Angeles operation. However, I think we could do well and put out a good WESTFRIARS with an IBM machine and the use of local print shops and camera ready copy. I am sure I could count on the help of the novitiate in preparing for mail, etc. Again, format is something to be discussed by a committee, yourself and with a set of estimates in front of us.

Should you decide on my being editor of WESTFRIARS I will try my best. I hope you understand my hesitancy. Both Kevin and Gino are professionals in this field.

I hope this letter isn't too demanding but you asked for my feelings about the possibilities. I have talked over the idea of Vocation Office and WESTFRIARS with Priars I have trust in and seem to have come up with the consensus of this letter. I am looking forward to talking over the matter with you when you have the time. My first choice in the Vocation Office but I am sure I could handle both without conflict with my ministry at the novitiate. I would ask that I be taken off St. Elizabeth's.

Thanks, John.

Berard Connolly, O.F.M.

PS - While I have you.... I am working on a trip for the novices to the Poor Clares. I'd like them to have the opportunity of visiting the Clares, praying with them, etc. Would you suggest Aptos or Los Altos?

Dear Berard,

After obtaining the favorable vote of the members of the Definitorium, I am happy to announce that you have been appointed as Examiner for Candidates to the novitiate, in accord with Art. 156, 4-a of the General Constitutions.

I want to take advantage of this opportunity to thank you for all that you have done for the novices during this past year. I know it has meant much both to them and to Brian, and has given the novitiate another dimension that makes it even more Franciscan.

With fraternal regards and thanks, I am

Dear [Redacted]

I am writing on behalf of [Redacted] and myself.

May we have permission to take a "jubilee trip" to Assisi during the year 1980. The actual jubilee was in 1973 but we three are procrastinators and because of circumstances none of us took a jubilee trip at that time.

I requested permission last year and received it but time has run out on the OK.

We will probably need some assistance.

Dear Father,

Sunday morning Brother James Phelan died. He died holding the hand of one of our students who was at the Mission doing "Christian Service II". I am happy Jimmy was afforded this consolation at the moment of death. Jimmy was interested in our Formation Program. I see a "passing it on."

I am taking a few moments of your time because you are the front line of the Province's ministry to the people we serve. You are the Province's image. In this busy ministry may I add another request.

I ask you to be on the look-out for likely candidates for St. Anthony's. At present only three Franciscan parishes are represented in our studentbody: Tigard, St. Clare's and Huntington Beach. The boys from these parishes are of superior quality. I am certain there are equally fine 8th, 9th and 10th grade boys in your parish for whom St. Anthony's would be the ideal school.

St. Anthony's is a good school. For some it is the ideal school. Perhaps it would be the perfect school for a boy from your parish. Should there be such boys in your school or CCD Program, please let me know and I'll set up an appointment to speak with them individually and/or as a group. I do have a classroom program I am anxious to show to Eighth Grade Boys.

In past years there have been many questions regarding the idea of a school such as St. Anthony's. And, too often, unknowing answers. I believe St. Anthony's has examined every question and where advisable has responded by action. Today we are proud of the eleven young men, graduates of SAS, in the Province Associate Program.

As I visit schools I see much of the former opposition to minor seminaries being replaced by a new awareness. I am welcomed by teachers and principals where only a few years ago a Vocation Promoter would be shown the door.

I am proud that the majority of the people we serve in the St. Barbara Province are classified "minorities." I am also proud of the St. Anthony's studentbody where close to forty percent of the students are from hispanic backgrounds. We offer these young men the promise of a superior education with an appreciation of their heritage. And we look to the future of our Province and ministry.

A student wrote the following about SAS - "The most beautiful thing about St. Anthony's is knowing you are not alone. There is always someone to help you when you need it. There are friends who care. This must work both ways. You must care and help those around you. SAS is a place where we can live and know ourselves. It helps us realize our talents. That we are valuable people. That a person is more important than material things."

Thank you, Father. You may wish to use the enclosed in your parish bulletin.

Peace!

Berard

I phoned Miguel in Guaymas and asked him to write up a request for the money he needs. Kevin had already contacted him and he is quite happy. Miguel sounded good and very appreciative. (Now I hope it goes through!)

Also, will you write a message of some sort to our graduates for me to read to them at graduation. Naturally, I'll say a "few" words but I know something from you will be appreciated by the kids, parents and especially the faculty.

Life goes well here. Ozzie seems content at the Old Mission. Thursday I'll be in LA talking to some older candidates and will venture into St. Joe's.

Will I see you Monday at St. Elizabeth's?

Dear [REDACTED]

Back in Zion! One of my kids sent me the ticket so here I am for another wedding. One day they are freshmen and the next married men. It's been a good visit, the snow flew a little and those damn mountains look good.

Have spent not a little time with the friars. Things look good here. Rodrigo and I went for a ride this afternoon and he seems very content. Speaks well of Donan, Paschal and Connie. Hope the best for all. (I guess I do have to admit a special consideration for Zion.)

This is not entirely a social letter.....

1) I have some better than I thought feelings about Bill Brand and the Secular Franciscans. Met Bill when he was Santa Barbara for a TO visitation. Seems to have a bit more maturity about the TO than I expected.

2) Bob Artman, IC Province, seems to be trying to get back out to the Old Mission infirmary. He tells Pierre his Provincial might (!) OK it though there may be question regarding his formation director. Pierre asked me the particulars should a man wish to enter our Province. Don't want to push anything but thought you may be interested.

3) re Gus Krumm. Sorry for not getting letters of recommendation out to you. I was of the opinion you would ask those you wished to ask and it was unnecessary for the community to vote. I passed Gus' request on to Robert. I will write my letter as soon as I again see Gus, hopefully when I am in San Francisco-Danville this coming week.

Will I see you at Danville for the pre-novitiate directors meeting.

Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for the visitation and for the "up" you have given the friars and the kids. I personally thank you for the encouragement you gave me. Just don't let anyone snap their fingers when I'm around the jelly beans!

This morning [REDACTED] was telling me two or possibly three of his "pilgrims" may not be able to make the trip because of illness. I do not know what this could do to his plans.

I think it important that [REDACTED] does go as he hopes to. He is counting on the trip and at this time needs it. Should something fall through with the pilgrimage plans I hope we can provide the wherewith to send him to the homeland and to Assisi.

If you concur, I hope we can assure him he will be able to go pilgrimage or not. I may be jumping the gun but he does count on the trip.

Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for taking care of the GUaymas thing. I called Marty this afternoon. They were still awaiting the Obispo. Hope things go OK. God knows there is more than enough work for all!

Talked with David Carriere. First I spoke with David Temple. At first Dave C accepted things alright but became a bit more agitated as we went on. He was more calm than I expected but I suppose he will meet you well armed with papers from his doctors and supporters. Poor guy.

Interestingly enough David Temple suggested that perhaps Dave would do a bit better working with hispanics. Says Dave hold his knowledge of spanish as an achievement - which it is.

Guadalupe is still bitter. Sad how a guy can be so eaten up. Hope I'm better able to face life when I am his age.

Antonine Correa, at the Mission, asked to be considered for Denver! He is interested primarily because it is within walking distance of the college - also wants a new start from the Mission. Another one to see at the "visitation".

Regarding the FC allocation: I want to wait until we meet at SJB. Again, too big a money for me to grasp!

Dear [REDACTED]

To let you know Tony Lavorin has arrived at the Old Mission. Today, Tuesday, he goes up to St. Francis Hospital for three days of tests.

I spent awhile with Tony yesterday. He looks very good and seems in equally good spirits. He is concerned about his internal problems and admitted his back is quite painful.

Right now, as far as his future goes, he reminded me that when he, Joe and Tom went to Peru they made a pact that the last one there would have six months to pack-up and say goodbye. While he talked a little about returning to Peru he is honest to admit he just may not be up to it.

He told me you had spoken of Whiteriver with Eddie Fronske. He is interested in that. They would be a great team - although Tony is tone-deaf!

The Peru situation could free Tom Messner for FST. Hate to say we give up Peru since I have always believed the missions are our first call, but at least we would be building up the Indian missions with Tony. Also, we have to find help for Joe C.

Peace!

Dear Barry,

Thanks for your letter and fill in on things that happened while I was out of the Province. I'm sure sorry that I was not able to be at the Southern California Regional. I hope Peter can get on top of this and that we can get a schedule together that does not conflict with things such as our Provincials meeting. We had to actually change one of them because they were even scheduled to conflict with themselves.

I heard from Alan about John Donnelly pulling out of the infirmary. Apparently he found Sister just too bossy. I don't know how to react to that.

I appreciated your comments about Larry Hogan's will. Could you possibly pass that on to Gavin in Scottsdale? He would probably be the one to look it up.

I don't know what to think about the hand-maidens at Mission San Antonio, I really have not heard anything from Josef about it. I suppose it could work either way, either he could mention it to Joe Larue or if he prefers, I could send a note. He did say they were only there for a limited time and I think Joe Larue is aware that they should not be there when the novices come if for no other reason than the question of space. Generally when he does his booking he is very conscious of other groups coming and very cautious about double booking.

I did get a little chance to talk with Tom Mesner and I got a letter also from Tony Lavorin. It seems that at present, Tom will go down this summer to teach for a couple of months at the little seminary there and then talk to Tony when he comes back about what the prospects look like. I guess one concern is that the Bishop may be moving out and could be replaced by an "Opus Dei" type.

Thanks for looking into the situation with Paschal, I hope that it will work out so that he feels happy and not pushed out.

Finally, I'm glad you got a chance to come up and see your mother, Edilbert filled me in that she is now home but went through a rather rough bout. I hope everything will be O.K.

Thanks again for keeping on top of so many things and for the full report. I appreciate it. We'll be off to Vegas tomorrow, hope you also have a good Holy Week and Easter.

Dear [REDACTED]

In case I miss you this weekend while I am in Oakland. Hope to see my mother as she isn't too well. Also, I'm with Mike Weldon on the vocation program at FST.

- 1) Spoke to Finbar about Larry Hogan's "fortune." Finbar remembers him saying that whatever he has will go to the friars. He suggests contacting Valley Bank of Phoenix for the will. They may have it or at least have a lead as to where it may be.
- 2) Anthony Lavorin called me the other night. Is interested in Mescalero but much more interested in Peru. Claims his health is OK.
- 3) Spoke with Tom Messner at the So. Cal. Regional. Tony has been in touch with him. He asked Tony to wait until he return from the summer at the seminary in Peru. Then perhaps both of them will go - to the seminary, not the mountains. The prelate has invited Tony back. There is still question as to what will happen should JP II appoint an Opus Dei prelate or bishop.
I suppose I do not have that great a concern for Tony's physical health. Better to die happy than otherwise.
- 4) Joe Prochnow is very concerned about the Hand-maidens at San Antonio. He doesn't want them at the Mission when the novices are there. Doesn't know if he should tell Joe La Rue or if it should come from the Provincial Office. Perhaps Joe P. could invite them to stay at the novitiate while the novices are at San Antonio. They are good housekeepers!
- 5) You were missed at the So. Calif. Regional. The guys understand you couldn't be there. Since I was not prepared I did not give a report, same goes for Josef. There was a bit of flack about dates being changed but this was by the more professional flack-makers. The talk was unbelievable. You will hear about it. Don't know where Anthony G. picks up his speakers. Well, at least we learned that we will still (!) be potent at age 150 if we eat correctly.
- 6) John Donnelly saw me earlier this week to tell me he no longer works full time in the infirmary. The separation was more peaceful than I feared. He will still be "on call" when needed.
- 7) Hear nothing but praise for Loren B. and Joe C. from Jeff Macnab, Elmer and John Donnelly for the pre-solemn vows meeting at San Juan. First time I've heard such praise for that gathering.
- 8) Mike Welshaar asked me to see Paschal about moving to San Miguel. Talked with Evan who says Paschie is now happy to stay at 3 Rivers and that he would also welcome Wendy. I want to see Paschal on my way home from Oakland on Monday.

Welcome home!

Dear [REDACTED]

Happy Easter! The Lord could have been born in a woods but surely He rose in the desert.

Was in Oakland last weekend. Hauled some kids up and also saw my mother. She isn't doing that well but is a determined woman. Have been doing some serious death-thinking lately, perhaps because of my mother or John or lent. We have a good faith. Edilbert is a support for my mother as he was for me a long while back at SAS.

Went over to Three Rivers to see Paschal. He is genuinely concerned about doing God's will and seems to fear his determination could interfere with it. I suggested he offer three places he may want to go to and the Provincial would help him discern. He is not adverse to staying at Three Rivers although he says the hustle and the noise of a retreat center does bother him. He asked about Cowlitz and San Miguel. He definitely does not want to be put on the shelf. Several times he told me that and that his health is much improved. Where did formation go wrong with men like Paschal, Ivo and Romauld.

Evan says he is happy with Paschal staying there if he wants to. He would not want Paschal to be pushed out and feels he would work along with Wency should Wency be going to Three Rivers. Mike W.'s wishes are no secret to anyone at Three Rivers. Evan is more concerned about Roy. I believe he is willing to take a firmer hand but is wondering as John A. told him he would take care of it. Now what? While at Three Rivers I spent some good time with Ron Hesson. Also with Lester who I am worried about. Lester still smokes and pours on the salt. He is just not taking care of himself. I know he is a grown man and there is little anyone can do about it.

Easter Monday I am driving Antoine to San Luis Rey for a few days. He is interested in making habits - says he ought to work for the Province! He wants to check out the SLR tailor shop and I suppose the community. He has talked about this with others including Alan. Would like to come to some decision before our May meeting. I talked over some of the difficulties I can see but he feels that he could make it as long as Ralph could be his spiritual director. I have been working with Antoine for awhile and have encouraged him. I do not think the Old Mission SB is all that healthy for him. Let me know your hesitations and should someone check with his doctor. Joe C will be in tomorrow so I will speak to him about it.

This afternoon I'll meet with the wellness committee. Sad that this is becoming a political thing. I'll talk with you about John and the infirmary when I see you. It isn't as bad as it sounds.

Regarding Tony Lavorin. Hope you have the opportunity of talking with Eddie and Elmer. I guess I still favor Peru for Tony.

Will be at the N/W Regional. Going up for Michel's celebration on Sunday. --- Again, Happy Easter!

Dear [REDACTED]

It was good being with you and the definitorium last week. In many ways it was a very different meeting. There wasn't the pressure of deadline and yet there was the frustration which always comes from personnel. The FST issue is deadly and I guess I too much take to heart whatever comes flying toward SAS. Still, we kept our cool and for this I thank you.

While it wasn't the same without [REDACTED] - especially that "I'll go" of his great heart - we pulled together and who knows how proud [REDACTED] may be of us. In my Irish way I appreciated [REDACTED] not sitting at [REDACTED] usual place at least for that first meeting. Now we're on our own.

To be sure Josef and I have difficulties regarding the philosophy of novitiate, formation and perhaps life - especially in the realm of poverty, location and style of novitiate and yet I was very pleased with how easily he fitted into the definitorium. He is a good man.

Josef and I visited at San Antonio on our way south -- wheeeee! Joachim seemed more phrenetic than usual and Joe LaRue more resigned. We missed Frank and Leo! Saw the "Handmaidens" from afar. Who were we to violate their cloister! I know this business is a concern of Josef and one which will have to be cleared up before the novices are at San Antonio. John kept Joe and company at SAM on the right path. I hope Josef will be able to do as well. It is a novitiate of the Province. The enclosed newsletter was in the Mission church and gives a clue to Zimmer and the handmaidens! Of course, Joachim thinks they are the greatest thing since Ursula and her ten thousand virgins.

San Miguel was more pleasant. Reggie looked good and seem quite alert: Says he has a little trouble when on his feet too long but is looking forward to the September Fiesta.

Back home the big talk was the flap over at the Mission because of the Infirmary. Josef talked with Alan and I hope he has been in touch with Joe C. or yourself. Sister was pretty distraught. A sad scence, the whole business. Goodness does conquer, I'm told.

Phil is not doing all that well here at SAS. Since the guys here, myself included, are a bunch of whoosis, they are hesitant about the "push 'em to the brink" school of confrontation and hope you will talk with Phil rather than Joe C. I guess this is a judgment call. We will do our best.

When I returned home I found just too many kids wanted to talk with me and my community asked me to stay home. Therefore, I did not go to Phoenix. Next week I will be going south with Floyd.

Tony Lavorin wrote me about MAAC and also Peru. He wants to see me. Do I encourage? Will you be in touch with him before I see him? It was a good letter. He says his health is better -- what else is new?

Talked with Benny yesterday. Didn't make too much headway about his either helpin in or taking over a parish. Is very interested in being at a retreat house. You know, we are becoming contemplative by default. In any case, Benny has himself pretty well occupied until the end of the year with institutes and Europe. Brother Tom Paige was telling me this morning over coffee how important Benny was to the institute and how he encouraged the men.

Almost forgot, at San Antonio Theophane wanted to talk with me so I asked him to include Josef. Theo is very anxious to get a hospital or rest home. Has an appointment with Bishop Schubsda and hopes McFarland won't blackball him as to his health. I suggested, since he wants to be in Monterey now, that he get in touch with the Franciscan Sisters of St. Joseph for Dying Sinners! They're a local group and who knows.. Is Moe's sister still Mother General? Theo looked very thin but seems to be OK. Brought up the Jewish question!

My God, I wish I wrote this much for Westfriars.

Thanks again. Have a good visit in Madre Mexico.

Paz!

Dear [REDACTED]

After the def. I went on to Guaymas with Sam and the Waltzs. Was a good trip although the car was thoroughly searched at the Border by the Mexicans. Seems they are more than a little concerned about arms coming into the country, especially in cars bearing California plates. On way through Hermisillo we found snow off the high way which seems to be the first snow many have seen.

Guaymas was good and as usual I fell in love with the kids there. If only I spoke that language! Believe it or not I did have a great two hour visit with a sixteen year old I've known since he was a little kid at the Hogar some six years ago. Dario is the only person in all of Mexico who understands my Spanish!

I saw Marty only briefly on his way to Tucson. He does look good and just about everyone who spoke to me said how well he is doing. Friars even speak of him having a "new heart."

Saw Antonio at San Fernando where I went for Sunday Mass and where he was substituting for an assistant. Says a fine Mass. I understand the guys had a good meeting and a lot of their problems were brought out into the open. The friars gathered at Miguel's place one evening and we had a good visit. It does seem they are trying to "begin anew." The problems are by no means one sided, or so I am told and so I saw myself.

Bill says he has seldom been happier. In many ways he seems to be a leaven to the situation, listening to all sides, being impartial. We spoke a few minutes so he told me of his hopes of taking classes this summer in the states when Guaymas is too hot. Bill sounds like he would like to stay in Mexico.

Miguel is happier with the situation since the meeting and says all must share in whatever difficulties they have community-wise. He is often pre-occupied with finances and does feel somewhat left out when it comes to Province thought about Guaymas. He is sensitive to this and perhaps the Visitor's schedule is an example of his place seemingly being slighted. He is doing well but, like all of us, needs assurance that others care. He is working on paying the FMU back for his van but this is almost an albatross around his neck. Several times he told me of how he is doing what he can. Says Martial is understanding but has reminded him of the debt. We'll work it out someday.

Sam is Sam and I was nevertheless surprised at the distance he kept between himself and Oscar and Jose. Miguel believes Sam needs more direction as to where his life is going. Like many of us, Formation is almost the moth/candle situation where he can't stand it and yet can't keep away from it. Sam does good manual work in fixing the places in the area and for this Miguel is most appreciative.

I did not see Oscar but I am assured he is doing a fine job on the dispensario's finances and in apostolic ministry. I was amazed at the number of funerals he and Jose take. They would do well at Cooper's.

Had a good visit with Jose. He looks good and seems busy in whatever they were sent to Guaymas to do. He is interested in coming back to the states but says he is not yet ready for the Bay Area. Asked if there would be a place at SAS for him should another plan not work. I do not know what "other plans" involve nor do I know how Formation would feel about him coming to SAS. I personally would welcome him.

Had an interesting discussion with Jose, Miguel, Sam and John Howard where all said we should encourage vocations to look at the Mexican Province. Say the vocation director is a good man and things are now much better in that Province. Jose, surprisingly to me, feels quite strongly about this..The matter was brought up because there is a high school boy in Guaymas Marty would like to send to SAS and also a young man in his twentys interested in the SB Province.

Physically the place looks good. Miguel's place is spotless as usual but he is afraid he may have to replace the roof over the boys dorm due to rot. San Damian is in fine shape. The new building behind the dispensario seems adequate and part of it is being used by the AA.

Personally, this was one of my best visits. Miguel and I spent many hours talking together and renewing some good things in our lives. Mexico can bring out an honesty in one.

Hear you will be with us next week so will see you then.

Peace!

Dear [REDACTED]

I suppose I should tell you of my latest adventures in the world of health.

Five minutes before my operation two doctors came into my room (Drama!) to tell me the knee operation would be "too dangerous." The second blood test showed too much sugar in my blood.

The days after were bad. Depression or whatever told me I had lost the Church in September, my mother in December and now my health in March! I was feeling very, very sorry for myself.

Anyhow, I have gone to Dr. DeBerry who tells me I have Diabetes II and with medication and diet control should be able to get the blood back to normal and also get my knee worked on. I have confidence in DeBerry and let's hope things go well.

Dr. DeBerry graphically showed me how the sugar does change my moods and causes a real let down feeling. Things I consider moral malfunctioning - mood swings and general lethargy - seem to have a physical cause. He drew a curve chart which mapped my day almost exactly. Down with Jelly Beans at definitorium meetings!

Otherwise, life on the 16 1/2 acres goes well enough. I have Loren Blessing coming in tomorrow for our recollection day. Hope we just don't sit in silence.

Because of the above doctor's appointment, I wasn't able to get to Tom's funeral but a good number of us, including kids, were at the burial last evening. Tom was good to me at St. Joe's in those early days.

Hope the Province and yourself are well. Be seeing you.

Dear [REDACTED]

And here we are at Notre Dame! Tonight Loren B., Howard, Joaquin and I left campus for an Italian dinner (good!); a fun evening with toasts to "our mother in the west." Only friars from St. Barbara's province would walk a mile and a half for dinner.

Class and life at Notre Dame have been just great. A thank you to and the Province. I could get used to this life! Had a great class on sexuality and intimacy. Now I know why some of my friends act a little funny. My afternoon class is the true delight - Drawing 101! Yesterday I glowed like a second grader when the teacher said my drawing of a chair was so good I could go on and draw the table. I was waiting for a nude.

Notre Dame is impressive. Liturgy is certainly grand high church. I guess I really prefer the Grotto. There are a good number of Brothers at the Institute, mostly Irish Christian Brothers; and we form a type of support group. Most of my fellow students are nuns in well stretched stretch pants coming in all colors. I think I'm in love with a Vietnamese Holy Cross Sister novice. From my art class, naturally.

The downer is my mother is again in the hospital and doing poorly. This does preoccupy me. I call my sister each evening. May be my Irish but I wonder about July 16.

Hope the Province is well. Out here you certainly hear the praise of FST for its openness and willingness to extend itself to all. We are a good province.

Peace - or as we say, Louie, xin chũa ban bình an cho anh!

RE: MADELINE MARY SCOTT, Deceased

Dear Brother Connolly:

In response to your letter of December 14, 1985 regarding the interment charges for your late mother, it is regrettable that the individuals who will be paying the bill were not able to come to the cemetery to make the interment arrangements as all the charges would have been fully explained to them at that time.

The total of $954.26 on invoice #135342 covers the following:

Interment (Opening and Closing of the grave) - Labor	$378.00
Recordation (Fee for recording the interment)	60.00
Grave Box (This is a liner for the grave in which the casket is placed and is a requirement by the cemetery)	327.00
Tax on same.	21.26
Installation of the Grave Box (Labor to install)	88.00
Graveside Service	80.00
Total	$954.26

We hope the explanation of the charges will be of assistance to those who will be paying these charges, and will help them to understand that it is not just for the labor to open and close the grave.

Assuring you of our cooperation and desire to be of assistance in all matters pertaining to the cemetery, I remain,

Sincerely,

Dear [REDACTED]

Stopped at San Miguel on my way back to Santa Barbara. Saw Cliff, had a candy bar or two and was on my way.

- 1) He is willing, agreeably so, to stay on until Felipe comes in April or summer or "whenever."
- 2) He has already called on Leo and this information is in their Sunday Bulletin. He and Leo are working out the schedule.
- 3) I told him the definitorium is interested in his ideas for a House of Prayer and that with him we are closer to the reality than ever. I talked a bit about the Spiritual Life committee. Cliff wants us to realize this will take time, over a period of years, and the friars will in the long run determine the course and style of a hermitage.
- 4) I thanked him for what seems to be a renewed interest in life for Reggie. Cliff says Reggie now wants more to do (!) and this is something they will work out. The same seems to hold for Tom.
- 5) Cliff has already had a visitation with everyone in the community. This week he will see the lay staff. He will soon tackle the books which he says are in sorry state from at least five years back. The books include parish, house and retreat center.

Things look a lot better at San Miguel. Only hope the guys will adjust. I think they will.

Peace!

Dear [REDACTED]

Hope you and Mike gave Fernando a good send-off. There was good coverage here in the LA area both by radio and TV. The S/W friars did well by Paul. About a 100% turn out of friars. Mike Dallmeier, as usual, gave a fine homily. It was nice of Bishop O'Brien to officiate but having an outsider does take away a little of our ownership of the affair. I know it's probably poor theology speaking of a Bishop that way but anyhow...

A few items -

As you know, Richard McManus' father died. Richard seems quite shook up by it all. I decided on my own to represent the Province at the funeral. Joe C thought it good to do so. I also want to repay Richard for the good things he did for me at my mother's funeral last month. Will you ask Martial to reimburse me.

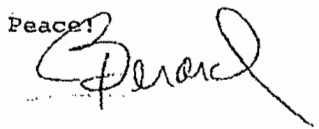

I spoke to Jan about his eyes as you asked. I encouraged him to see another doctor. He went to Dr. Hogan, a very good eye doctor, and is now scheduled for catarack (sp?) removal the end of this month. Mike will inform you.

When Mike goes on sabbatical I will be here as Vicar. I won't tell Hammar if you won't! Will you spell our jurisdiction for me and the community. I believe we said something about the minister provincial reserving jurisdiction to himself when a Brother is superior. I really am not all that clear on jurisdiction except I believe it's a no-no for a layman (even a "pious" one) to tell a clergyman where to get off.

Fabian went to the Bay Area this morning. His sister's cancer is quickly spreading. There has been so much death and illness this month. I've had some strange reactions in myself since my mother's death and may stop by Dr. White's for a visit or two.

Talked in San Diego area schools earlier this week. Saw Mike at SLR! Also Alex at Huntington Beach. Hope to be in the Bay Area the week of the 20th so maybe our paths will cross. In anycase, we'll all be together at SLR the end of the month!

Peace!

Dear [REDACTED]

Just a quick note to thank you for the two provincial letters I received this afternoon.

I think you very well addressed the financial overhaul in the Provincial office and were exceptional kind to Martial. It wasn't maudlin and it was very true.

I was very touched by your letter on prayer. I guess I should say I felt a bit guilty. I hope Cowlitz will help me refocus more of a prayer life. After all, I guess prayer is why we became friars.

While your letter spoke of prayer, Louie, to me it was another example of your heroic poverty. I would find it difficult to stand (or write) before the friars and tell them of my prayer as honestly as you did in your letter. There is something about standing "naked" which in my case is more obscene and less exciting.

See you at Danville.

Peace!

Dear Berard:

I understand you have arrived in Washington, and should be in residence at our Historic Spot at Cowlitz Prairie. I'm sure you are doing a bit of taking the land, and sinking your roots at this time, and that should be a good time. I am very happy about what is going on there Berard, and I am looking forward to the future. I hope you will be happy there, and feel fulfilled.

I do want to thank you Berard for your recent letter, in response to the Provincial letters I sent out. It was very nice of you to make the comments that you did. When you send out those kinds of letters; both the one about Martial & the one about prayer, you do feel hesitant about how they will be received, and I appreciate very much your comments. When I returned home, they were already here waiting for me.

Your encouragement in the past is what has spurred me on, in trying to do this sort of thing, so I am glad to receive that continued encouragement.

I met with Joe to plan out our meeting coming up next week. It should be a good time to reflect on where we are going, as there are not too many demands for personnel.

Thanks again Berard for your warm fraternal support.

With warm fraternal regards,

Please give my best to Steve, in your new venture.

Dear Berry:

It was good talking with you the other night.

I want to thank you once again for helping me with visitation. I did get the report on the visitations that you had. I must say you did a lot better of a visit than I did, as I seem to have been focussed on the present problem where you raised some very interesting questions and got some very good feed back from the guys. I really appreciated that and thanks a lot for sending your notes.

Over-all I think the house is doing rather well. I appreciated the strong affirmation for Pat that you registered. I will pass those on to him as I know those will be of considerable help for him.

I am heading on down to San Antonio and the following day to St. Anthony's. I know that is a real concern for you and hope that I and the others can be as sensitive to their needs as you are.

Thank you again Berard for your support in so many other ways. I do look forward to our working together as we finish out our time on board.

Please give my best to the other friars there.

Dear [REDACTED]

The end of 1986 finds me at Pat's hide-away in Long Beach, Washington. I came over here yesterday morning and will return to Cowlitz tomorrow. Didn't make a regular retreat this year so thought it best to finish up the year with a couple of recollection days. I'm glad I did. This place is excellent and I can see why and how Pat found it.

Why am I writing you? I don't really know except I guess there are things I want to say and really do not know who else to say them to at this time. Besides, I guess it goes somewhere in your job description as Minister Provincial.

What have I thought about these couple of days? This afternoon I walked along this huge and mighty beach alone. There wasn't a soul on it. Water always attracts me. I'm a genuine Pices. The sea attracts me and brings the best out of me. Must be the Irish in me. This afternoon the tide was far out. This is the time for the highest tides with the moon, earth and stars all being in the right path. I walked to the very edge of the beach, to the tideline. It must have been like standing at the edge of the world. The ocean is immense, the beach seems without end and yet the sky is so very near.

I felt so unusual, even for me! This my first full year of being an orphan, has been not so much difficult but more unusual. Standing alone on that beach I felt as though I were the only man on this planet and yet somehow standing against that cold wind I felt completely enveloped in God. I thought I ought to cry but I felt too provided for to do that.

This evening, before lighting a fire in the fireplace and writing this letter, I sat on the porch of this little cabin listening to the roar of the sea but I couldn't keep my eyes from the sky. It is crowded with stars. Like a thousand Christmas trees. The vault of heaven covers me and I feel so very mortal. Does everyone go through ^{this} at certain times in life, or is it that earth, moon, star pull we have today? Sin is surely a part of my life, the sin of neither loving wholly nor accepting without a lot of phantoms hurting and getting in the way. Yet even this is no where as real as somehow being completely held in God's arms. I can't run into the sea and this damn leg keeps me from sprinting along the beach. I guess I just want to lay on the sand and hope that God will hold me tight.

I am so grateful for Pat's discovery of The Light House. I called a piece of driftwood "The Patrick" this morning and I threw it into the ocean. I hope it drifts as far as Oakland. I think it was cedar.

Tomorrow it's back to Cowlitz. Steve took off today for a day in Portland so I won't be leaving him alone this somewhat busy week. We'll cover New Year's and the Sunday and then he'll spend a few days in Spokane with his folks. It will be good for him.

Steve is doing a great job with the parishes. Even today I met a priest here in town and he told me he had heard good things about our work in Cowlitz. Winlock is more receptive but they have had more or less alive friars while poor Toledo has had little but sin and "obedience" to the Holy Father poured down their necks.

Still, we are making good progress. It seems each week another family finds its way back to church. Families seem to like me, and I enjoy the work. I'm also a hick at heart.

Christmas was quite different. I missed the fun of the gatherings of friars, kids and friends at SAS but Christmas here was special in other ways. I helped folks build creches and decorate altars. (St. Francis has so many trees in it you expect to see Santa Claus sitting in the sanctuary.)

Sunday, several Winlock families put on a "progressive dinner" and we went from farm to farm eating all the way! So many folks in both parishes brought us home made cookies and candies. I had a very good Christmas preparation the days before. Instead of the usual fighting over Christmas decorations and nick-knacks. I visited several of the older parishioners at their homes. I brought the Holy Communion and told them the Christmas story. Don't tell Wherl but when I bring Holy Communion to someone I always break a part of the Host and "eat with them." Somehow it seems the normal thing to do. They eat alone too many times as it is.

There is a high school age boy in the Winlock parish who has been home in a coma for two years following a car accident. Somehow cradling his head in my hand and telling him the Christmas Story was the most important thing I did this Christmas. Looking into his eyes and not knowing if he heard a single word!

I wish life in the friary was as spiritfilled as life is in the parishes. I honestly do not know when I will explode - and I DO explode! How much longer I will be able to take Roger and his turning off lights and heat and going through my trash. Louie, I know you say "Do you want me to shot him? on occasions like this. Don't say it to me or I may ask for a gun! No matter what Steve and I try to do, Roger works to keep the house cold and dark. I'm getting more used to his junk everywhere and have been trying to clean up some of the filth in the house. I don't know if I am angry at Roger for being nuts or at the system that allowed him to develop into a man who saves even USED Christmas card envelopes! Maybe Steve and I should move to Winlock.

Well, now that I have that out of my system I realize I should have spent less time on looking at stars and ocean and more on the basic facts of friary life. But, Louie, I know this damn arthritic knee of mine isn't based on attitude but I have to admit it hasn't hurt as much the past two days as I know it will when I return.

Like I know you do, I've had some sleepless nights. I just don't know where to go on this SAS decision. I toss this way and that. Mind usually loses out to heart. One minute I know the kids would be better at home and then I remember the kinds of homes some of them have. I really do not think it is an attachment to SAS that bothers me. I told you that many years ago SAS fucked both Kevin and I. That's past history and today I see good things being done.

The day before Christmas I was settled down regarding SAS when I get the enclosed letter. It's from a kid in Utah. Mike Weldon knows him. Jerry is flakey; when he wasn't accepted with us he tried a poly-gamous arrangement over in Utah. (And I have my opinions on that, too!) Anyhow, my friend Jerry is now in prison for holding up the American Fork branch of Zions First National Bank!

What Jerry wrote about things happening to him when St. Francis School, Provo, closed, hit me hard and I replaced Jerry, a Polish kid, with Tony, José, Victor and dozens of kids at SAS. Why do I have to get letters like this the day before Christmas!

Louie, the process still bothers me. SAS still seems to be the little guy on the block, a little guy with not too many friends. The friars at SAS try to do the right thing and all they get from so many in the Province is criticism. We probably have a situation at FST which ~~so~~ many in the Province will talk about but never criticise as they do SAS. St. Anthony's does its best, without too much money, to educate minorities and friars speak ill of it. FC caters to a different crowd and is home free because it has three million.

[REDACTED] please believe me when I tell you I know we are all trying to do what is right. I am trying to make sense out of it and I am trying not to let emotion get the better of me. I have been called by the Province to make decisions on fact, and with heart. I will do my best.

Well, now that I'm riled up again I best once more look up at the stars and tell the Lord of those heavens that right now I may need a clearer head and His steadying strong hand. I pray He hold me if I need him next month.

So, Louie, this is what happens when I lock myself up in a cabin on the beach. It has been good. I am merely sounding off to a friend whom I care very much for. Please, there is no need to answer this.

I pray we all have a good new year. Knowing that I can in some way share the burden you and Joe carry makes it a year I am looking forward to.

A Happy New Year to you and to Joe!

Peace!

Dear [REDACTED] and Sacred Dicasters,

It's done. Last night and at two Masses this morning I spoke the enclosed to the folks of St. George's. It was difficult because there were so many genuine tears, fond memories of just about every friar I mentioned - even Mike Dallmeier. I did not fully realize the affection the folks there have for us.

Jack Wamsley spoke for the diocese and I for the friars. I thought he did a fair job. They ARE ready to go---meeting with Parish Council Thursday, parish profile, etc. Hope the folks are ready for that organization. I thought Victoria, the Pastoral Assistant, especially cold. Perhaps the spoils...? Margaret, Parish Secretary, was very broken up.

Because parishioners are hurting I felt it was not a time to go into gory detail but to give them a chance for memories and to mourn a bit. I spoke my Irish best with necessary pauses, resonance and inflection to allow the mourning to flow. On the way down the aisle I remarked to Jack Wamsley that I felt I was at a funeral and I was the body. When asked privately I told them simply the diocese wanted the parish and they (the parish) will do well. I did a lot of hand holding and hugging (only those 18 and older!).

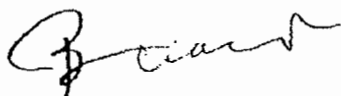

People have beautiful memories going back to Clement and certainly of John Altman. I am glad I mentioned a number of friars by name. "Fr. Clement married us," "Fr. Gratian built the church but Fr. Cornelius paid for it," "Fr. Michael was such a beautiful preacher," "I loved Fr. John," etc. etc. And everywhere, "How is Fr. David?"

Liturgy at St. George's is wonderful. The friars did well. Lectors, excellent choir, well trained altar persons and a congregation willing to sing and pray together. It was a good Sunday, though sad and still with questions.

Let me know if I am to do anything about the friars' account and anything we may have at the parish. I told Jack Wamsley I could come back in a few weeks to see what needs be done. Perhaps Mike and I.

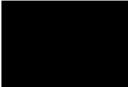

Before returning to Cowlitz I visited with the Sisters across the street. Good visit and better sweet rolls.

Peace!

Brother,

Yesterday I attended the Profession of nine friars at St. Elizabeth's. It was a good celebration with many friars, good music and a generous reception. Flying back to Cowlitz last night I knew I wanted to write the Solemnly Professed Brothers, the ones they call the Lay-brothers. Us!

In the past weeks I have been almost obsessed with thoughts of the new General Constitutions, especially with their Articles 2 and 3 which confirm the Friars Minor as a "clerical order" and what that means to us, to the Order and yes, to the Church. Several of you have telephoned me or have written. At yesterday's Solemn Profession I picked up so much hurt and anger from Brothers.

As a Brother who happens at this time to be definitor, I have a special concern for Brothers. True, I was elected to represent the whole Province as was every definitor on the board but because I am a Brother our needs are my first objective. This is why I am writing you.

My first reaction on hearing of the imposition of the new constitutions was to want to resign from the definitorium. (Not a big deal as I have only nine months left of my final term!) It would be a protest and perhaps a few - very few - would hear it. But what would that do to the possibility of another Brother being elected to the board? I don't know. I have an obligation to the Province and to the Provincial and the other definitors. I did not know what to do. After talking with several friars I decided to remain on the definitorium and perhaps in the nine months left I may be of service to the Province, especially we Brothers, as we cope with the new constitutions. If you feel otherwise, please let me know.

There are many who will wonder what the fuss is about. We have always been a clerical order so what's new! Some of you with your own unique Franciscan vision will simply say God's will be done! But others, and I believe the majority of you, are angry and hurt. I am. It is not because we aren't good friars but because in the past fifteen or so years we have come so far. We saw how much more we could do with the Order and the Church. We have a precious ownership of the Order and the new constitutions make all this questionable - at least in the mind of the Church. Being superior is not that important; belonging is.

Brothers, I thought of so many of you while flying Alaska Airlines last night. (No, it wasn't the food!) We are good people and we do much for the Order and the Church. I was impressed by the number of Brothers asked to be witnesses at the Solemn Profession. We do make a difference in the life of the friars. I am proud of men like Paschal who shows the contemplative dimension of our vocation, the wellspring of the Brother-call. And Gerard, Isidro and David at the Old Mission and Francis telling "those old enough to hear" the true history of our Province. I thought of Kelly teaching little kids in the Tenderloin and Pat breathing "anima" to the St. Elizabeth community. Ed Dunn "somewhere" in the heat of Central America and Tony in the Whitemountains; Bob Rodrigues telling high school kids about God and Jesse assuring battered kids that this God does love them. Gerard Saunders showing there is more to life than football - even at St. Mary's! - and Antonine reaching out to new worlds of art. Miguel caring for his orphans, Kevin his prisoners and Arturo his novices. Jim making our lives bright with garden color and Joe Brand greeting seniors he can hardly see. And

Your Eminence

Respectfully, may I share my keen disappointment at the insistence of the Congregation of Religious and Secular Institutes that the Order of Friars Minor be considered a "clerical order."

My disappointment is not so much for what is, but for what could have been for the Franciscan Order and Holy Church.

Perhaps not in your lifetime nor in mine, but I believe this injustice will one day be remedied. As for now, so little has changed since blessed Brother Martin of Porres sought to be a friar preacher.

Asking for Your Eminence's blessing and with a firm wish for peace, I am, respectfully,

Will see you in Santa Barbara. I've been talking to Gus a few times by phone so I really do not know what to expect as we gather at SAS. I may need more than prayer with this one. Now if I can get Alain to fast for me!

Hope your Thanksgiving was good. We have a country ecumenical service this evening, Don't know if you wear boots to it. Saturday brings an Advent Wreath party at Winlock and then the beautiful and haunting season of Advent begins.

Dear [REDACTED]

Enclosed is the report of my visit to St. Francis, Provo. It was a fraternal visit. The friars were hospitable and I tried to live within their community expectations. I listened to anyone willing to talk with me, I took notes and I snooped. I guess this is what a fraternal visitation is about. "Correcting" I leave to those with jurisdiction.

The side perk was certainly visiting old friends in the parish. The kids have grown and now I feel like a grandpa meeting their children. A parish like Provo is one you more appreciate after leaving.

My luncheon with Fr. Bob Bussen was a joy. You know how I like to relive past experiences. Also with Bob I could share some of the dreams we have as a Province plus my own hopes. Bob very much encouraged me to look into a Spanish language school in Bolivia! Something else to look forward to ~~what~~ ^{when} I take a sabbatical.

Life goes well here in the N/W. Roger hasn't been too well. His leg is bothering him quite badly. I visited Mike D the other night and he brought me up to date on the Ministers and Parochial workshops. Nice evening. Personally I'm having a little roughness in an unexpected way. December 7 is my mom's first anniversary and memories and tears come at embarrassing moments. My reactions have always been

I am sorry to hear from your letter that you still feel a lot of pain over the situation at St. Anthony's, but I know that is to be expected.

You mentioned the graduation at St. Anthony's. Robert did make some oblique reference to it, but nothing clear request and I have not written down the date, nor do I know what it is but if it is good for me to go, of course I will if its at all possible. Maybe we could ask the Pope to send over his Pope-mobile ahead of time for us to use.

I hope that Easter time is a healing time and I look forward to seeing you at our meeting. Thanks a lot Berry for all that you do. Also for the last good issue of westfriars, I really do find that the friars do enjoy it and that it is more and more a source of spirit for the province, so thanks a lot.

Dear Berry:

Thank you for your recent letter, I appreciated you sending me a copy of your letter to Richard Juzix. I was concerned to hear of the development there, I still don't know quite what to make of it. I am trying to communicate from Richard and am presently expecting a call from him, but I think it is something we are going to have to discuss and try to come up with something, when we meet in May. I appreciate your answer and think it is a good one, and maybe this is the way we have to go. I also have not talked to Gino, as I am sort of waiting to hear what Richard has to say, but I will also try to get some kind of answer from him. As you may recall it was the desire of the definitorium to have that matter resolved at the May meeting, to get some kind of definitive answer about Gino whether he expects to go back or not. I have not heard of any new development so I imagine the situation is about the same there, and we are getting rather close to the May meeting, so we will have to see what happens.

There are many problems so bring your thinking cap with you. The situation at FST is not a good one and a difficult one to solve. I appointed a small committee; Geoffrey, myself and Floyd to do an evaluation of the administration there. We've spent three mornings visiting the faculty and members of the administration. They are pretty hard on Xavier, but I don't know just how much drastic action we will have to take. That will be something we will have to discuss at our meeting.

I've also been interviewing some of the people involved in changes, and I hope we can work them out. It does not seem that there will be too many, but it is never easy. We also just finished a meeting of the finance committee, and I don't know if we are getting too far on that but they are concerned of some more direction from the definitorium.

I also met down in Los Angeles with Bishop Ward, Rene Juarez and also Dan Young, to go over some of the ideas for the remodelling. At least they are of a conclusion the place is a disaster and something has to be done, even though they tend to blame us for the present situation. Or at least us and the liturgists. It is a little bit tricky as when we go before him, we have to play down what the liturgists are suggesting, and then it passes him it has to go to the chancery where the liturgists have more to say, so we walk a bit of a tight rope. Once again we can hope for the best.

Dear Berard:

I received your recent note as well as the letter you wrote to Gus. Berard you really are a wonderful guy. I really appreciate what you wrote Gus and I know it comes pretty much from the heart, and I don't know if he is quite deserving of all of your attention and care, not that he personally isn't of course he is but that perhaps his behaviour is something he has to work through and that even though I tend to do the same, it probably is not necessary to feel too guilty about it as I think it is part of an immature response. On the other hand you are accurate that there is a lot of hurt and pain because you feel it yourself and that certainly is not immature but realistic, and I appreciate that you can relate to that and share that with Gus. I am sure he hears you even though he has not responded too soon.

That is interesting that you mention Leo's computer reports said there were 39 men open to; " St. Anthony Seminary", I wonder where they were when we sent out our letter. Of course the way that was worded; open to.. was a very kind of confusing category and it is pretty hard to know what that meant. I would debate with checking everything with that or nothing with that, because I didn't know whether it meant if you were told that you absolutely had to go there, you wouldn't keel over with a heart attack or it meant that you were interested. Anyway it just shows how consistent the friars tend to be.

Berard thanks for all of your concern as I know how hard it is on you. I do hope that word gets down to the guys that did vote for that proposal for the juniors. I did put it in the minutes that it was a majority so I am sure that people will suspect your loyalty.

Thanks again and looking forward to seeing you next time around if not before.

Dear

Hope things went as well as could be expected in New Mexico.

SAS is still troublesome to me. Leo's computer report with news that 39 men were "open to" going to SAS will not help the mood down there. I'll delete when I put it in WESTFRIARS because it is no longer viable but somewhere, some place, Gus will get hold of it.

I'm not going to the Ministers' Meeting. Steve is. I do not know when I'll next be in Santa Barbara - I'll check my tires!

Enclosed is a copy of my answer to Rick's letter about the St. Ann's situation. I know it's not my decision but his letter deserved my response.

The shortage is beginning to tell on the guys. Now if there were a way to break up the enclaves and shore up the smaller houses.

Was in Spokane last week for what turned out to be one of my best visits in years. But when did those Marycliff girls become middle age women? I was proud of how well Richard McManus' mission went.

Dear Jeff,

Perhaps the enclosed should be sent in a plain brown envelope. I hope it doesn't ruin your day. He sent it to priests of the Seattle Archdiocese so you can understand it is an embarrassment to the friars.

Unfortunately, Milano has rotten friends in high places in the church and general Order so there really is little we can do about it except to try avoiding being as hateful as they.

On a much better side....! Went to the Maloney Family 50th wedding anniversary and sat with a John Magano who is married to Alice Maloney. John asked about you and remembers you as being the inspiration in his life when he was at USF. John is friends with John Gutz, Bill Short, etc. Gad, Alice with in the sixth grade when I first met the Maloneys!

Dear Berard:

Jeff shared with me the communique from Father Milano. I did see a copy of orthodoxy magazine at the last regional, I think it was the last one. It really is bad stuff. I have discussed it with a number of people and just have no idea on how to stop him. I have not really much jurisdiction over him as he comes from another province and I am sure he would do almost nothing that I suggested, but if you have any ideas maybe we should give it a try. It surely is awful stuff. We have tried so hard to show our appreciation for Archbishop Hunthausen that it is hard to think that his might undo and then some, all that we have tried to do.

Well Berry I hope things are pretty well with you. I spent last week at the Seminary during the CMSM meeting, once again they put me up at the Casita. I felt like all the students were glaring at me especially the juniors. The first night I came up with a flat tire which Brent changed for me. There was a piece of wood jammed into the side which caused the flat as I must have run over something. I don't know maybe some student shoved a paddle up there I don't know. Anyway it was interesting. Seriously they seem to be getting along although some of the students seem angry and probably they will stay that way. I don't know what will happen to this program for the juniors as they are still checking it out.

There have been many offers for the school. The latest while I was there on the last day, a Bishop of the Orthodox Church came through asking about it's availability. They are interested in establishing a theological seminary for the Orthodox. That would be interesting. Well that too will be an interesting development.

I know Berry how ^{really} hard it was on you and people feel badly down there that you caught the brunt of things. At least know that you made a noble commitment.

I'm heading for Spokane as the people from St Ann's especially want to talk so we will see how that goes. I hope the weather is not too bad and I don't mean only outside.

Look forward to seeing you at the next meeting which won't be too long now. Thanks again for your support and especially for your help at St Anthony's.

future - like where to go to high school! You know I believe presence is a big thing so being with you and Robert, no matter how unwelcome, seemed the right place to be. In the afternoon I sat in the chapel while the sun played on the reredos. this time was different. I wasn't the hurting little kid of so long ago. This time it was St. Anthony's that was hurting. And SAS hurts big.

I think we all did well while we were at SAS - here I mean yourself, Richard McManus, Jeff and I. I was the junior partner but I am glad I was in the partnership. I believe we four had a vision and even if it wasn't shared by too many others, it was the right vision for the school. I think we suffered with the kids and were often hurt unfairly by the system. But, I'm glad I was a part of it.

I'm letting this letter get away. I'm again beginning to forget my role and feel like I am still a part of St. Anthony's. I am sorry I am intruding into your realm, Gus. I do respect your mourning and the mourning of the kids. I may be down you way one of these days. I will keep my distance as difficult as that will be for me.

Gus, you are not the only one distraught by all this. Forgive me for saying it but I, too, went to school at St. Anthony's. For six years I tried to get others to come to the school because I believed it was a good school for them. And I have to suffer the anguish of knowing if only I had worked harder the student body would be larger. Always I was torn between my affection for and wanting to be with the kids I brought and my job of being away at schools or at those damn meetings. You and I have talked long and you know my love for many of the kids. Out here on the Prairie I'm kept a little more sane because I know Arturo Urrutia is in Cornell and Andrew Garcia is in cooking school, Ruben is growing into a wonderful young man. I know I am able to cry with Dale and to be hugged by Randy. And these are all things I shared with you. How long will it be before you are able to share these weeks with me.

So, friend, perhaps you've read this and perhaps you haven't. Whatever. Life will go on and there will be another time when we can talk about our hopes and dreams for Victor and Mark and so many, many others who, at times, only you and I thought we understood. There has to be another time.

Finally, I once told you I believed you are far more valuable than even SAS. I believe it, Gus. You have the ability to feel, to hurt with. You are passionate. You are a friar who is able to love - this is why you hurt so much but it is also why I and so many others who love you do hurt with you. Others may, and perhaps rightly so, tell you to "get over it" but people like me can only tell you "I think I know how you feel."

Take care, Gus. And I am glad children I too love are in your care these difficult days.

Dear Gus,

As you probably guessed, I have hesitated in writing you or anyone else at St. Anthony's with the exception of a kid or two, such as Victor Zambrano. I know you are going the whole spectrum of emotion these days and I just don't know how to handle it. I hear things — never have I heard more friars express their concern over one friar as guys do you. It would seem the guys are little concerned about the buildings or the 90 year history or even the kids. "How's Gus taking it?" IS what is on many minds and in many hearts.

I know you felt I let you down. I am sorry for this. I fought for SAS for six years on the definitorium, but the war was over. There were no reinforcements. You know you would last about five years, Gus. Mike not even that. Steve was already looking on another assignment. Robert has done the best job possible but he too would be a basket case. No one would fill in. Even men who spoke about it would not make any kind of a longer term commitment. It was in the cards yet I could and would not make the last play until all cards were in.

Were you a fool? No, Gus, you are not a fool. Every minute you have been at SAS has been of the greatest value. We did well and we did what we could. Men like you and Jeff, and in an earlier time, Josef, and in my time Hilary and Edilbert and before that there was Louie Schoen and I guess finally Peter himself. None of you were fools.

I feel badly, Gus, not only because of the closing of St. Anthony's but far more, because of what this closing is doing to you. You are a passionate young man and because you are passionate you hurt deeper and with far more anger than so many of us who are less so. There is nothing I can say that will change this.

I care an awful lot for you, Gus. I love you more than I do many friars. As a matter of fact, I really don't love that many. And, here's the rub, few friars have shown me the love and care you have. This is what I hurt about. I know the kids at SAS will be alright. What is not alright is our relationship.

We both know, dear friend, that it will take time. It may take years before you will accept and trust me. I will not rush it because I hurt as well. Someday...

Why did I go to St. Anthony's immediately after the meeting which closed SAS? I asked myself that question so many times since. Perhaps I went because Irishmen need to be martyred and to suffer for their acts. I wanted to see the place which was my own boyhood home, the place I loved more in adult years than as a boy. There were Victor, Darrel, Arthur Morales, Mark, etc., etc. (and yes, Tony, too) I wanted to see how they were. I wanted to be with you, Gus. Looking back, I see what a shit-head idea I had. I thought I could "help." Believe it or not, I really was not thinking I was "a power that be", "a god-damn power that be." I was unthinking enough to forget my role and to think I was still a member of your community and a "friend" of the kids. Well, I've seldom been more wrong! Since the visit I have replaced things in order, am aware of your great hurts, can accept the coldness and even rudeness of the kids — the ones I foolishly thought would understand what I had to do.

And, there were good things, too. A few of the kids shared their hopes for the

Dear Berry:

Thank you very much for writing. I did very much appreciate hearing from you. Thank you so much for your great help at St Anthony's. I did feel badly that you got the brunt of it all and felt sorry that I had to go off leaving you with such a burden, but I really did not know what else to do.

Things went as well as could be expected. There is not too much we can do except hang in there. I did have a very nice visit with Michael who drove me down to San Luis Rey, and he seemed to be in a very positive mood as I saw him 2 or 3 times and he was always quite positive. So I hope that it's for the better as I know there are times when he has bad times with it, but at least he was very good when he was around me.

I do know that Gus is very angry. Garret was here and told me that Gus's anger seems to get even more irrational but there is not too much we can do about that except hold out a hand and hope and pray.

Otherwise the decision has been fairly well received. I got some very nice letters of support for making the decision, people realizing how difficult it was. People that in general had been very positive about St. Anthony's accept the decision as something that had to be done.

The funeral for Bonny went well. I do believe that he was a very dedicated friar who did a lot of good in his own way. Nevertheless the doctor said he was very very sick and suffering a lot and it was some relief to see him go.

Meanwhile I am still working on trying to get Tom Ganmy placed and it is really extremely difficult. It seems as though I go up one blind alley and down the other, but I think I am getting a little closer so say a prayer that we get this resolved. I do have a feeling that it is going to be somewhat on-going, continually coming up for review and probably requiring new tactics so we can only take it one step at a time.

Thanks again Berry for your wonderful encouragement and support. You don't know how much I appreciate it. Looking forward to seeing you before too long.

affectionately,

Louie

Dear Lou,

And it was the week that was! Hope you made it through the SAS situation, Bonnie's death and funeral, the Mexican artists convention at St. Joe's and the Alkie Board. I made it back ok, saw the guys at Hoyt St., Sean and Matt at St. Clare's and then Peter at Ascension. Next morning it was skipping through freezing rain on Hwy 5 outside of Vancouver and then back to the prairie.

Two after thoughts of SAS.... visited with your friend Andrew Garcia. Andrew felt sad about the school, credits it with taking him from a bad school situation and "making him the man he is." Still, he believes we had no choice.

When I get home there is a letter waiting on my desk from a teeney-bopper in Santa Barbara who "fell for his sweet talk", referring to a SAS student. The poor kid is a pretty nice Chicana who sort of likes me. (Don't they all!) Her letter made me recall what I consider one of the bigger lacks in SAS education. Don't know how many times I asked the faculty to seriously talk about sexual morality but Steve could speak only in profundity, Gus with emotion, Mike was afraid and unless they did it in 16th century England Robert was at a loss. I'd get dirty! On this point I often worried about the kids - the good old boy locker room sex-ed. Well, now it's up to their parents.

While in Santa Barbara I went to see the Mother Abbess at the Poor Clares. Explained the situation to her - before she heard many differing opinions. A good woman who saw the need. Also, thanked Paul Smith informally for the Board.

Another letter on my desk was from friend Jerry doing time for bank hold-up, in Minnesota. A fellow federal prisoner is a Father Paul Kaut, in for trying to destroy a missile site. Know of him?

Hope Joe isn't freezing.

Peace!

Gerry

Thank you, Jack,

You have such good liturgy at St. George's. It is always so good to pray with you. You are a very, very good parish.

Two years ago I was involved with the decision to close a high school. Today there are one hundred and eleven Californians not speaking to me! I hope you will invite me to your Spaghetti Dinner next month.

My sisters and brothers,

A long time ago, when I was a freshman in high school, I walked past a camouflaged Boeing plant, up over an even then shaky wooden bridge and looked up at the little steeple of St. George's Church. I remember an imitation stained glass window in the vestibule. I think it was an ugly green color.

I have returned and this morning (evening) I stand in this pulpit, the last Franciscan to do so in St. George's Franciscan Parish. I do so with heavy heart but with the Christian confidence given us by the great Franciscans who shepherded St. George's over the years -- Gregory, Clement, Cornelius -- their names read like Eucharistic Prayer Number One -- Roy, Howard, Gratian, Fredrick, Oswald, Terence, Clifford, Maurus, and John Altman, Louie, Michael and David, the last of the Franciscan pastors of South Hill.

We friars minor move on, as we have done for nine hundred years. I pray we have touched your lives for good, we welcomed your children into the church, we married you and your sons and daughters, we buried your parents and relatives and friends. We prayed for your living and we prayed for your dead. In short, we shared in your lives. And, because we shared deeply with you over the years, perhaps, we have hurt or wounded you. For this we are sorry but this too is the nature of sharing.

You are the Church of Seattle, a prophetic church. You will do well. And I take a little pride in knowing the friars gave you your start. We will always look to St. George's with love and gratitude. And, like a parent, we will be watching as you continue to grow.

Having diocesan priests with you you will be even closer to the Archdiocese and perhaps a more integral part of diocesan growth. The Archdiocese wants you, the Archdiocese needs you.

The Franciscans hope to return to Seattle but doing ministry other than parochial. Our strengths today often go beyond the parish. Our presence in the parish will remain in the Franciscan Sisters and in the brothers and sisters of the Secular Franciscan Order.

You are a good parish. I so well remember Father John Altman, that loving giant of a man, telling us about you. In particular John was proud of an Easter Candle you made from bits of colored wax of all sizes and shapes. He thought it so typified this parish with its multiplicity of cultures, races, and economic factors - this parish consuming itself to be light for one another.

So dearest friends, in the name of the friars, I say goodbye. But before leaving I charge you with this charge - be peacemakers, be lovers of the poor, defend all, work for equality of women and men - even in the church. (It is so good seeing girls and women involved in your liturgy.) And please, always remember we Franciscans as loving you.

In the name of the Franciscan friars and Loren Kerkof, a Franciscan son of this parish, with the love John Altman had for you and with the love David Johnson has for you, and in my own name I pray

May the Lord bless you and keep you

May he show Himself to you and have mercy on you

May he turn to you and give you peace

May almighty God bless each of us --

The Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Dear Berard:

I hope you are doing well. Thank you very much for going to St. George's. I really appreciate you taking the heat. I was rather reluctant to do so. As it turned out, I am glad I did not go early as I did have the great benefit of being able to be there just as Larry Tozzio died, and to be of some comfort for his mother and his close friends. As you probably heard the funeral was a really great celebration. A lot of friars there and I think a lot of healing. It is something tough to go through, and I am glad I could be of some help. As you are probably aware, I did come back early from my meeting in order to be there for the funeral. So I was kind of able to cover it from both ends.

Meanwhile, you did go to St. George's and you did a great job. I thought your talk was very very nice, and I do hope that you are publishing it in Westfriars. If I had just received it from some other source, I would immediately send it to you, but I presume you still have a copy. So I am sure it would be nice to share that with the other friars.

I hope that healing can come to St. George's, as I am sure it is going to take some time.

Thank you again for your sensitivity, and for the great franciscan spirit you show in your letter and in your willingness to go there. Even in the tears that you shed. I really believe that is a major contribution you make to the province Berard. And we are all very enriched, especially over these last nine years.

We rush now into the closing days. Let's hope that we can leave behind a province that is rather healthy. Thanks again Berry.

Dear [REDACTED]

Many thanks for a good week. And the Chapter was a very good week. Besides the obvious, there was a feeling of re-birthing in the Province. Perhaps labor-pain will temper this but there is a lot of hope.

I was touched by your talks. It may sound strange coming from me but I agree in an emphasis on scholarship within the Province.

The purpose of this letter - besides buttering up the Provincial Minister

Today I received a poem from Theophane Robertson praising Frederic Jansoone who will be glorified along with the Father of the California Province, ie. the Bay Area.

Theo's note reminded me of his great devotion to "Good Father Frederic." This devotion goes back many years. Perhaps there might be some recognition of Theo's devotion in all the hoopala around Serra. If there is some general trip to Rome perhaps Theo could be asked along with all the devotees of the "Grey Ox."

Take care of yourself. Like not being trampled by FST students rushing over to the GTU Library to get their library cards.

Peace!

Dear Berry:

Thanks very much for your letter. I appreciate very much your support and good wishes. As I mentioned to you at the chapter, one of the gaps in the present provincial council, will be your own presence. Over the last nine years, I have really enjoyed working with you. Learned a great deal from you, and treasure your friendship. I hope we can continue our relationship in many different ways.

This is just a short note, but I want to thank you for the reference to Theophane Robertson, and let you know that I will be following it up. I remember now, his devotion to Frederic Jansoone, and I am grateful for your reference.

It's interesting sitting here in the office, and having to deal with all sorts of things. I am not sure that the place is as organized as it could be, and that will probably be the first order of business. I think if it were a little more organized, the provincial or myself, might find more time to do some visiting and positive things for the friars. At any rate, things are going well. I am looking forward to seeing you soon. Take care of yourself.

SAINT FRANCIS XAVIER MISSION

August 30, 1988

Dear brothers,

One hundred fifty years ago, Secularized but three years, Mission Santa Barbara was pillaged, Los Angeles a small and smokey pueblo, the Gold Rush wasn't yet a San Francisco treat, and Oakland grew a few nuts. The friars minor were several rag-tag groups not speaking to one another. There wasn't yet a War Between the States nor a Kulturkampf; but one thing for sure, it was raining in the Northwest Territory, on Cowlitz Prairie.

Simon Plomondon, a Hudson Bay Company trapper on the Prairie, felt the need for a wife, but without a priest - Simon being a very good Canadian - there could be no marriage sacrament. He portaged the 2000 miles to Quebec to see the archbishop who promised to send missionaries. On December 16, 1838, Father Francois Norbert Blanchet arrived at Cowlitz Prairie.

Simon was a very special man, a sort of northwest Daniel Boone; a Hudson Bay scout, trapper, explorer and Indian agent. He out lived at least three wives, one of them an Indian princess and another the niece of Archbishop Blanchet. Simon lived to be 100 years of age and is buried in the St. Francis Xavier Mission Cemetery. Many of his descendants are parishioners.

Father Modeste Demers built the first permanent church in 1839. It may be noted that St. Francis Xavier Mission was not founded by Jesuits not has it ever been a Jesuit institution. The "Blackrobes" here were French Canadian diocesan priests.

Early history of the Cowlitz mission reads like missionary adventures we all probably dreamed about. Missionaries gone for months at a time, traveling in Indian canoes from the Columbia River to the Straits of Juan de Fuca, Indian wars and broken treaties, British Imperialism versus American adventurism.

Priests came and went, one group of nuns headed for California when gold was discovered. (To become dancing girls?) Sisters of Providence founded an orphanage and school. Three times the church burned to the ground, once killing the pastor of only one day. (Old ones in the parish tell stories of the poor man fallen in the snow dying of burns while flames licking at the bell rope sounded the alarm which brought parishioners.)

Italian Theatine Fathers staffed the mission only one winter. In 1908 the friars of the Sacred Heart Province came to the Prairie. Truly the friars came like a whirl-wind. They built and restored churches from Woodland to Morton. The names are a litany marking glory years of our birth as a Province: Kalama, Cougar, Kelso, Longview, Cathlamet, Skamokawa, Ostrander, Castle Rock, Toutle, Rydewood, Vader, Napavine, Winlock, Mary's Corner, Ethel, Onalaska, St. Urban, Salkum, Cinebar, Mossey Rock, Harmony, Morton and Toledo. And great men of our Province matched the mission. In the 80 years the friars have been on the Prairie, over 94 friars have been stationed at St. Francis Xavier Mission, ten of whom had two or more assignments at this Mother Church of the Prairie.

On September 25, 1988, we celebrate our 150th birthday. We praise God and I suppose we wonder and reflect - We have a mission unique in that it was founded by a layman looking for a priest to bless his love of a Klicitat maiden, not imposed. What kind of men were those missionaries on horseback, in canoes, on foot, winter and summer, facing voyageur, trapper and governor? Did those Gold Rush Sisters really become California dancing girls? How the Theatines felt they had left all civilization as pasta went limp in the wetness of the Prairie. How did the people rebuild the church three times, but why didn't they build it closer to the town of Toledo? Did Aegidius Herkenrath's horse "Max" ever draw up lame? Why did the Province give up Kelso/Longview (pop. 42,000) and keep Toledo (pop 570)?

Steve, Roger and Berard hope you'll think of us and our people on the Prairie on September 25. We'd like you to join us. The choir is humming up a grand Mass and the Archbishop will be here. There will be square dancing, story telling, baseball games, "find a coin in the bale of hay," horseshoes, and perhaps improvised chip tossing. We'll bury a time capsule with an authentic history, names of parishioners, a few coins, a list of friars, letters from famous folks like [redacted] and Grover Laseke, Mayor of Toledo. Ladies of the Cowlitz Grange are providing a dinner which will set you ready for threshing or cow milking or to driving your 4x4 up to the county seat in Chehalis. -bc

Dear [REDACTED]

No, I usually don't write this often to the Provincial Minister.

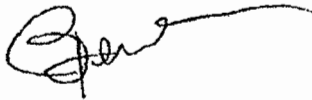

We sent a packet of info to the archives but you being an historian may be interested in the enclosed brief history of Cowlitz. It was written by a parishioner who actually did quite a bit of leg work, So much of our history was destroyed in the several fires.

The celebration went well in spite of bad weather. Our folks are a hearty lot.

The "time capsule" was my idea. Many parishioners took advantage of the "Book of Life" and wrote items (often very touching) for a future generation. The enclosed is my contribution. It's to be thrown away, please.

God rest Frank Longo. I'm afraid if I were in California I'd spend half my life going to funerals - so many folks from my past are slipping away. I'll get some material for the next WESTFRIARS.

Here's the letter both you and Mike said I should send off to the definitorium. I'm actually asking for whatever forms you folks use these days.

Another suggestion: I send Bro. Gerard Valentine a tape I make of WESTFRIARS each edition. Last week I had a note from Jerry saying my tape is the only way he knows of what's happening in the Province as he cannot see any more. I bet he'd appreciate it if someone at the office sent him tapes of Provincial communications. (I'll do it but there's the delay.) Dear Joe, Ray and Sacred Dicasters, Forty-three years ago this afternoon I was worried how I would ask the community to allow me to be invested in the habit of a Tertiary Brother in the morning. And here I am writing you and still asking for something.

I am once more asking for permission to take a "sabbatical" and hopefully this coming year.

As some of you know, I was scheduled to go to Mexico a number of years ago and instead ended up on 38th Avenue with the novices and Brian Flynn. A great and grand experience it was but it wasn't Mexico. Last year I again had hopes of going to Mexico but once more plans were changed.

It has been suggested I go on the Assisi Experience. May I apply for this?

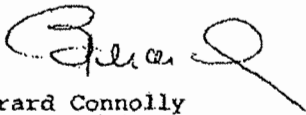

I still feel called to Mexico. May I inquire into this again?

I realize this is just the first salvo and with your generosity I may get something going this time.

Also, What are the chances the FMU could fund my classmate Miguel Lozano going on the same trip. I have not mentioned this to him so I do not know if he would want to.

Thank you.

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

Thank you very much for your letter of November 20th. which I referred to the definitorium.

I'm really happy to report that the definitorium has approved your Assisi experience request. We suggest that you forward the appropriate request to the continuing education committee which usually has charge of the Assisi experience. Also, please fill out a travel form which I enclose in this letter.

The definitorium is also very supportive of your sabbatical, and again would like to encourage you to pursue this. Please fill out the sabbatical request form and send it to the continuing education committee. This basically is for the purposes of detailing your sabbatical program. You may take it that you have permission to go on sabbatical, so I wish you luck.

Berard, I really think this is the best thing to do for you. I felt very good after our long conversation in Oregon, and I know that you have been looking forward to a sabbatical trip, possibly to Mexico or elsewhere for quite some time. I really appreciate the fact that you have been open to staying on there at Toledo and Winlock, both to help Steve and to be a Franciscan presence in the area. This has been extremely beneficial both to the Province, and to Steve. He told me so himself. As to the timing of your request, at this moment I really don't know quite what to say. Of course, the Assisi experience would begin sometime in the summer - would you want to take a sabbatical before then, or start your sabbatical with the Assisi experience? That also would be possible. May I suggest on the side that when you do take your Assisi experience, you would be, I hope, looking at a couple (a week or ten days) in the island of your choice.

FILE COPY

I will be talking to Steve in the next few days about the plans for Toledo and Winlock, and for Roger. I know that both of you felt that it was a very pressing issue to attend to, and I feel that very much. Physically, it's impossible for me to get up to Toledo before Christmas, however, I will be coming up to the northwest in the first part of January (2nd. to 11th.), so I would hope to settle all of the matter at that time. I know this puts an added strain on you and Steve. I guess I'm asking you to be patient with my own inability to deal immediately with the situation. We did discuss it at some length at the Provincial Council meeting, and so I feel that I have some light as to where to go. I have asked Finian to talk to Donan about coming to Toledo/Winlock to live with Steve - that is the suggestion that Steve made, so I presume that he is open to it. Donan has apparently improved a good deal in Fresno, and so he might be a good addition there. I don't think we see it as a permanent placement. Perhaps over the next year with Donan there we can be working on some other alternatives. At any rate, that's a possibility which I can talk over with you and Steve when I see you, and also pursue perhaps the placement of other people there.

I don't know what to say about your request with respect to Miguel Lozano. I doubt seriously if the FMU could fund his trip, as I don't think that would fall within its norms. If he would like to go, he should certainly submit a request not be bashful about it.

Thanks for your support for me Berard, peace and all good, especially during this Advent season. I hope that the good Lord comes and blesses you in superabundant ways, as you come and bless so many of us.

On a more serious point: thanks for telling me about Miguel's work. For years it has bothered me that visitations and visits concentrate on Marty's work and so little said about Miguel. I remember asking Neal to make a special point of seeing the Hogar. I appreciate it, [REDACTED]

As I read somewhere, may the God of all lights ask the right questions and bless you and the province.

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

Thanks very much for your note, and also for the latest edition of Westfriars, and for the long, long, section in there by the hotwinded President of the Board of Trustees of the Franciscan School of Theology! Once again, I think Westfriars does a great job for the friars of the Province. The cover, and the picture with the words "And the Word becomes flesh" really captures the meaning of Christmas every day of our lives. I was especially struck because it reminded me of my trip to Guaymas, and also to the Native Americans. I feel so sorry for the people who are so poor down there, and also for the way in which the Native Americans have been treated by the US Government. This is a real shame.

I look forward to seeing you in the new year, Berard, and am particularly appreciative of all the support that you have given to me, both as your brother and as your minister. May the Lord of all blessings come to you and guide you in your journey.

Dear [REDACTED]

It was good having you on the Prairie even if for only a short while.

Dorothy, the elderly lady who came late to Mass, asked this morning who you were. "Was that young fellow a student for the priesthood?" But then, Dorothy's eyes are faltering.

I am excited about the possibility of finally getting to the desert. Wish I could have gone when I was younger but perhaps now I'm better! Are the Tohono O' Odham ready for my pious exhortations? Is Mike Dallmeier? Now I have reason to take better care of health.

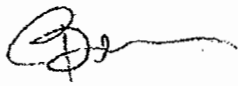

I like the idea of spending time in the gift shop. I feel we have lost so very much in not having friars in front of the Old Missions.

Roger seems to be quite content about San Miguel. Tonight at table he was asking questions about the SM parish and I think he is looking forward to the move. Clifford wrote him a very nice welcoming letter. As he is going through his "collections" here on the Prairie he does pause to laugh a little at himself for items he's been saving thirty years. So far he has told none of the parishioners. We'll see how it goes Saturday night when they read the bulletin.

Steve leaves for retreat next Monday. Hope it's a good one for him.

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

I hope that this letter finds you well.

I would just like to mention to you the discussion which took place at our definitorium meeting. The fellows were very excited about the possibility of you taking a sabbatical as from June to September, and then going to Mission San Xavier. I think that opens up great new vistas for yourself and for the community there in the Southwest. I know that they look forward to having you. The board was unanimously in favor of movement in this direction. We don't have to make it final yet, but I would just like to tip you off to the fact that it seems to be going very smoothly in that direction. I might mention for myself also and for [REDACTED] that there's a strong possibility that the Novitiate will be at Topawa for at least two months of the year. I know that I would like to see the novices exposed to your "personal" history of the Province, and I know that [REDACTED] would appreciate being able to utilize your expertise for the good of the friars in the novitiate.

I trust that you will be in communication with Mike Dallmeier over the next couple of months and please write to me, Berard, when you would like me to finalize this move. Of course, the sabbatical time from June to September does include a good trip to Assisi. That is understood.

We had a very nice meeting in the Southwest. Right now, I am stuck in a hotel in Dallas, caught in a very bad blizzard - so I'm looking out the window at 10 degree weather, and hoping that I can get to the airport tomorrow morning to fly back to Oakland. I came down here for a Bishop's committee meeting on priestly life and ministry which proved to be very interesting. You would have laughed at me last night had you peeked in on my conversation and seen me having dinner with Bishop Donald Wuerl and Bishop John Marshall, two of the most conservative Bishops in the country. Needless to say, I was my usual humble and demure self.

Thanks very much for your support, Barry. I look forward to seeing you in the future.

Dear Berry:

Peace and all good!

I hope that you have a very joyous Easter.

Thanks very much for your letter which came to me under the heading of Westfriars. Well, I certainly would be glad to give you the History and Direction of Authority in our Province as a paper to print, if I ever get it written. I'm going away for a short time to try to do that.

I'm glad you're getting along well with Donan, and that he arrived there in a good space. I just thought I'd drop you a note to wish you a very happy Easter, and let you know I was thinking of you. I appreciate all the work that you've done, especially lately your response to my request to have some of the friars write about the friars who had died. I think that's really important. I hope you can keep it up.

You think you're on oatmeal! I've been on oatmeal and bran for the last four months, went to the doctor, and my cholesterol went up! He threatened to put me on medicine. I refused, so I'm back on oatmeal and bran and salad for the next four months. I don't know what to do about this. My sister claims that it's genetic, and I believe she's right. Such is life. I think I have entered into middle age. Next week, I'll be forty four. Incidentally, thanks for putting the ad in about [REDACTED] I haven't heard any comments yet. Give my best to Steve and to Donan.

Dear [REDACTED]

Steve just showed me the schedule for the Ministers' Meeting at San Damiano March 13-15.

Even before hearing it, WESTFRIARS would like to print the History and Direction of Authority in our Province, if you would consider it. Our deadline is March 17 but we would certainly push that back for the convenience of the Publisher.

Life goes well on the Prairie. Donan was by Saturday with his stuff and should be here next Monday or Tuesday. I think he will do quite well. He will get along well with the parishioners.

I enjoyed the SFO meeting. Yesterday, Sunday, I went up to Tacoma for that fraternity's meeting. It went very well. I spoke about the friars' revitalized interest in the SFO. The theme of the meeting was right up [REDACTED] alley- the Farm Worker/insecticide protest. In fact, the featured speaker had been a friar with the Holy Name Province and had at one time asked [REDACTED] about joining Our Mother in the West. He's now married, lives in Puyallup (knows Larry Gosselin), is a pediatrician and active in P & J.

After the SFO I had a good day in the Bay Area. Took my sister out for dinner and also had dinner at her place. Good visit with Richard Mc and also with Definitor Doherty. Mel showed me the inner sanctum at 1500 34th Ave. I'm impressed!

Yesterday I finally began to do something on a paper I've been wanting to do for years: something about Brothers I've lived with or known over the years. Francis Guest once suggested I do so. Don't worry, God knows when I'll ever finish it. Just going through old catalogue pages Joe Schwab sent me brought back so many images- good and bad, sane and insane.

Don't know about that oatmeal. After eating it everyday for two weeks I'm not sure about my cholesterol but I have as much gas as Roger!

Peace!

Benny

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

I hope that you had a very joyful Easter. I look forward to seeing you when I come up to the Northwest regional.

Thanks very much for sending me the article about Milan Mikulich. You know how committed I am to the furtherence of his apostolate, and to his openness in terms of developing his theological understanding of the Church. At any rate, I have dutifully filed the comments in the appropriate space in the Provincial Office, and I thank you for passing them on to me.

I just saw Steve and asked him to give you my best. Sister Monica, who is in California at the moment along with her companion Sr. Ann sends her best. She certainly is very grateful that you took time out to send the regular copy of Westfriars to her. I appreciate that. Please remember me in your prayers, Berard. We have a lot of things on the provincial agenda at the moment. The meeting starts today, and there have been a few crises developments in the past couple of weeks. Sometimes I wonder if the job is worth it all, and then other days it seems to go along very well. I guess that's the nature of the beast. Certainly by this time I obviously have a lot more sympathy for many of the difficulties that Louie had to deal with. It's rather hard to communicate the experience to people, but I know that, having been so close to it for so long you can understand a good deal of it.

I do look forward to seeing you and thank you for your support and friendship. Be assured of mine.

Dear friends,

"The friars are to wander about the world, as pilgrims and strangers, proclaiming to all the gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ...." - rule of St. Francis

This short letter is to say goodbye and to say thank you. My four years on the Prairie with you have been good, the past months have been beautiful. I will always remember this place. Together, we shared a jubilee, an ordination, a church painting, a hard winter, a Confirmation, a "first annual spaghetti dinner." We buried some friends, saw others "grow in wisdom and grace."

Last February my Provincial Minister asked if I would consider moving to Mission San Xavier del Bac near Tucson, Arizona. Father Donan could replace me on the Prairie. For many years I have wanted to work with Native American people and this was the opportunity. I will be working in ministry and sharing the Holy Gospel with folks on the O'odham Reservation. Please pray for us.

June 22, I will leave for a two month Sabatical in Mexico, living with a poor family while attending language school. I will return to the Prairie in August for a day or so and then leave for Tucson. I am sure we will have plenty of opportunity for private goodbyes.

I am grateful you and I were together during Father Steve's pastorate. These parishes of Sacred Heart and St. Francis Xavier are becoming so alive with Steve's ministry. Lay leadership is our future and now slowly but soon quickly, you carry out the full grace of your baptism. Your holding the Gospel, with the sacramental ministry of Steve, Donan and Deacon Clay, can make this Prairie truly blessed.

I leave you with the simple words of a song we used to sing during youth retreats in Utah:

"All I ask of you,
is forever to remember me, as loving you."

Peace!

Berard

Peace and all good!

I hope that you had a great trip to Ireland. I know that I was very happy that you chose to go there, especially on your own time.

Enclosed, please find an article from the Oceanside Gazette or whatever on the homeless project at San Luis Rey. I thought it was something that might be good for the fellows to know about through Westfriars. Thanks very much for your attention to this.

Dear [redacted]

And here I am with the monks! Spent the night in their guest house - with about 25 other guests. Magnificent monastery church - and to hear the Salve Regina sung with an Irish lilt!

The trip goes very well. Besides several B+B's I have spent a number of days at the friars in Ennis & Kilmurphy.

The friars here are a different breed - you feel the Reform still lives. They are kind & generous but quiet - seem to spend their time in prayer, study & serving the hundreds of people coming to their churches every day. Scarcely find them sitting around drinking coffee all morning, nor watching TV all night. I am impressed.

Our province is held in good respect - mostly Louis's prominence plus Alan. And I've heard good things about FST.

Several have questions about Neil and his constant "holiness" in Rome. Even he has caused very much ill feeling, especially at St. David's with his drinking. "The man swears more freely than Sammy Davis Jr!"

This trip to Ireland has been good for me already. Being here has done very much for my spirit. I find myself singing in the car as I drive along on the long & on those terrible dirt roads. I talk to strangers & to anyone who will listen - and in Ireland people are always willing to listen - and to talk.

I have an appointment to see one of the monks whom I trust will do my soul well.

I am counting on the waters at Knock to bring some help to my body & perhaps Lough Derg will come for my here-after.

Yes, I hope you will be able to spend time in Ireland after the Provincial meeting. You can always change it to studies since American Catholic history has its roots in Ireland. I think if you just pass in a few library.

Read an excellent article in Cistercian Studies (XXIV 1985:1)
by Jerome Thiesen, Abbot of Collegeville, MN, on "The Monastery as a Covenant Community". Much is the same view as your approach to "exchange" in the religious life.

Hope all is well in Barbara's Province.

Peace!

Dear [REDACTED]

And here I am back on The Prairie. México was just great and I enjoyed and benefited from Universal. I'd recommend it to anyone. I'm by no means proficient in Spanish but I have more confidence. The classes on Mexican culture were also very fine.

Unfortunately, I thought it best to return home two weeks early. My estómago was in complete revolucion - on two fronts. I was very careful but this year the rains came earlier and the raw sewerage is just part of most vegetables. Even the Mexicans are sick - including teachers at school. I did the usual things - all night! - but when my kidneys got a little bloody I said - Viejo, go home!

I am presuming your permission to use what tuition and board I did not use, hopefully for a tutor in Tucson or a week or so with folks in Guaymas. I've earmarked the money for that.

The doctor here is trying to stop the cramps. Today he sent me to the hospital for nasty tests!

I made some good friends in México. Had a great Japanese room mate who spoke no English. Is part of the Japanese "peace corps" going to Bolivia. I really like him - but then, I have that yen for Orientals! Had another good friend in Tracy - an Episcopal priest who happens to be a woman. She strengthens my hopes for non-misogynist Church.

Cuernavaca is a dirty and crowded city - was probably beautiful thirty years ago! I enjoyed riding the broken down buses and sitting in the Zocalo. I'd try my Spanish on just about anyone. Some looked confused by it but others gallantly engaged in a conversation with me. Visited the friars in Cuernavaca. They were most cordial and welcoming and they are a hard working group of men - a flourishing parish with enough meetings to make the best USA pastor content. If I had known they had such a beautiful friary I might have tried to stay with them. -- But then I wouldn't have drank Coronas with Tracy while talking "church" or gone for walks with Marta.

Spent two days in Mexico City. Really worthwhile. (A Mexican doctor had given me a "concrete pill" which worked for three days!) Visited the Cathedral several times (I could see it from my hotel window, right off the Zocalo.) Listened to the canons chanting lauds, accompanied by a little boys choir wearing red dresses and white knee socks! Rivera's murals are fascinating and a trip to the fine arts buildings was a reminder of what Latin Americans think of us politically. The friars' church is beautiful and the church of San Felipe de Jesus a point of prayer for whatever lies ahead for us and Mexican vocations.

Sunday morning I rode the Metro out to the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Awesome! So different from Knock. Where Knock is "heavenly," Guadalupe is flesh and blood - thousands of warm bodies, cooking tortillas and vendors, lovers, families, old men crawling. I was overwhelmed at the sight of Juan Diego's La Morena. I am very Catholic no matter what I say; devotion to Mary is still within my heart. Crowded my way up the hill, poured water over my knees and head, envied the young lovers everywhere present, prayed as I believe a Mexican would pray - and promised to come back.

I had planned on going over to Spokane, through Provo and on to Tucson. But then the best of plans can change - and do. When I was away Donan drove the car from Longview to Toledo with the red indicator light on. He fried the engine. A local mechanic and parishioner is trying to fix it with some salvage parts. I believe those warning lights are called "idiot lights!" In any event I will be in Tucson before the first of September.

Thinking of you folks on retreat at Santa Barbara. I pray it is a good one - almost as fine as our first retreat in the Santa Cruz mountains. Also hope the simple professed time at SAS is worthwhile.

Our paths should cross once in awhile. I still may bury myself and become a character on the desert. Then I hope Josef will use me once in awhile to give pious talks on the missions for the FMU.

As we say, Joe - !Paz!

Benny

PS If I don't see you before Ireland, be sure to visit the West Coast - Livinus at the friary in Killarney, the Irish speaking Dingle peninsular, the Poor Clares at Ennis - a young and delightful group, and take a few days rest at Rosstownlough on the Bay of Donegal!

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

Welcome back from Mexico. I'm sorry that you had a difficult time there with your stomach and your health, and I trust that all of that has cleared up now. I'll be anxious to see you to hear your first-hand report. Certainly the letter which you wrote to me indicates that you had a lot of experiences and have met many fine and interesting people, but for me to get the full flavor I want to hear it from you: stories as only you can tell!

You know always that you have my concern and support. You've been so very kind to me over the years and I just want you to know that the feeling is very much reciprocated.

Things are going fairly well right now. I'm at the pastor's meeting in Danville, and they seem to be actively discussing many of the concerns which face the Province: ministerial placement, overextension, quality of preaching and Franciscan life, the future of parishes in the Province. All of this is really important. It is certainly music to my ears to hear the pastors themselves directly addressing the issues. I talked to Jim Goode who is busy trying to reconcile Stalings with Archbishop Hickey in Washington DC, and trying to negotiate between the Black Bishops and some of the clergy. Poor Jim has his hands full. I talked to Louie in Denver, and he seems to be doing fine. Of course, you know me-I gave him something to do.

I'll be going to Ireland in October. I'm sure we'll be in contact before then. I appreciate your suggestions. Just to go to the "old sod" will refresh my spirits.

This is just a short note, Berard, to say hi and thanks for your letter. I hope you get rid of those cramps fairly soon. I imagine it's pretty uncomfortable. I know that you will be a great addition down at San Xavier. If there is anything I can do, don't hesitate to ask.

Faternally,

Dear [REDACTED]

While I obviously do not share your enthusiasm for the general order, please know I wish you all good at the upcoming meeting in Ireland.

Have a great visit - it will be raining so spend moments looking out to the sea... admire the polished brass door knobs and name plates... light an electric "candle" to St. Anthony... be sure to visit the Poor Ladies in Ennis... check out the libraries... have a wee drink with Levinus... touch the stones knowing these friaries housed saints and martyrs and not a few villains.

Should you run into men from Ennis, Killarney, Galway and especially Rossnolaugh, my best to them.

Peace!

Benny

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

Thanks very much for your short note and for the feastday greetings. I just want you to know that I will be thinking of you as I go to the Emerald Isle, looking out at the beautiful green island and its sea, thinking how wonderful it would be to live a quiet, secluded life in the monasteries of Ireland, wandering the countryside, chatting with the people, being entertained by their hospitality and enjoying their good humor. At least, that has always been my experience of the Irish. I just want you to know how much I'm looking forward to it. I will certainly do my best to do you justice.

Thanks always for your support, Berry. You did a fine job on Westfriars, and I look forward very much to the future additions. This is a great contribution to the Province. This letter is a little rushed, but I just wanted to get it off to let you know that I was and will be thinking of you. Thanks especially for all your concern for my mother which I appreciate very much.

Peace and all good!

I hope this letter finds you well. I look forward to seeing you sometime in March.

This is just a short note to say that I'm enclosing my paper on the history and direction of authority in the Province. I hope that you will find it useful for the pages of WestFriars. Also, I want to thank you very much for sending me the note about the FMU and the request of Mike Guinan. I appreciate very much the way you're taking the FMU into your concern and moving it forward. This is a great help to the Province.

I look forward to seeing you at the next SFO Minister's meeting. Lupe has been sick the last couple of days with a migraine headache, so you might remember her in your prayers. I think she's doing very much better now. This happens periodically. Mel and the rest of us in the office seem to be getting along fairly well. We went to a health club the other day and I went swimming, and the chlorine was so bad that I lost my eyesight for four hours - couldn't believe it! We don't need a blind Provincial wandering around. Of course, some may consider the Provincial already blind, but those are the breaks!

Thanks for your support and prayers, Berard.

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

I just want to thank you very much for the letter which you sent to me about our pulling out of Sacaton. As I mentioned to you at the meeting yesterday, I could not agree more. It's a real heart-rending thing for me, not so much because I don't see that we probably have to do this, but because I do not understand why we keep leaving people like this and serving so many other types. It doesn't make all that much sense to me, but the friars will be moved, and only so quickly, and only in a certain direction, and I think that's the way it is. Perhaps we will see what we are doing in this situation, and that will make us that much more sensitive about pulling out of these poor places in the future. This, at least, would be my hope.

I'm going to pass on your eloquent letter to the definitorium, because I think it is very fine. Thanks for taking the time. Be good to yourself! I look forward to seeing you in the Southwest.

Dear Jubilarian,

Remember that morning! Peter Wallischeck reading the document ("M' goodness alive!"), Hugolinus Storff, smiling from ear to ear, under his beard, of course and those laughing Definitors: Seraphin, Theodore, Maximilian, Casmir and Turibus.... January 19, 1916 -- what a morning!

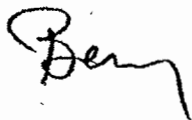

Ooops!...Sorry! It's just that because you and the Province are celebrating Jubilees together..... I forgot!

First, dear friend, I want to congratulate you on your jubilee be it Order or priesthood. You've been an example to me and I'm glad we've walked together this while.

As part of WESTFRIARS' desire to participate in the Province's 75th, I would like to do an article which will somehow express your thoughts and feelings as Our Mother in the West approaches jubilee.

If you could send me one or two paragraphs which are appropriate to your jubilee and the Province's. I'll try to make a collage, using your names) in one article which we can share with the Province through WESTFRIARS. If at all possible could you get this to me by the end of April.

Peace!

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

I'm looking forward to seeing you in Phoenix.

Thanks very much for your letter of March 2nd. I appreciate the invitation to be part of a collage on the occasion of the Province's 75th anniversary, and my jubilee, which is occurring this year. It was all news to me, Mel brought it to my attention when he put all those years down. It's hard for me to believe.

At any rate, I don't know if I'll be able to get off one or two paragraphs for the jubilee. It's not that I couldn't do it, it's just that I think my ideas are pretty well in circulation, particularly after the last two articles which I sent to you. I will hopefully do something much longer on the Province's jubilee, and I think that might be an appropriate way in which I could express myself.

If you want to quote me, just say that I'm very, very happy to be a member of this Province, with such a fine history and tradition, and I'm grateful because I can take great life from exemplary witness of the friars who have gone before me.

Thanks for all your work, Berard.

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

I'm off to San Luis Rey, Santa Barbara, and then Steubenville, Ohio for a couple of weeks, and will be back about the 13th. of July, but before I left I wanted to pass on the enclosed sheets to you.

One of these is a poem written by Br. Tom Moore Page, CFX, reflecting of Isidro as he saw him carrying a wheelbarrow full of avocados. The other is the homily which David Temple gave at Isidro's funeral. I hope you can print these both in Westfriars, and solicit other selections from the friars. Thanks very much for all the effort you put into this.

The funeral was very beautiful. Isidro had over 500 relatives in the area, 38 nieces and nephews, and a good number of people were able to come up to Santa Barbara. The front pews of the friars chapel were filled with his cousins. He has one remaining sister still alive, and quite a few of the nieces and nephews were there. The Franciscan Sisters, those located in Santa Ana, were in Chapter at a nearby place, and they came to celebrate the mass of the resurrection with us. The whole friar's chapel was filled. For myself, it was a very moving occasion to look out on the chapel and see so many representatives of the Franciscan family, the family of Isidro, and our own friars. I was particularly pleased because so many of our laic friars were present, ones who have worked so long and so hard for the good of our fraternity and of the Province. This was a real testament to Isidro, who labored with a great deal of simplicity, shrewdness, and patience throughout his life. In my closing remarks, I mentioned how close he was to the earth, and how he had such great trust in the natural virtues and powers imbedded in God's creation. I feel that he gave labor a tremendous dignity. We all enjoyed his humor, and were edified by his Franciscan life. I'm glad David was able to bring out so much of this in the funeral homily.

I hope everything's going well with you, Berard. Please remember me in your prayers.

Berry, I wonder if you could not help me out. [REDACTED] has written me, asking if I could not establish some oral witness "trail" as to his difficulties in the Order, particularly with respect to anger. [REDACTED] is having a difficult time now, and needs to apply to the Veteran's Administration. They refuse to take care of his difficulties unless he can prove some connection between his service in the Army and his burden of temper and anger over the many years he was in the Order. I wonder if you would have some memories going back that far, or if you ever noticed anything about [REDACTED] behavior which would indicate to you some substantial connection between his time in the Army and his difficulties with us. I would appreciate whatever help you can give.

Thanks very much, Berry. I would appreciate whatever help you can give.

I hope this letter finds you well, I look forward to seeing you at visitation time.

Berard, just a short note to thank you very much for the fine work you did on my paper on authority. I really appreciate the way it has been put out and my hope is it will provide something good for the Friars to reflect upon. May the Lord give you peace. Dear [REDACTED]

The FMU committee asked me to write Moises Huerta and Jorge Barbaste informing them that as of May 1, 1991, the FMU could no longer support their education here in the states.

Because of obvious fall-out I thought it best to first send a copy of the letter to you. I will wait until I hear from you before writing to Moises and Jorge.

The deficit budget is a serious matter for the committee and putting out $26,562.00 for two students is pretty glaring - and that is only one year out of the many the FMU has been doing this.

Even apart from the funding, this situation has had a demoralizing effect on the FMU committee. There has been no cooperation from Moises. When asked about his plans, I am told he becomes abusive with the usual charges of "racism."

B. O'NEIL

Several missionaries attended the FMU meeting. One of them, a friar who is extremely loyal to the Province, said, "I cannot preach for the missions with money being spent that way." This morning, before writing you, I had to tell Camilius that FMU had no money to buy him a new outhouse.

Sorry to continue adding to your burden.

Peace.

Dear Moises,

At the recent meeting of the Franciscan Mission Union committee some considerable time was spent reviewing the budget in light of the Province's FMU guidelines.

The FMU committee cannot continue operating on a deficit budget. In reviewing the budget, the amount of $26,562.00 for two students was bound to stand out.

It is the decision of the FMU committee that it cannot continue this expense and as of May, 1, 1991, it must discontinue paying for your on-going education.

We know this will seriously effect your plans and we give you this five month notice so that you may contact your Provincial superiors and/or otherwise look for needed funds.

We do this reluctantly but in the face of deficit and the pressing needs of the Province's missions we must more exactly observe the guidelines approved for the Franciscan Missionary Union of the St. Barbara Province.

Sincerely,

Berard Connolly

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

Happy Christmas. I look forward to seeing you at the Chapter.

Berard, thanks very much for your letter of December 1st. with the reference to the two students, [REDACTED] I will be pursuing other things with [REDACTED] so I think your letter came at an opportune time. Certainly I understand the difficulties with the FMU budgeting, and that will just have to be dealt with for the two students.

I do not know what will happen to [REDACTED] whether he will stay or not. Let me ask you a question: if [REDACTED] is the only student here, will you be able to pay for him or not? I have no idea about what the expenses would be. Also, if the FMU cannot afford full tuition, are they willing to put up some monies. I am not sure of the position of the committee in these two areas. I am not trying to put pressure on the committee to change its position, I simply want to ask what the lay of the land is in working with the students as I'm sure they will end up at my doorstep.

Thanks for all the hard work, Berard. May the Lord bless you.

Dear Barry:

Peace and all good!

Thanks very much for sending me the information about the Franciscan Missionary Union. I think it's really a fine letter and I'm glad that you drew it up in that way. I look forward to the new membership on the committee and will be contacting Max in the near future. I appreciate all the work you've done. I really think you've brought some leadership to the group. Despite how you might evaluate your chairmanship, I'm grateful for it.

As much as I can see, the responses to the Chapter were really outstanding. It's very gratifying to me, and I want to thank you very much for the contribution you have made to that and to so much, especially for your work with Westfriars. May the Lord bless you. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Dear [REDACTED]

Whenever that day or night comes and someone goes through the file I have in my room they will probably pause, wonder, and say "What the hell!" at the file folder marked simply as "HAYMO."

Enclosed is a letter I wrote Hamer several years ago when I still fought windmills. I no longer have the heroism needed. Don Quixote, limping, leaving center stage, remains a hero. The eminent Dominican is a snake in the grass so be aware as you and he walk the USD campus in colloquy. However, if you can nudge him, or his carriage - Oh that glorious scene in "The Name of the Rose," - near the cliff overlooking the freeway. Windmills are for others; I only dream!

The other light reading comes from the Capuchin newsletter "re-caps." An extremely excellent newsletter. Even with Hamer jumping the gun the Capuchin Minister General fought for the evangelical life. The war is probably over by now, or soon will be, but what a gift it must be for Capuchin Brothers to have Flavio.

Hope the definitorium meeting went well. You look tired at the S/W regional. Have a good summer and enjoy the business at San Diego. Who knows, there may be a few good laughs during it all. If you do miss a session or two, just dial 1-900-369-1600.

Thanks for so very much.

Peace!

With the printers minimum I have probably enough extra copies for every Poor Clare monastery

I would like to send a copy to my favorite Poor

I know, Berard, the last few weeks have been very difficult for you. I want to thank you very much for coming to see me when you were up in the area and I am so glad you have talked with Richard McManus. Please be assured of my continued support and prayers. Enclosed please find a copy of the address which I gave to the parishioners and to the friars when we closed the mission in Salem, Oregon, on November 16th. It was in many respects a heart-wrenching affair, but the people were very nice and we had a really fine reception. About 250 people came. I hope that the address can be printed in Westfriars. Dear Barry,

Peace and all good!

This is just a short note to thank you very much, Berard, first for doing that work at the cemetery at Watsonville. I found the pictures and the description very fine. We'll keep it on record in the Provincial Office, and also send the original to Tim Arthur for the archives in Santa Barbara. It is really fine work. This is a big help to me as I have been looking for those graves for many years.

Also, I want to thank you personally for the letter which you sent me from your friend, Bernadine Wall, the Poor Clare in Ireland. She was certainly generous in her comments on my pamphlet. It was nice of you to think of sending it. I don't know where she got my nickname "Buster." Did you help her on that?

God bless you, Barry. Please be assured of my prayers and support.

FRIARS AWAITING RESURRECTION NEAR WATSONVILLE
November 25, 1991

Six friars of Sacred Heart/St. Barbara Province are buried at the Pajaro Valley Cemetery across Hecker Road from the former St. Francis Orphanage "near Watsonville."

The cemetery is under control and direction of the Pajaro Valley Public Cemetery District, 66 Main, Watsonville, CA 95076, 722-0310. I found three of the cemeteries in this district and all are in excellent condition. Some graves and monuments were damaged in the recent earthquake but as far as I could see all damage has been repaired. I spent a half hour or so "talking cemeteries" with a caretaker. This area has a large Italian and Portuguese population and there are many larger mausoleums and tombs.

The large Mary, Help of Christians Church, staffed by Salesians, dominates the cemetery grounds. Masses in the church are in English, Portuguese, Italian and Spanish. Across the road from cemetery and church is the St. Francis Youth Center. Except for the lake, often spoken of by Father Roger, nothing is left of the former St. Francis Orphanage. I believe the Salesians ran a boys' boarding school for a number of years. Now the facility seems to be a youth recreation center. "The Penny Club" sponsors a great many youth oriented activities, especially for the children of migrant and farm workers. A whole fleet of parked buses serves for transportation. At the Youth Center office I met a young Salesian priest, whose name I do not know, who attended FST and was taught by Joe Chinnici. He was kindly registering Spanish speaking families for the Center.

Back to the cemetery. The friars are buried in Block 14, toward the back and to the north. Most of the graves in this area are either tombs or larger monuments. Nestled between a tomb and a newer low red brick wall are six grave markers of dark grey/black granite about two feet high, two rows of three:

- #1 Rev. Herman Wirtz, OFM (November 6, 1905)
- #2 Rev. Gilbert Slater, OFM (December 8, 1906)
- #3 Rev. Quirinus Stuecker, OFM (September 22, 1914)
- #4 Bro. Aloisius Nauer, OFM (February 3, 1890)
- #5 Bro. Dominic Reed, OFM (August 25, 1903)
- #6 Bro. Dennis Oberbroeckling, OFM (October 5, 1918)

The whole plot looks rather nice. The grave markers are relatively new and appear to have been set in place at the same time. Brother Dennis is leaning a bit. There are several lilies growing. Looks like the plants are several years old.

Before leaving I look around from a grave view. The area is peaceful and rather beautiful. I said a prayer or two, and sang the Ultima. I lit a San Xavier del Bac candle in the church - which by now the pastor has probably blown out - and left. The friars rest near the orphanage where they lived. It's a nice spot. Without going into too much research, the cemetery office believes the plot is full.

Barry, I just want to thank you very much for putting so much effort and time into the publication of Franciscan Life. You did an outstanding job! I see that you got somewhat of a blurb all by yourself, and you also wrote a beautiful commentary at the end of the book. I really appreciated what you had to say. You have been one of the movers behind the communications in the Province for many, many years, especially with Westfriars. Now you have made a major contribution in terms of Franciscan Life. I think it is excellent, and it has received a great reception wherever I go.

May God bless you for your work on this project, Barry. Please be assured always of my prayers and support.

To the Poor Ladies of the Federation

Dear Sisters,

On behalf of the St. Barbara Province I offer you this little tribute to our brother and father, Father David Temple. O.F.M. In fact, I am returning your memories of him but in a fawn colored booklet.

Because Father David was both my novice master a hundred years ago and my Minister Provincial, my happy memories coincide with those of the Poor Ladies.

To my dying day I will be grateful to Father David for enfleshing our Holy Father Francis in my life and heart, and for introducing all of us to the beautiful Lady Clare. How incomplete our Franciscan lives would be without Father David, "Classmates" classmate. Father David so intune with Francis, that more than others, he could speak with "Brother Dog." Who but Father David knew the mayor of Assisi's middle name!

Again, dear Sisters, thank you for all you did for Father David while he was among you. Always he spoke beautifully of the Poor Ladies.

And, please keep me in your good prayers.

May we always and everywhere be with the Lord.

Just a short note for doing the obituaries recently. I just received the one on Brice. This is a great gift to the Province, Barry, and I know that it probably takes a great amount of research for you. But it is a tremendous help. I will try to pass on to you the homily which I gave at Brice's funeral. It needs to be typed yet, and I have to include some concluding comments. But now I am trying to write out what I am saying just so that we will have some official word from the Provincial on the life of each friar. I really had hoped that the friars would respond to the request to write their memories for WESTFRIARS. I'm only grateful that you are willing to take up this task.

Dear [REDACTED]

Two things --

In catching up with my life I realize 1993 is the 800th anniversary of St. Clare.

Do you think you will have the time or energy to write a "booklet" on St. Clare which WESTFRIARS could put out for August?

Also, enclosed is a letter I received the otherday from Tony Neumayer. Every so often I feel the need for something in my file which will tell the future that I wasn't a complete failure. Maybe it's pride or maybe it's called stacking the deck.

I was surprised and grateful for Tony's note. I guess I ran into him once in the past 20 years. I was at his wedding. Tony isn't a man of words or too much sentiment but it seems he is a friend. Another proof of the truth in the saying about those you do the least for are those who do the most for you.

Since coming back from Tucson I feel more settled in at San Juan. I felt much a part of this past weekend's retreat. Doing dishes for the 100+ retreatants while also being a part was a good feeling.

So, things are going OK -- until the next bomb, I guess.

Peace!

Dear Bro,

I thought I'd better drop you a note, as Linda and I have moved back to Montana. I have switched careers and am now selling wood pellets for wood stoves. We've been back almost 2 years now and are getting comfortable. We had to leave Adam in Oregon as he wanted to go to College at Oregon State. He's going to Medical School and is wrestling on ~~the~~ the Varsity.

Greg did come with us and is now going to the University of Montana with a business major. He's involved in track and will try football next year. Kelly + Sarah are both in the 5th grade and are best of friends, both are in basketball now and are little spitfires. Linda is working at a bank part time and at home full time. So were pretty busy all the time.

I've heard of your problems, and pray that you will be ok through this. Our prayers are with you. I remember the times that as a teenager

In these times, a life of religious service is not easy and there are very few people that choose that life. Don't be too hard on your self, Bro. There are a lot of people behind you and praying for you. Without you my life may have turned the wrong way. As we go along in life we all have problems + with the power of prayer and support of family + friends we get through the rough times. I talked with Fr. Barecci at St Francis. He told me to send this letter to the Provincial office. Where ever your assigned, please, keep in touch with us. I'm only sorry that I didn't get in touch with you sooner than 4 years ago. Re: Greyfriars Review

Enclosed please find a letter which I received from Regis Armstrong with respect to Greyfriars Review. I would hope that you could publish an advertisement of this review in the Westfriars with the following comment from me.

The Franciscan periodical, Greyfriars Review, comes with my highest recommendation. I believe it is the finest English Speaking journal that we have that deals with Franciscan spirituality, theology, and pastoral practice. I hope that as many of the individual houses that want to could order a subscription of Greyfriars review for their house libraries and that some of the articles could be discussed in house chapters and on days of recollection. Although many of the articles are highly technical, they certainly represent the best scholarship with is available to us and would more than reward a careful reading.

Thanks for doing this, Berard. I think it really will be of benefit to everyone. God bless you.

This is just a short note to thank you for writing me obituaries for Conrad and John. I really appreciate the fine work that you're doing. I think this is a tremendous contribution. I read both of them, and you really captured a lot of the spirit.

I will probably be coming down to San Juan next weekend and I look forward to seeing you. I've heard about some of the difficulties. Just let me say that my heart goes out to you and you have my own personal support and the support of the province. We will certainly do everything that is necessary.

God bless you, Berry. I'll see you soon.

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

Enclosed, please find a copy of the homily which Archbishop John Quinn gave at the solemnities celebrated at St. Boniface Church. I hope that you can print it in Westfriars under his signature so that everyone can read it. It's very rare that we get a prelate of this stature to preach directly to us, and I think that we should take what he says directly to heart. Thanks very much for your attention to this, Barry.

Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

I hope you have a very happy Thanksgiving.

Enclosed, please find an address which Mary Mazotti, the national Vice Minister of the Secular Franciscans gave at the annual meeting of the national fraternity. I would appreciate it very much if, sometime in the near future you would print this in Westfriars. Mary, as you know, used to be President of our SFO's in this province, and she's really been pushing cooperation for many years. I think the more attention we can give to the seculars in our own province publications the better off the fraternity will be, and we will be able to grow. Dear Berard:

Peace and all good!

Enclosed, please find the recommendations from the General Curia's commission on the contemplative dimension of Franciscan life. In talking it over with the spiritual renewal committee and thinking about it myself, I think it would be good if we could put this into the kind of pamphlet that we put Bill Short's reflections into, and thus circulate it to many of the friars. This should not be done probably until September, after the fellows get settled in their new communities, but I want to give it to you in plenty of time and ask if you might be able to do this for me. You do such a great job on so much of this work.

Thanks very much for considering this, Berard. If there are any difficulties, please don't hesitate to ask.

Berard, thanks very much for sending me a copy of the address which Paul Fericano gave to the friars group in Santa Barbara. I think it's really a fine statement, and it would do well for us to circulate it in Westfriars. So, please go ahead and print it, indicating that the friars are in conversation with Paul Fericano, and we are certainly trying to do everything we can to respond positively to the needs of the victims and the families, while also taking care of the friars.

Berard, I hope things are going well with you. I remember you in prayers frequently. You're a great friar and a good man, and I pray that the good Lord, especially during this season, blesses you in abundance.

Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for the reminder about the Poor Ladies and the SFO in our communications.

WESTFRIARS has tried to include both. The Clares are easier than the SFO. My problem with SFO is that I was too well known among them, in the northwest and southwest. However, I do try to include them in WESTFRIARS.

I believe in the SFO and enjoyed my time among them. They are good people who often do what we friars talk about.

WESTFRIARS plans on doing something on the Aptos Poor Ladies and I've asked Bob Brady about Most Holy Redeemer SFO fraternity in The City.

Angelo stopped in to see me yesterday and we had a fine visit. It's great being around a friar as enthusiastic as he, especially in formation work!

Have a very full house this weekend - Fort Ord Women, Marriage Encounter, Singles Retreat, Santa Clara U. students and a delightful group of Black students from Stanford. Can they pray!!

Peace!

Berney

Thanks so much for the work, Berard. God bless you.

Dear Berard,

Peace and all good!

I want to thank you so very much for the letter which you were kind enough to write to me on September 17, the feast of the Holy Stigmata, and the feast of your transitus. I remember the day well, the discussions that went up to it, the desire to try to do it in the best way possible, the difficulties each of us experienced. My heart went out to you then. I have always considered you and still consider you to be one of my best friends in the Order.

I think I was very fortunate to be elected to the Provincial Definitorium in 1979 when you were elected. This enabled us to get to know each other and for me to translate your very insightful and pictorial feelings so that they could be communicated to those of us who are the more disembodied cognitive types. You have been a great blessing in my life.

Your letter was beautifully written and, I think, is a good description of a wonderful process that is taking place. I want to encourage you very much to respond in this way to the Holy Spirit Who is so obviously and evidently working in you, through you, in your faults, in your strengths, in your weaknesses and enabling you to give such great witness in the fraternity.

Sometime when I have a great deal of time and, really, the privilege to do justice to your letter, I would like to sit down and write perhaps, my own history of my events in the last two years. Your own responsiveness to the request of the province, your patience and sensitivity to me, your acceptance of this road of the Cross has been one of the strengths which has enabled me even to survive. I thank you so much for this letter and for your friendship, Berard. God bless you.

Dear Barry,

Peace and all good.

Thanks very much for your letter to me of March 3, 1995, in which you inquire about the mailing list for Westfriars. Let me simply make the following brief comment.

It seems to me the list of people on the two pages that you sent me are fine. I see no difficulty, either, with Edith Eddy or with Mary Jean Sortors. These people generally are extremely supportive of us and in the long run I believe sharing with them some of the news that is contained in Westfriars will be of benefit to everyone. In that way they can support us in our difficulties with their prayers and rejoice in some of the good things that are being accomplished. I simply wouldn't worry about their impressions.

Because of these comments I would certainly prefer that you omit your comments in the last paragraph that Westfriars will concentrate on being a newsletter strictly for the friars in-house. I don't see any need for that at the present time. I think that if a particular issue comes up, you certainly have exercised great discretion in the past and will continue to do so in the future. I would keep them on the Westfriars mailing list. If you have difficulty with this, I'm certainly willing to discuss it. It is just my feedback at the present time. The Way really has a different purpose with a different audience. And in the long run, Westfriars and Way will be mutually beneficial and complementary.

Listen, you're doing a great job. I want to thank you for the wonderful work. You know part of the renewal in the province is due to the great communications that you've been working on for so many years. God bless you, Barry

Dear Berard,

Peace and all good.

Enclosed please find the latest from the pen of yours truly. I hope there's something you can do with it. My idea was probably to put it into a pamphlet that could be made available for the FILM process. I don't know whether this is possible or whether you have the resources down there to do it. I've asked Imelda to translate it into Microsoft Word so that you can put it on your computer. If you can't do this, would it be possible for you to track down how it could be done? My only suggestion would be Paul Reczek of the Assumption Province. He has a lot of pamphlet-making abilities and you might be able to contact him and he would be able to give you some ideas. I realize it is quite lengthy and if you really don't have time and aren't able to do this project, let me know and we'll figure out something else. I could send them out in long form just as print outs. And that's possible too. We can talk about it, perhaps, on the phone, after you look over the material.

Thanks so much for attending to this project. Again, please feel free to give me your honest feedback. And if it's not possible, I understand that and we can always send out the thing from the office in hard copy over a period of time.

God bless you, Berard.

Do you have special requests for your funeral service/arrangements?

My feelings about my funeral are fairly well known at the Provincial Office. My firm wish is that I have a CLOSED casket. (Or I will haunt you!) Should I die at St. Francis Retreat I would like a simple memorial mass (any place but St. Elizabeth's, Oakland!) If possible I would like Joe Chinnici to preach I would like to be cremated (unless my sister should say otherwise.)

For burial I have a few plans:

- A) Burial at the San Juan Bautista Cemetery. In many ways San Juan is home to me. I really began my religious life here and it may end it here.
- B) Burial at Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. As I become older the soil of my birthplace becomes more real. I am a son of the City and County of San Francisco.
- C) A dream in my life was to be a missionary. I spent five years at San Xavier del Bac - counting money! Could my ashes be placed in the Old Indian Cemetery adjacent the Mission Church?
- D) Bury my ashes or body anyplace but Oakland.

As I have caused enough publicity for the friars in life, I request little or no notification of my death.

Are there any personal items you want given to your family?

Baseball Trophy to Mr. Tim Cronin, Spokane

Picture of Bl. Kateri Tekewitha to Gabriel Encinas, San Xavier del Bac

Metal thunderbird to Mr. Peter Nguyen, Alhambra, CA

Do you have insurance policies, pensions, veteran's benefits, etc.? Is so please list.

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE DECISIONS
(California Probate Code Sections 4600-4753)

WARNING TO PERSON EXECUTING THIS DOCUMENT

This is an important legal document. Before executing this document, you should know these important facts:

This document gives the person you designate as your agent (the attorney-in-fact) the power to make health care decisions for you. Your agent must act consistently with your desires as stated in this document or otherwise made known.

Except as you otherwise specify in this document, this document gives your agent power to consent to your doctor not giving treatment or stopping treatment necessary to keep you alive.

Notwithstanding this document, you have the right to make medical and other health care decisions for yourself so long as you can give informed consent with respect to the particular decision. In addition, no treatment may be given to you over your objection, and health care necessary to keep you alive may not be stopped or withheld if you object at the time.

This document gives your agent authority to consent, to refuse to consent, or to withdraw consent to any care, treatment, service, or procedure to maintain, diagnose, or treat a physical or mental condition. This power is subject to any statement of your desires and any limitations that you include in this document. You may state in this document any types of treatment that you do not desire. In addition, a court can take away the power of your agent to make health care decisions for you if your agent (1) authorizes anything that is illegal, (2) acts contrary to your known desires or (3) where your desires are not known, does anything that is clearly contrary to your best interests.

This power will exist for an indefinite period of time unless you limit its duration in this document.

You have the right to revoke the authority of your agent by notifying your agent or your treating doctor, hospital, or other health care provider orally or in writing of the revocation.

Your agent has the right to examine your medical records and to consent to their disclosure unless you limit this right in this document.

Unless you otherwise specify in this document, this document gives your agent the power after you die to (1) authorize an autopsy, (2) donate your body or parts thereof for transplant or therapeutic or educational or scientific purposes, and (3) direct the disposition of your remains.

If there is anything in this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you.

1. CREATION OF DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE

By this document I intend to create a durable power of attorney by appointing the person designated below to make health care decisions for me as allowed by Sections 4600 to 4753, inclusive, of the California Probate Code. This power of attorney shall not be affected by my subsequent incapacity. I hereby revoke any prior durable power of attorney for health care. I am a California resident who is at least 18 years old, of sound mind, and acting of my own free will.

2. APPOINTMENT OF HEALTH CARE AGENT

(Fill in below the name, address and telephone number of the person you wish to make health care decisions for you if you become incapacitated. You should make sure that this person agrees to accept this responsibility. The following may not serve as your agent: (1) your treating health care provider; (2) an operator of a community care facility or residential care facility for the elderly; or (3) an employee of your treating health care provider, a community care facility, or a residential care facility for the elderly, unless that employee is related to you by blood, marriage or adoption, or unless you are also an employee of the same treating provider or facility. If you are a conservatee under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (the law governing involuntary commitment to a mental health facility) and you wish to appoint your conservator as your agent, you must consult a lawyer, who must sign and attach a special declaration for this document to be valid.)

I, BERARD W. CONNOLLY, hereby appoint:

California Medical Association 1996 (revised)

3. AUTHORITY OF AGENT

If I become incapable of giving informed consent to health care decisions, I grant my agent full power and authority to make those decisions for me, subject to any statements of desires or limitations set forth below. Unless I have limited my agent's authority in this document, that authority shall include the right to consent, refuse consent, or withdraw consent to any medical care, treatment, service, or procedure; to receive and to consent to the release of medical information; to authorize an autopsy to determine the cause of my death; to make a gift of all or part of my body; and to direct the disposition of my remains, subject to any instructions I have given in a written contract for funeral services, my will or by some other method. I understand that, by law, my agent may not consent to any of the following: commitment to a mental health treatment facility, convulsive treatment, psychosurgery, sterilization or abortion.

4. MEDICAL TREATMENT DESIRES AND LIMITATIONS (OPTIONAL)

Your agent must make health care decisions that are consistent with your known desires. You may, but are not required to, state your desires about the kinds of medical care you do or do not want to receive, including your desires concerning life support if you are seriously ill. If you do not want your agent to have the authority to make certain decisions, you must write a statement to that effect in the space provided below; otherwise, your agent will have the broad powers to make health care decisions for you that are outlined in paragraph 3 above. In either case, it is important that you discuss your health care desires with the person you appoint as your agent and with your doctor(s).

Following is a general statement about withholding and removal of life-sustaining treatment. If the statement accurately reflects our desires, you may initial it. If you wish to add to it or to write your own statement instead, you may do so in the space provided.)

I do not want efforts made to prolong my life and I do not want life-sustaining treatment to be provided or continued: (1) if I am in an irreversible coma or persistent vegetative state; or (2) if I am terminally ill and the use of life-sustaining procedures would serve only to artificially delay the moment of my death; or (3) under any other circumstances where the burdens of the treatment outweigh the expected benefits. In making decisions about life-sustaining treatment under provision (3) above, I want my agent to consider the relief of suffering and the quality of my life, as well as the extent of the possible prolongation of my life.

If this statement reflects your desires, initial here: PS

Dear Berard,

Peace and good.

Just a short note to thank you so very much for your reflections on Father Raynor Harrington. Once again, you've done an outstanding job. I do appreciate your handling of so many of the obituaries for the friars. You're a great writer, you have a wonderful feel for history and a real sense of what it means to be a Friar Minor. This comes through very clearly in the letters which you write with respect the others. I could not do better myself and would hope to do as well. God bless you for this ministry, Berard.

Father Finian has a long history in the field of multicultural education chiefly in the San Joaquin Valley. He is fluent in Spanish and Hmong and presently learning Vietnamese to better share with our Vietnamese Brothers and their families. Father was elected Minister Provincial last January.

Dear Vicki and Family,

Peace & Every Blessing

No doubt you have heard of the kidnapping of Fr. Des Hartford, our "Bishop." He was released this morning a little after one A.M. I would like to explain for you all that happened but it is very complicated.

Des was kidnapped October 27th in Kalanbagan area, a Christian area, not in Marawi. The kidnapers were a group of Muslims, M.N.F.L. rebel returnees. Through the efforts of the Bishop Capalla and the National Unification Board they had returned to the fold and were promised large sums by the government for income generating projects--millions of pesos. But during the last three years many of the returnees did not receive anything from the government. Finally in desperation they kidnapped Des demanding the money promised to them.

Our Muslim friends helped us very much, one in particular, Aleem Elias going back and forth between the rebels and the authorities. Des was personally treated well by the captors and moved from place to place in the mountains for his safety. There were at least four armed groups trying to get hold of Des. Politicians also got involved looking for political leverage for the coming elections next year. There were hundreds of phone calls back and forth, people traveling from Davao to Iligan to Manila and back. Meetings held in Capayan de Oro, Kalanbagan, and in secret hideaways. False reports even on TV that he had been released, especially since Saturday, 1st of November. He was to be released to one group when the governor of Lanao stepped in and demanded that he be released to him, etc.

I was in Manila when Des was picked up. When I got back on October 1st, we set up three centers of communication: Nilo, the Vicar General, stayed in Marawi; Sr. Angie and Bamanito in Kalanbagan at the base of the road to the mountain site; and I in Corpus Christ parish in Iligan City. Day and night meetings, communications, demands, and visitors. The last three nights Fr. Des got no sleep because they were moving him from place to place, even sleeping once in the open field, trying to avoid the armed groups after him. Finally he was released this morning. I heard of it at 2:30 A.M. and proceeded to Linamon where we met the caravan that came down from the mountains. Des is O.K. and has been taken to Capayan de Oro for rest.

Thanks for your letter of October 7th, Vicki. Surprised to hear of you climbing the cliff along the coast when a few years ago you needed a "lift" to go up and down the stairs. Great improvement. I'm fine. More information when I get some time. I'll try to write a Christmas letter next week if I can.

Regards to all.

With love,

Erwin.

ST. FRANCIS RETREAT

Dear [REDACTED]

Sorry I did not make the Guardians/Vicars meeting. Legs aren't working too well – I began physical therapy yesterday – and San Damiano is a rough place to navigate.

My good friend Bunny Fontana wrote the enclosed about Albie. Thought maybe you'd like to hear it was a good move. I have a lot of respect for Bunny's advice when it comes to the O'dham.

Peace!

Bened

We miss having Mike at San Xavier, but Father Alberic was a God-sent replacement. For someone who has never been in the region before and who has never worked with Indians, much less O'dham, he has acclimated with incredible speed and actually seems to be enjoying himself immensely. He is very well liked by all the board members of the Patronato, by the crew working on the church, by employees of the mission, and, so far as an outsider can judge, by his fellow friars. It appears he is also making great strides with the Wa: k community.

Dear Berard,

I just got back from the UCLAF meeting of all the provincials of Latin America, from Tijuana to Chile. The meeting was held in Guatemala. The Minister General was there and two General Definitors, the Vicar General and the friar in charge of Peace and Justice and Ecology. It was a very fine meeting.

While I was there I got a chance to see members of our Province. I visited with Martin Ibarra. In fact, Martin and two other friars from Guatemala and an indigenous woman from Quiche, gave a talk to the assembled provincials about their work in the area of the CPR, the pueblo in resistentia in the mountains of Caba. Martin is very happy. The friars of the Province of Guadalupe are very happy to have him there. It certainly has been a good experience for him.

I also heard so many wonderful comments about Elmer. Elmer helps every pastor and every religious house in the area of Guatemala City. If their plumbing is broken, if they need hot water, if they need new electrical systems, Elmer is there to help them. The friars speak very highly of Elmer and the work he has done in Guatemala.

I also met the Provincial of the Province of St. Francis Solano in Peru. He also speaks very highly of Gerard Saunders. In fact, he told me that recently he became aware of the fact that there is a little aldea named San Gerado after Gerard. It seems there is a very small community at a distance from Terra Blanca and the only way to get to it is by boat. Gerard has been visiting these people and, in thanksgiving for his visits, these people have named their village San Gerardo. What a tribute to Gerard Saunders.

From the other part of the world, the Minister General mentioned the fine work that John Summers has been doing as president of the Thailand Project, and publicly expressed his gratitude toward our province in supplying friars who volunteered to accompany John Summers in Thailand during this time of transition.

I left Guatemala very satisfied and quite proud of the way the brothers of the Province of Saint Barbara have been working in the missionary field.

May the Lord give you peace!

I just finished talking with Br. Berard Connolly, OFM. He is ready to move to the Old Mission. He will be speaking with you shortly.

I spoke with him about the items you and I talked about, viz. that I want Berard to continue to be in charge of Westfriars and the obituaries for the men in the province. In order to do that he will need an office.

I was thinking – I don't want to micro-manage your house, but – he could probably take the provincial's room and the provincial/vicar, etc. could stay in the room Noel occupied once it is cleaned. That's something you'll decide. However, Berard will need room for the computer and printer he will bring with him.

Thanks to you and to the members of your community for the fine hospitality you showed on the occasion of Noel's funeral. It was exemplary! You're a good Guardian.

Woman says Marycliff cleric abused her

Spokane woman is suing a Franciscan priest and the Roman Catholic Diocese of Spokane, claiming the cleric sexually abused her and other students at the now-defunct Marycliff High School.

██████████ the former student, said in a lawsuit filed in Spokane County Superior Court that she was sexually abused, harassed and molested by Brother Berard Connelly at Marycliff High School, which she attended for 20 years ago.

Efforts to reach Hatcher and Connelly, who is a member of the order and now lives in Phoenix, Ariz., were unsuccessful Wednesday.

Marycliff High School, an all-girls school, closed in 1979.

Connelly served as a teacher and Franciscan brother in charge of student affairs when ██████████ attended the school and St. Ann's parish from 1968 to 1973, says the complaint, which was filed Tuesday.

"Connelly continuously sexually abused, harassed and intimidated plaintiff and other students on parish premises and during parish-related activities and outings," the lawsuit states.

Parents and students complained about the teacher's behavior to his supervisors, but the complaints weren't properly investigated or reported, according to Hatcher's complaint.

"Defendants covered up and concealed Connelly's acts of sex abuse and harassment and complaints regarding his behavior," the lawsuit states.

In addition to Connelly, defendants in the suit include the Catholic Diocese of Spokane, the Catholic Bishop of Spokane, the Franciscan Friars, province of Santa Barbara, Calif., and the

He also attributes problems with relationships and the breakup of her marriage to the abuse, which led her to seek counseling.

Bishop Skystad, who was not head of the diocese when the abuse allegedly occurred, said he will offer counseling to any victims.

The Rev. Larry Dunphy, of St. Ann's, said Connelly is still in the Franciscan order.

"As far as I know, (the complaints) never reached the diocesan level. The only thing we can do is investigate the cases we are aware of," he said.

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in response of an earlier letter from you asking me to do certain things for my mental and physical health. I am sorry for the delay: it did take awhile to find the "support group."

1) I have a Spiritual Director with whom I believe I am open and I celebrate the sacramental gift of reconciliation. I see him once a month. Father Bartholomew Welsh, Mission San Antonio, is my director.

2) Weekly I spend an hour with Dr. Wendy Sinclair-Brown, Ph.D. I find her professional, inciteful and caring. I am honest with her and have confidence in her abilities as a psychologist. Dr. Sinclair-Brown works with Dr. Dennis St. Peter, MD, a psychiatrist. I am seeing Dr. St. Peter once a month when he monitors the medication prescribed for me, Prozac and Valporic Acid

3) Monday evening, May 10, I attended my first SLAA support group in Pacific Grove. I told Dr. Sinclair-Brown about the meeting. She is not all that sure I need this particular group as she questions the intensity of the "addiction" in my life. I will return for several Wednesday meetings, keeping in touch with Dr. Sinclair-Brown. The SLAA group may be what I need or it may at least be a springboard to other support groups. These types of groups aren't that easy to find but now I have an in and will take it from here. I think I am looking for an "Aloness Group," if such exists!

4) My physical health is monitored by Dr. Benedict Carota, MD, Hollister.

5) I believe the greatest help is Fr. Richard McManus to whom I confide and in whom I have the greatest confidence. I am very open in sharing with him.

Thanks, [REDACTED] for your often heroic support.

Dear Berard

Peace. I hope you are doing well; I'm glad to hear that you are enjoying the retreats. You're good at it, and that makes a lot of sense. I am really glad you can help at San Juan and continue to do Westfriars.

I have heard from the Institute of Living and would ask you to abide by the following regulations while living and working at San Juan Bautista:

(1) You are to continue weekly outpatient therapy with a therapist recommended and contacted by Dr. Les Lothstein. You should make arrangements for this as soon as possible by contacting Dr. Lothstein if he has not already contacted you.

(2) A support group is also necessary: this should be worked out between yourself and your therapist. I think this needs to be as supportive and professional as possible, at times confrontive. The members of the support group should be ones dealing with their own sexual history and in recovery from it. I think it would be best to consult with Tom West as to which type of group would be most appropriate, and I presume we will be talking about this in the future to see that we take the best possible steps now.

(3) You must have a regular spiritual director; I would suggest meetings initially twice monthly, and then possibly monthly.

(4) Your monitor will be Fr. Richard McManus, with whom you should meet in an official capacity at least twice monthly to discuss your progress and continued addressing of the issues.

(5) You may have no contact with minors, either in a pastoral or personal capacity. Any departure from this should be discussed immediately with your therapist and Fr. Richard.

I would appreciate the details of your response to these requirements (numbers 1, 2, 3) as soon as possible.

Connolly, 2

Thanks for your cooperation, Berard. These restrictions are quite standard, and I know from our talks that you see them as important also. What I am happy about is your return to the province and the great contribution you have made and will continue to make.

God bless you. Please be assured of my continued support and prayers.

Fraternally

Brother Berard Connolly

1. Information contained in newspaper article as to his activities in Spokane; lawsuit settled in February 1994.
2. Entered into aftercare based on recommendations from Institute of Living, Hartford (confer letters of February 10, 1993 and March 12, 1993.) This course of therapy requirements ended.
3. Now considered to be doing well and in proper assignment. In self-monitoring program which is sufficient.

Based on Berard's assessment at Hartford, his progress in therapy, his current assignment in internal ministry and interaction with adults at St. Francis Retreat, his continuing vigilance in self-monitoring, and no evidence of an ongoing problem for many years, his course of therapy ended. His self-monitoring is good and considered sufficient. Battles mostly with physical and psychological health.
