RE: David Johnson

Dear [REDACTED]

As you know David did agree to continue to work with me and we have been meeting regularly.

I have exchanged complete records with Sarah Brennan, PHD in Jemez Springs and am going to finish that process with a phone consultation.

As we agreed, if you have any records in your file, regarding sexual allegations concerning David, I would appreciate you forwarding them to me.

I would like to plan a review meeting for sometime this spring and would be happy to accomodate your schedule in any way that I can.

Sincerely,

Michael H. Shaffer,

Apreciable [REDACTED], que al recibir esta carta se encuentre gozando de caval sa-lud, ya que en Sacramento yo estoy vivien-
do una gran experiencia gracias a Dios.
Bueno paso a lo siguiente:

Escribirle lo que siento desde lo mas
profundo de mi corazón, es un placer para mí;
pues es una buena oportunidad para comuni-carle como me estoy viviendo en estos mo-mentos de cambio. No ha sido fácil el enfrentar esta realidad, pero creo que es mejor
vivir en la verdad ya que esto resulta ser lo mejor para ser feliz. Recordando que desde que se me habló del trabajo de los frailes franciscanos de Guaymas, son mis esperanzas
para llegar a ser un miembro mas de esta Provincia fueron gigantescas, y después de trabajar con ellos y contar con sus opiniones respecto de mi persona me di cuenta - que podía continuar mi camino con colades
en este país, pero reconozco que me faltó valor y coraje para decirte NO a ciertos co-pectos de mi persona, pero como dicen - mis padres de un conbado y virepo refreín

allí en mi México "no hay mejores conejos que los que el tiempo da."

Mi intención desde un principio al decir la verdad de lo vivido en National City no fue hacerle daño a nadie, yo solo quise explicar el porque de mi decisión de salir un tiempo de formación y regresar a mi México, pero Dios me tenía reservada una gran sorpresa, es decir toda la ayuda que ustedes me han proporcionado estas semanas y los meses y años pasados, no tengo con que pagarles todos los beneficios que he recibido.

Ahora comprendo mas los acontecimientos, me siento muy feliz y me encuentro mejor de salud, creo que este es buen momento para reflexionar sobre varios aspectos de mi vida y pienso que regresando a mi lugar de origen encontraré nuevas fuerzas para continuar mi camino, no he perdido la guerra sino solamente una batalla pues para conquistarse a si mismo son necesarias las derrotas y aunque lo que me sucedió fue algo doloroso y triste a la vez, hoy comienza como un nuevo nacimiento.

Esta nueva etapa de mi vida sin duda es un desafío muy grande, pero es mi deseo enfrentarlo para valorarme mas como persona e hijo de Dios y descubrir su volun-taid en mí. También deseo que su corazón sea confortado por la Gracia Divina y que todos los que hemos sido afectados por lo antes hecho salgamos adelante en nuestro peregrinar a la vida eterna.

Espero contar con sus oraciones que yo de mi parte donde quiera que me en-cuentre pediré a Dios nuestro Padre,
a la Virgen de Guadalupe, a San Francisco y Santa Clara, también al Padre Martín por usted y por toda la Provincia de Santa Bárbara.

Su hermano en Cristo: ASÍ SE A.

thank you for the notification. after time on the road I am more sure than ever I made the right choice. I miss ministry but there was no life for me as a friar. my last transgression made me realize how self destructive I had become. it feels good not having to think that all I am was what I did 20 years ago. I appreciate your kind words. I had hoped they might have come earlier. I spoke to [REDACTED] and he said it is an awkward time for everyone at those leavings. things get missed. I am now taking the trip I was refused a few years ago. it has been a good time to reflect and plan. I still don't know where I will settle but I trust God is leading me. peace. DAVID

Re: David Johnson

Dear [REDACTED]

Enclosed is a letter I received from Father Johnson authorizing my contact with your office. He is requesting that I send you a vitae, as well as, make known my intentions with respect to a willingness to provide periodic "progress reports." I am familiar with Father Johnson's situation and am willing to provide services to him. I have some concerns with respect to the types of progress reports that might be requested. However this would need to be discussed in more detail to determine if a problem, in fact, exists with respect to providing such reports.

Never the less, I will be awaiting your response and the opportunity to discuss your concerns with respect to Father Johnson and his ongoing treatment.

Sincerely,

Richard King, Ph.D.

Dear [REDACTED]

I hope this letter finds you well. I heard you just had surgery. I hope your recovery is going well.

I am writing because the Bishop of Anchorage, Archbishop Schwietz, has expressed a willingness to try and find a place for me to minister. This letter gives you written permission to speak with him and release any files about me he might request. He asked me to ask you to send him my file. Perhaps you might wish to speak with him just so you know what to send.

I know the friars were relieved when I left but I hope you could still give the Bishop of Anchorage a positive and encouraging word about me. I pray and hope for the best.

I hope this isn't too much of a bother. Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

David John
