Father Martin shall be missed

EDITOR:

In an age when TV evangelists get their faces on the cover of Time magazine, and when other clergy perform before their throngs from translucent "cathedrals," what a contrast to have known the late Father Martin of the San Luis Rey Mission.

There was something very real about him, the quality of his lifestyle and his practice of the Christian faith — nothing frothy or pious or postured.

I knew Father Martin as a likely embodiment of the founder of his order. Like St. Francis, he was in touch with his world, particularly where it was hurting, making himself available when and where needed, without need of fanfare or news releases.

His liberality of spirit made it possible for us to share our pulpits, to co-officiate at weddings, and to participate over the years in various public forums. Our town is a better place for Father Martin.

His Lord was well served. Those of us privileged to have known him have been enriched. I shall miss him.

Shadle's 'truce' wrong kind

EDITOR:

So Milo Shadle is proposing a truce. Proponents of redevelopment are truly becoming some of the most pathetic characters this community has ever produced.

Was it a truce when Mike Flick had the decision of the registrar of voters overturned by an obviously biased judge? Why not eliminate the position of registrar since he is now useless?

Thanks and praise to TCH

EDITOR:

In January I spent 22 days at Tri-City West fighting pneumonia. I have COPD (chronic obstructive pulmonary disease), so it was quite a struggle. I must give praise to all the nurses, respiratory therapists and other staff members. They were professional and compassionate and made my stay very comfortable as well as pleasant.

I must admit the decor and condition of the building leaves much to be desired, but that didn't interfere with my wonderful care.

Thank you again and thank you, Dr. Frank Corona, for being the great doctor that you are!

Agency gets bum rap

EDITOR:

Recently, Genuine Placement Agency referred a client to the city of Carlsbad for possible employment. Once at the city's personnel office, however, our client was informed by a city worker that our service was "fraudulent" and that we were not authorized to send prospective employees to the city for consideration.

We were shocked to learn about these misrepresentations by an employee of the city of Carlsbad. As a consequence of these unfounded allegations, Genuine Placement Agency's business reputation has been damaged.

Although we agreed to refund the fee paid by the client who was misinformed by a city employee, our concern is much larger than that. There is no telling what the fallout will be on our good business

'Pastor of the Year 2000' is dead at 60

By Neil Ball
Staff Writer

OCEANSIDE - The strain of leaving Old Mission San Luis Rey, where he was a novitiate, teacher and then parish priest for 17 years, may have been too much for the Rev. Father Martin McKeon, friends said yesterday.

Father Martin, 60, called "Pastor of the Year 2000" by his associates because of the innovations he brought to the mission built in 1778, was found dead yesterday in his parish center apartment.

He had been preparing to turn the parish duties over to a new priest, and he planned to take sabbatical leave prior to assuming a teaching position at a Franciscan order retreat in Malibu.

Another priest found Father Martin's body in the bathroom of his apartment after he failed to appear to officiate at the 11 a.m. Mass. He apparently died while getting a glass of water, possibly during the night. An autopsy was scheduled.

"A plum of a job, he called it," said Loretta Heiser, his secretary for 17 years. "Maybe he hated to leave, but he was not the type of person to show it. He was a great boss who left you alone when he knew you were doing your job. We'll all miss him very much."

The short, bespectacled and nearly bald priest reminded some people of Friar Tuck, but without the girth.

"He never turned anyone away hungry. He was a good man and he had his heart for the people, in following the tenets of St. Francis of Assisi, who founded our order," said his colleague Brother Leo.

"He came back here in 1969 when the area was starting to boom, and he made things happen. When I was here in 1958, there was nothing. We had missions to St. Mary's in Oceanside, to St. Francis in Vista and to San Marcos and Fallbrook. It has all grown."

Brother Leo said Father Martin opened the parish and its center to all faiths; began programs for senior citizens; pushed adult education;

sponsored blood-pressure clinics, a hot-lunch program and the SHARE program for the poor; and provided mission facilities for the Women's Resource Center, which aids abused wives and children.

Joe McKnight, director of education at the mission, said the little man with the big heart had many pressures other people didn't see.

"If you get fooled by 99 out of 100 people you serve, and you help one person in need, do it," was Father Martin's motto, McKnight said.

"He had pressure of paying off the (mission renovation and other debts), and change is hard for all of us," he said.

Hundreds pay respects to memory of McKeon

By Ernesto Portillo, Staff Writer

OCEANSIDE — The Rev. Martin J. McKeon, the Franciscan pastor at Mission San Luis Rey for the past 17 years, was eulogized yesterday for his generosity and tireless work in the community.

"He was a friend to everybody," said the Rev. [redacted] in the eulogy. "He was good companionship. He was great fun."

[redacted] the head of the Franciscan order for the Western states, joined Bishop Leo T. Maher of San Diego, 100 priests and friars, and more than 900 friends and family in paying their respects to McKeon, who died last Wednesday at the age of 60.

"It seemed like a bolt out of the blue that this vital force was stopped in motion," [redacted] said.

Under an overcast sky, the funeral Mass was said on a grassy plain at the mission to accommodate the mourners. As the crowd grew before the services, the light-blue-robed parish choir sang several hymns, including "Ave Maria," "Let There Be Peace on Earth," and "Prayer of St. Francis."

A Knights of Columbus honor guard preceded the clergy and the casket from the mission to an altar, set under a large shade tree. Only the sounds of chirping birds and whizzing cars on Mission Avenue pierced the silence.

Known to many as "Father Marty," McKeon was instrumental in transforming the former San Luis Rey Academy, an all-girls school, into a center for religious and social service organizations in the late 1970s.

The parish center now helps battered women, abused children, senior citizens, migrant farm workers and the Spanish-speaking.

"He anticipated demands, he created demands," Vitale said.

McKeon's efforts, however, were not met with total enthusiasm in the parish. Vitale said there were some who wanted McKeon to build a new and larger church.

"But Father Marty saw a need for human services," Vitale said.

McKeon, a native of Los Angeles, entered the Franciscans in 1945. This year would have been his 40th as a Franciscan and 34th as a priest. Shortly before his death, he was scheduled to take a sabbatical to direct a retreat center in Malibu.

He first taught in a Franciscan seminary and later became the order's first full-time vocations director. Many joined the order because of McKeon's encouragement, Vitale said.

In 1969, McKeon became pastor of a then-small parish at the historic mission here. Under his guidance and leadership the parish grew from 500 families to 1,500 families, Vitale said.

Joseph McKnight, director of religious education at the mission, said McKeon "did a lot of things (for his parish) that people will never know about."

Remains were interred in the Friars Crypt at the mission cemetery.

St. Anthony's Seminary
Santa Barbara, California

Dear Father:

We are proud and happy to recommend to you John McKeon, who plans on entering your Seminary this summer.

John's record at our school is a series of successful years marked by serious study, whole-hearted cooperation and loyalty, and a happy comradeship. His position was rather unique in that he has been a universal favorite throughout the school with students and teachers. His pals tender him the highest respect and at the same time consider him "great fun".

His conduct and sense of responsibility have been at all times above repute, and in the sanctuary he has always been an edification to young and old.

We regret to see him leave us but in this instance our loss is your gain.

Prayfully we commend this lad to your keeping and your training, and we feel that when you know him, he will be a joy there as he has been here.

Sincerely in Christ,

Pastor

and funded, though still housed at the mission.

A woman who is a victim of domestic violence can't take one step toward a safer future until she has a sanctuary for herself and children. The Woman's Resource Center is such a refuge. It guarantees abused victims safe (and secret) housing for 30 days. Visitors assist in cooking and housekeeping, while counselors at the Mission office help them search for jobs, find permanent housing, obtain legal advice or apply for public assistance if they are eligible. In other words, they will be presented with viable alternatives to a life of abuse.

In 1983 the Women's Resource Center received 3,150 requests for assistance and also assisted in 171 rape cases.

Item, an interesting edict of which you may have no previous inkling: A percentage of every fee paid for a marriage license in this state goes to support agencies that assist battered women.

That informational tid-bit comes from Sharon Newcomb, the capable coordinator of community services and education for the Resource Center. Newcomb, by the way, is a volunteer, one of 85 volunteers who are trained quarterly in special classes at the Center.

The Center is funded by various community agencies, including United Way. Newcomb says that several fund-raising events are held during the year; she responds to many requests to speak to local organizagroups, and parenting classes. Although it is supported in part by state and county agencies, funding is tight. The directors insist they could not function without the help from individuals and private groups and compassionate cities. And they are grateful for the Mission and Father Martin.

"He makes this facility available to us," Richardson says. And he insists that all 'in-house' agencies must work together."

Haworth-Adams adds: "His commitment to this program is just . . . nothing wavers. He says these kids must have a place to come for help."

Casa is always "desperate" for volunteers. The 24-hour hotline number is 757-1200.

"Pain and Possibility" is the title of another of the classes the McKnights teach at the Mission, for people learning to cope with stress.

That title in a different context might be applied to Father Martin. The "Possibility" is eagerly attempted; the "Pain" is tolling through a bureaucratic cocoon with an expanded staff, a bulging budget and nagging statistics which can't be ignored. Programs relating to human needs cost money; like everyone else, the parish must pay the mortgage.

"I would have to say that our greatest problems now are financial," Father Martin admits. "In the past our principal source of support was bingo. We are now receiving hurtful competition from the Indian reservations, which can offer Las Vegas-type stakes since they are not restricted by state legislation. So we are always on the lookout for ways to increase our income."

"But the possibilities of enriching the lives of people in our community through our classes, or easing their burdens, are just too tremendous to put on hold."

Martin is a natural optimist even, he says, about the fate of the earth.

"Of course I'm concerned about the arms race, but I think nations will of necessity work through their discords to preserve the earth. Of course I do believe in the providence of God. Our charge is to affect the fate of the earth."

"We always have to struggle against our own weaknesses, but even when there seems to be much moral bewilderment in our society, I do think it's possible to change people's attitudes. Look how long we've been laboring against racism, and we have made progress."

Father Martin's formula for kindling cooperation among groups of parishoners with differing opinions is just to listen, which he believes is a rarely cultivated technique and a prelude to persuasion.

"I think to listen — really listen — is disarming to one's critics. I don't force my ideas on people. If you disagree on an issue, being belligerent makes the division greater."

When Father Martin was asked to name the one person who had been his greatest life inspiration, who had formed his values, his reply:

"Well, that's not hard to answer. St. Francis of Assisi. He was a man who lived by his creed, his gospel. And it was a social gospel. That's why I became a Franciscan."

"How could I aspire any higher than that?"

Mission pastor dies

Father Martin J. McKeon, O.F.M., 60, pastor of Mission San Luis Rey, died suddenly at his home Feb. 26.

Father McKeon was born on Dec. 2, 1925, in Los Angeles. He entered the Franciscan Order on June 11, 1945, and was ordained to the priesthood on June 8, 1952, at Santa Barbara Mission.

During his priestly ministry, Father McKeon taught at the Franciscan Minor Seminary at Santa Barbara and the College Seminary in San Luis Rey. He also served as vocation director for the western province of the Franciscans. For the past 17 years he was pastor of Mission San Luis Rey.

Because of his innovative programs at the Mission, Father McKeon has been referred to as the "Pastor of the Year 2000." He was responsible for opening the parish center and its activities to people of all faiths. He organized programs for senior citizens and sponsored hot-lunch programs, providing food for the needy. Space also was provided for the Women's Resource Center, which helps abused wives and children.

Bishop Leo Maher concelebrated the Mass of Christian Burial for Father McKeon March 4 at Mission San Luis Rey. Interment was in the Friars' Vault in the Mission Cemetery adjoining the church.

MARTIN JOHN MC KEON, O.F.M. 1925 - 1986

The Definitorium met in San Luis Rey the last week in January. During that time I had a good talk with Marty about his proposed change. He had been talking for some time about making a change and reminded us that he had been pastor for 17 years. In his usual spirit of generosity he was willing to move to any assignment, but felt it was only fair to his successor to wait until the development drive was well under way. We did not spend a lot of time discussing a future placement. We noted he had been in the saddle a long time and encouraged a sabbatical. He reacted to this with almost childlike delight. He said he had not even thought of such an opportunity. The weeks following were ones of disengaging, while preparing for a new future. Still we know it was hard for him to break away from so many people he loved and a place so familiar. Perhaps he had a premonition that he would indeed terminate his pastorate there, but would not leave San Luis Rey. With some irony a few days before a parish farewell celebration, and just hours after attending a dinner in his honor including the mayor of the city, he died suddenly and very unexpectedly. No one recalls any ailments nor his complaints of unusual pains. The autopsy said: "hardening of the arteries." The heart stopped. A crowd of 1,000, including over 100 priests, gathered on the lawn in front of the parish center-- a vibrant symbol of his pastorate--for the Mass of the Resurrection on March 4. Bishop Maher of San Diego celebrated the Mass. The night before the Hispanic community celebrated the Rosary, complete with mariachis. Following the Mass Martin was buried in the crypt beside the mission. A bountiful lunch followed. There was shock and sadness among the family, friars, friends, and parishoners, but a loving memory was shared in a spirit of joy and celebration so typical of Marty.

Marty Mc Keon's life as a friar could be divided into two periods which split his 34 years as a friar-priest. The first half was spent in what we called "internal ministry" or sometimes referred to as "fraternal ministry." After his ordination he was sent to teach at St. Anthony's Seminary. It is said that young friars with abundant energy and unrestrained enthusiasm were sent across the street to the seminary. Marty had that exuberance and lasted at the seminary for 11 years. Perhaps he made his mark of fame when he succeeded Father Martial as prefect of discipline. However, he is perhaps best known for his work in recruiting vocations. While at the seminary he would head off, with other friars from the staff, and "blitz" the schools in Los Angeles and other dioceses and recruit for the seminary. The response was overwhelming and the seminary student body grew to over 200. Marty's vocation work was so successful that the

To Whom It May Concern:

John Francis McKeon was born in St. Vincent's Maternity Home, Los Angeles, California. He was born illegitimate of Gertrude Hartney, and given the name of George Hartney. The father's name is unknown. He was taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKeon when he was six weeks old, and later was legally adopted by them. Mr. and Mrs. McKeon are good practical Catholics, and raised the child as such from infancy.

According to the Baptismal Record of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Hollywood, California, the child was born December 3, 1925 and baptized December 12, 1925. The father's name is not registered there.

VII. Judgement of Guardian, Master, and Discretes (for novices)
Guardian, Master, and Faculty (for students)

The Guardian and discretes regard Fr. Martin as a very serious-minded Frater who has made a good showing. The Magister would add that that he considers him a cleric of (what is commonly called) interior power. He is capable of great enthusiasm, would be capable of a very great love of God. He is the sort of a person who will have to have quite a number of soul struggles and battles; he needs them to grow bigger. He should be urged on to great heights because the half and half is not in his nature. But the going will not always be easy for him.

Dear Fr. Provincial:

I am

asking for a favor, Mr
McKeon and I are wondering if there is a possible chance of changing Jack's name from Fr. Cuthbert to Martin or donard if one is available.

We never have cared for the name of Cuthbert.

Jack knows nothing of this,
and we wanted to be sure that he was going to stay in before we asked for a change of name.

We would appreciate it if this could be taken care of before June 10th when
Jack makes his profession.
Assuming that you will do what you can about this matter.

Guardian, Master, and Faculty (for students)

The Guardian and discretes regard Fr. Martin as a very serious-minded Frater who has made a good showing. The Magister would add that he considers him a cleric of (what is commonly called) interior power. He is capable of great enthusiasm, would be capable of a very great love of God. He is the sort of a person who will have to have quite a number of soul struggles and battles; he needs them to grow bigger. He should be urged on to greater heights because the half and half is not in his nature. But the going will not always be easy for him.

Dear Father Provincial,

May I please have your permission to take my vacation in Long Beach following summer school? Father Herbert has given me his approval for making this request. The reason I am asking now is that my pastor has asked me to help out in the parish the first two weeks in August, so I am anxious to send him a reply.

This is my first stay in the Bay region. I really like it up here. St. Boniface is a wonderful place to stay - real Franciscan hospitality.

Many thanks for your attention to this matter, Father. Perhaps I will have an opportunity to see you before returning south, though I understand St. Elizabeth's is just a mailing address for you.

May God continue to bless your work....and I hope you say a prayer that God will bless a few of mine.

Dear Father Provincial,

Thank you for your letter about the Junior Clergy Examinations. On several occasions I had planned to get them in, but procrastinator that I am, I deferred the zero hour and preferred a little more review.

With an easier semester ahead of me, I have had more time for review since Christmas and have planned to begin the examinations towards the end of this month.

I realize that the friars in parish work probably have less time than I have for preparation for examinations -so I can offer no excuse. But the proximity of the Mission encourages my procrastination.

I shall see Father Silvano about the arrangements immediately.

I hope you enjoy your trip to the Far East, and I pray that your mission be successful.

Sincerely in St. Francis,

Dear Father Martin:

I have received from the Fathers charged with the taking of the Minor Clergy Examinations a list of those who made the Examinations for 1954. On this list I notice that your name is missing.

It will therefore be necessary that you make arrangements immediately to take the Examinations before Easter. Kindly get in touch with Father Silvano who is the chairman of the committee to receive the examinations and make some suitable arrangement with him.

Since you are now in the midst of a school year it might be best to plan to take an examination in one branch a week.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

July 22, 1957

Dear Father Terence,

With the thermometer breaking a hundred, just writing to California cools me off.

I have an opportunity to go to Boston for a few days at the end of summer school (August ninth). This is my first time in the East, and I would like to see what I can. Father Herbert had suggested that I ask to go to New York before my return, and then this chance for a trip to Boston, which would include a couple of days in New York, presented itself. There would be no extra expense involved, and the time taken would be my vacation. Naturally I would absorb the culture of the American Romanticists for my literature course, and should pick up a few pointers on batting from Ted Williams -- just for greater prestige.

I have already written Father Herbert about my asking your permission and for his approval regarding the time of my vacation.

All the Californians are well and hot. We are awaiting the outcome of the Holy Name Provincial chapter, for it is rumored that one of us may be appointed guardian of the college--there are enough of us here.

Thanks, Father, for your kind attention and the opportunity I have had to study dramatics here. I'll be thinking of the province in my prayers--and each time I look at the thermometer.

Sincerely yours in St. Francis.

Dear Father Provincial,

With my arrival at Catholic University opening July 2, I will not be able to be on vacation after the summer session because of our early opening of the seminary in August. Father Levey suggested that I take a week off before going to Washington and a week after my return. This will give me enough time to help get things in order before the return of the seminarians.

Therefore I would like your permission to visit my parents in Long Beach for a week before going to Washington and to return to Long Beach for a week after summer school. With your permission I will stay at St. Bartholomew's rectory.

With grateful wishes for great success in your new office, I am

Sincerely yours in St. Francis,

Dear Father Martin:

Since, as you mention in your letter, it is completely impossible for you to take the two weeks of your vacation together, it will be all right for you to split them up in the manner mentioned.

Thanks, Father, for the permission. Wish you could permit a little cool weather for that part of the country, too.

October 17, 1957

Dear Father Provincial,

Realizing that we need more contact with boys who have shown interest in our seminary--particularly the boys who came in contact with us in the Los Angeles area during vocation talks--I asked Father Rector if we could form a society or club for these fellows. Besides the Intonian, the fellows would receive a monthly card and a monthly letter from the seminary. They would also be encouraged to say a certain prayer for their vocation. But I feel that such a society would give the boys the sense of belonging to the Franciscans and would give us a closer contact. Through periodic letters, etc. we can determine when a boy loses interest.

If this plan meets with your approval and doesn't interfere with any other project of the men working for vocations, I would like to get started on this within the next two weeks. This will give us a jump on the vocation work that is so prominent in all the schools during March.

Many thanks, Father, for your kind attention. I hope this plan can be of some help to the vocational work of the Province.

In Christ, D. Martin

Dear Father Provincial,

With your permission I would like to take my vacation the middle of next week, July 22 or 23. Father Rector believes this to be the best time. My plans are to spend my vacation in Long Beach. I will be in residence at St. Bartholomew's rectory. There is a slight chance of my taking my mother to Fresno and San Jose to visit my sister and relatives. I would like to have your permission if this opportunity arises.

As you can see, I haven't given much thought to my vacation plans. I will probably end up staying at home and listening to my father give the solutions to the Middle East problems. But I wanted to include the possibility of a trip in case the opportunity arises.

With prayerful wishes for God's continual blessings upon your work, I am

Dear Father Martin:

I have received the report from the Chairman for the Junior Exams for 1958 and I see from the report that it was not possible for you to make any of these exams during that year.

I know that you are very busy and that you have a great many things with which you are continually occupied and I also realize that these are very important. However, I cannot dispense from the exams and we will have to devise some manner of means of supplying for them.

I would suggest that as soon as possible, you go over to see Father Stanislaus, who is the new Chairman of the Board, and make some arrangement with him.

Dear Father Martin;

No doubt you have received your obedience before this, and you know that I want you to remain where you are until after the two boys retreats. Assoon as you conveniently can, following these retreats, I would like you to come on to Oakland.

Your position at the Seminary was very important and you filled it well for many years. Your ^{new} position is also very important and we have confidence that you will do an outstanding job with it. You will have the distinction of being the first one to have this position exclusively. From all the discussions we have had in and out of the Province during these past years, you know that vocation promotion takes zeal and ability. Your background with the Seminarians should be invaluable in your future activities.

Again thanks for your work at the Seminary and welcome to St. Elisabeths.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McKeon:

Through Father Martin I have learned of your very generous donation to help us in paying for the new car that Fr. Martin uses in his work. You have the thanks of all of us for this thoughtful kindness. And our gratitude will especially be shown in the remembrance we make of you and your intentions in our prayers.

I am sure that you know how busy Fr. Martin is in his work as Provincial Promoter. This assignment is very demanding. To work effectively in locating applicants for the priesthood and brotherhood, to screen them properly, to give those who apply the right kind of direction, takes time, unselfish dedication and wisdom. Fortunately for the Province, Fr. Martin has all the qualities needed to make him successful in this all important position. And the fact that he has now a reliable car to take him to the various places of activity is a blessing which he appreciates very much.

Thanking you first for giving us Fr. Martin and then for all your other generous acts, I remain

Dear Father Martin:

In the list of appointments that just came out we neglected to mention one that affects you and your work.

Fr. Barry Brunzman will remain an Assistant at St. Boniface but he will also be an Assistant Provincial Vocation Promoter. This means that he will be available on occasion for Vocation work in the Northern California area, working under you.

The details of this arrangement will be settled later.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Fr. Terence Cronin, O.F.M.

Dear Father Martin:

I wish to send you my sympathy and that of the Province on the occasion of the loss of your Dad. Even though you knew his death was expected, his actual going is a sad ~~event~~ for you and the family.

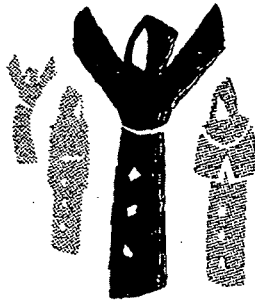

It is a great consolation for you to know that he was a man of faith, and that he was ready for eternity when God called him. He is in God's good hands now.

Please tell your Mother and the rest of the family that I shall offer Mass for him to-morrow, and remember him in other prayers.

An important appointment up this way keeps me from being at the funeral mass. Fr. Cornelius will represent all of us in the Provincial Office.

Sincerely in Christ,

Dear Father Terence,

I wasn't sure whether or not I had mentioned that the Franciscan Vocation Directors' Meeting in Calgary begins tomorrow. I have a paper to deliver and Bro. Bede is on the Brothers' panel, and I know you want us both there.

I thought I would be talking to you about this, but didn't realize you were going away for a few days.

We shall return around July 16 or 17.

Sincerely,

Fr. Martin

Dear Father Martin:

Congratulations on your appointment as pastor of San Luis Rey Parish. We were happy that you would be willing to take on this appointment, -and we are surely confident that you will be able to do a great job in this. The Definitorium wanted to give you good help for this work, -and we planned to send Father Michael Dallmeier and also leave Fr. Robert Crittenden there. It seems that Robert has not been coming along well, -and is now in the hospital in Los Angeles.

Would you want him back with you, or do you think we should try to get some other position for him -at least after he completes his work for library science?

With your new position as pastor you will not be in need of the Vocation car there, and so I would appreciate it if you could have Fr. Ernan drive it back up here, -possibly using it to bring some of his things when he comes along. But, even though you will be busy with your new duties, we would like to be able to call upon you for help in the vocation work especially for Southern California. The Province has reason to be truly grateful to you for the tremendous task you performed as vocation director, and I hope that the dramatic changes in the whole vocation picture these last few years have not been too disheartening to you.

With every best wish and regards to the friars,

May 7, 1969

Dear Father Provincial:

Many thanks for your letter concerning my appointment to San Luis Rey Parish. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve in pastoral work. I really think I needed a little of the satisfaction that comes from working with people in a positive manner and experiencing more positive results. I appreciated and enjoyed my work in the vocation office, but as much as I wanted to be involved with change in vocation approach, I was also disheartened by the results. The more I thought of change, the more I was convinced that the whole structure of recruitment traditionally accepted was completely wrong. Until I could face this reality, there would be more ulcers. But I am still greatly interested in the vocation picture and hope that my present duties will not make me lose interest nor narrow my views -views that came from the broad experience and opportunities offered me these past five years. For this reason I will enjoy helping you in vocation work in Southern California whenever you want me to.

Regarding Father Robert Crittenden, I have had a difficult time reaching a decision. I have just received a letter from him telling me how much he wants to be here. However, I really wonder if he knows what he wants. Having seen him and listened to him these past few months, I am quite sure that after he is working with me for awhile some of the old problems will be back. For this reason I have reached the following conclusions for his own good.

- 1) Since he plans to get his degree in library science this summer, I suggest that he be in residence in the Los Angeles area for "higher studies." This will be his assignment and will give him independence. Moreover, he will be forced into directing all of his attention to obtaining the degree without any concern or involvement with San Luis Rey. It will also lend prestige to his position as a student.

OLD MISSION

FRANCISCAN FATHERS

SAN LUIS REY, CALIFORNIA 92068

Telephone (714) 757-3651

- 2) I wouldn't make any decision for an assignment until after he has completed his studies. By that time he himself may have some definite ideas regarding his future, for his degree will give him some support and confidence, and his independence as a student may help him become a little more secure.

Therefore I believe he should be reassigned to the Los Angeles area as a full-time student in "higher studies." He should have no connection with San Luis Rey. In view of what develops during the summer, a decision for the coming year's assignment can be reached at the end of the summer. ...On the other hand if at the end of the summer (and he shouldn't know this), if he feels he must return to San Luis Rey, I will be glad to have him. For I am sure that I will be able to get along with him, and I am certainly willing to help him in anyway possible. (I just feel that I'm not really helping him if he did not first have this opportunity to get out from under the security blanket of San Luis Rey and have the independence of a student and face the question of decision at the end of summer.)

I realize that Robert's case is a difficult one, and I am willing to do anything to help.

Again, many thanks for your kind letter. Hang in there loose!

With prayers for you and the Province, I am

Fraternally yours,

Fr. Martin McKeon, O.F.M.

Dear Father Provincial,

Brother John O'Brien came in to see me this week about his leaving. He will leave here August 13.

I already have some people looking for a cook, and I am quite sure that we will be able to manage. If we can get a woman to cook dinner and prepare some food for the lunch of the following day, we will be all right. I think we will also look for individuals who will take care of the institutional cooking when we have these various groups in for weekends. I believe some of the Marine chefs would be interested in some moonlighting. At the present time I am not worried about the situation. When we have everything taken care of, Fr. Valentine or myself will write to you.

Many thanks for your concern and my best regards to Fr. Martial and the other friars.

Dear Father Martin,

Many thanks for your letter of May 7th. I certainly am glad to know that you are happy in your new appointment, and am grateful that you will be able to give us a hand with the vacation work.

I will certainly follow your suggestions regarding Father Robert Crittenben. In fact, I have already written to him along the lines that you suggest. I think it is best if he takes the course this summer, leaving things rather open-ended, and then as we go along we can see what is going to be best for him. I know he has been under a tremendous pressure, perhaps partly caused by the work and partly by his cardiovascular condition. I will be in touch with you as time goes along, especially regarding this point.

With ever, best wish, I am

Dear Father Martin,

Just calling to let you know that I heard from Bro. John O'Brien who is asking for a year's leave of absence. I know this has been a very difficult one for him, and have asked him to talk over with you the plan to give even the kitchen there in his absence. Actually, we do not have a man to send at this time, and I hope that it will be possible for you to work out some plan whereby a lay person could do the cooking after Brother John leaves. Please let me know what his possibilities are for this.

With every best wish, and greetings to the family, I am

Dear Father Martin,

Many thanks for your letter of November 20th together with the enclosures regarding the seventeen series. I am certainly interested in this proposal, and I hope that you will follow it up. I'll be waiting to hear from you on anything that is finalized. The parish is surely growing, and no doubt the mission church is really small for the crowds you are getting on Sundays. But on the other hand it seems really difficult to plan on any building these days.

Dear Father Martin,

At the recent meeting of the Definitorium it was decided to assign Fr. James Furlong to San Luis Rey there as an assistant to yourself. Fr. James has been doing very well since he returned to Stockton and I feel would enjoy being kept very busy. The members of the definitorium were quite concerned that I write to you and ask you to give very definite assignments to Fr. James and also to arrange to have regular reviews of the work of the parish with him. I think he needs this very much and would really appreciate this. I know it is a little difficult to inaugurate these meetings weekly but am sure that they would be of tremendous value to yourself and to Fr. James.

Dear Father Provincial:

Many thanks for your assignment of Fr. James Furlong to our parish as my associate. I will follow the directives of the definitorium with regard to drawing up definite assignments for him and also having frequent meetings with him regarding the parish.

I presume that Fr. Rupert remains as a full-time associate. I really don't believe that a full-time Third Order Director is needed in this area. Certainly having three men in the parish will allow him the time necessary for the Third Order, but at the same time will give him some roots with the people in the area. In other words, I wouldn't want to lose him as far as the parish is concerned.

Again many thanks.

Many thanks for your letter of April 14th. I am glad that Fr. James is able to come there to San Luis Rey and feel that he will be a real asset to you in your work. Also, I would certainly want Fr. Rupert to remain a full-time associate. I think it is important that he get as involved as possible with the parish and keep this up. I think, of course, it is good for him to have other outlets also, but surely the parish does need him and I think it is very good for him to be associated in that way.

Dear Father Provincial:

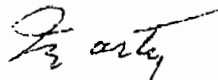

On July 5, 1970 Michael Ainsa renewed his simple vows before me. Brother Christian Rogan and Brother Martin Soto were witnesses. The vows were renewed for one year.

However, one real problem came up. Mike had spoken to me a few days before about renewing vows and said he would talk to me again about it before the time of renewal. Then on the fifth of July he came in to see me, and I discovered that his vows expired the previous midnight, for he made his vows originally on July 4th. Recalling that the vows must be renewed at least by the anniversary of original profession, I still went ahead with the renewal. Mike didn't realize that he should have made them on the fourth. I told him about this, and that I would write to you to see about validity, etc. That's where we stand. As we used to say, "Quid faciendum?"

I might also add that Mike didn't want the other members of the community to know that he is in vows. He said that he has kept it quiet -even from his family- and wishes to continue not having the fact known. I respected his wishes and felt this was a matter that he has discussed with you.

Hoping that you can come up with one of your canonical solutions to our little problem, I am

Dear Father Provincial:

I have been asked by the senior chaplain at Camp Pendleton to become an auxiliary chaplain for the base. This will facilitate the manner in which they give the stipend to the house for any services we render. Moreover since I handle so many cases involving the military, I will have the advantage of having jurisdiction and faculties from the military ordinariate besides those of the diocese.

Assuming this position places me under no obligations. It does not mean that if they call upon the Mission for Sunday help and we can provide it, that I am the one who goes; for this would never work as far as my parochial duties are concerned. I am able to delegate anyone for any particular service.

I have worked closely with the chaplains for the past year. The makeup of the parish demands this.

I have already filled out my forms for this position, and now the military ordinariate would appreciate a letter of recommendation from you. Would you please send it to Rev. Msgr. Joseph F. Marbach, P.A., J.C.D.

'Family' Pastor Celebrates 25 Years In Priesthood

BY BARBARA BRILL SPENCER
Staff Writer

OCEANSIDE — It's one big happy family. Everyone pitches in to help, everyone has fun. And everyone prays together.

The big happy family is the congregation at Old Mission San Luis Rey, and the head of the household is Father Martin McKeon, pastor. Father Martin, as he's called by all the parishioners, recently celebrated his 25th anniversary as a priest. And his "family" all turned out to honor him.

The Rev. Leo T. Maher, bishop of the Diocese of San Diego, was the principle con-celebrant at Father Martin's jubilee mass. A reception followed in the mission gardens and that evening almost 500 members of the parish, clergy and friends honored Father Martin with a dinner dance held at the Staff NCO Club, Camp Pendleton.

Father Martin, who was raised in Long Beach, was ordained in 1952 at Mission Santa Barbara after attending San Luis Rey Seminary College.

Assigned to St. Anthony's Seminary as a professor of Latin and English, Father Martin did graduate studies in English, drama and pastoral psychology at the University of San Francisco, University of Notre Dame and Catholic University during the summers. In 1964 he became director of vocations for the Western Province of Franciscans. He returned to teaching in 1968 as a professor of Scripture and English at San Luis Rey Seminary College, but when the college was closed in May, 1969, he was appointed pastor of the Mission San Luis Rey parish.

During his eight years at the mission, Father Martin has watched his congregation grow from 550 families to almost 1,000. He's helped guide and direct many programs within his parish and his community.

Several years ago the parish established The Center For Human Enrichment, a counseling center which last year alone served more than 700 individuals in the community.

A youth center, open five days a week after school, was opened for youngsters of the entire community to enjoy arts, crafts and athletics after school. Special vacation programs include field trips, swimming and preschool activities. A parish Montessori School was also established last year.

A major addition to the church itself was the installation of a new Von Beckarath pipe organ that was custom made in Germany. Only four other organs of this type are in the United States, and they are annually inspected and maintained by a special team from Germany, Father Martin explained.

Right now, Father Martin is busy working on the mission's annual fiesta July 16 and 17, and since the parish will be taking over the 12-acre academy grounds and facilities in September, "We'll be busy," said Father Martin. The academy will be made into the parish center. "We'll be starting a senior citizen program there and will be moving many of the other facilities to the complex, including the offices and St. Vincent dePaul Society.

In between all the parish activities, Father Martin finds time to be concerned about the people in his community. He was a member of the City of Oceanside Human Relations Commission for six years, serving as chairman from 1973 to 1975. For the past five years he has been on the board of directors of the Oceanside-Carlsbad Family Service Association and was the director of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food Commodity Program in North County from 1971 to 1976.

In October Father Martin will be taking a break from it all. He plans to leave for Europe with some neighboring priests to travel through the Holy Land.

"It will be my first and probably my last trip to the Holy Land," said Father Martin, explaining that priests only take the trip for their 25th anniversary - or for special studies.

There's no doubt about it though. His "family" thinks he deserves the vacation.

Dear [REDACTED]

In response to your invitation to participate in the Friars Institute in Santa Barbara, I now feel that to be absent from the parish at this time of the year is impossible. I was hoping that I could arrange it, but these next two months are probably the most important in the year. We will be arranging parish boards for the coming year, making evaluations of various programs, recruiting new teachers for the education program in the fall. Moreover I have made commitments both in parish activities and civic programs which need to be fulfilled.

Therefore I would rather participate in such an institute during the fall months. Moreover, I also feel that such dates for an institute should be given to us far in advance to facilitate scheduling on our part. With a small staff it is difficult to rearrange dates and events on a rather short notice.

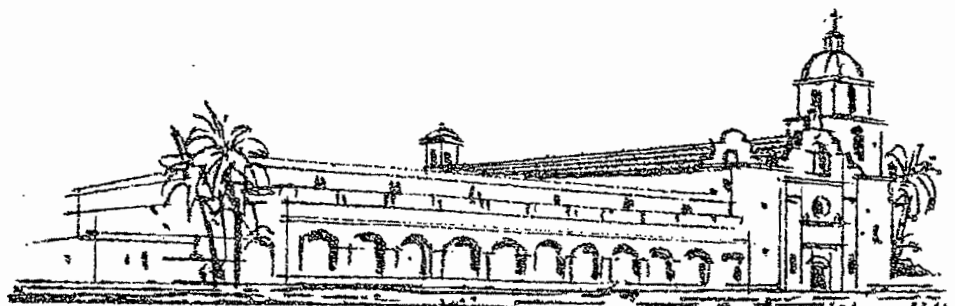

Thanking you for the invitation and with regret that I cannot make it at this time, I am

Greetings! Your letter arrived this morning. I can surely see that you have plenty to keep you occupied during the next months, and am really sorry you can't be with us in Santa Barbara. I know there will be many details for the installation of the organ, -and also that your ordinary work keeps you on the move.

You are surely to be congratulated on the imagination and drive you have shown in the matter of C.C.D. That is the best program I have seen worked out in any of our parishes. And I surely hope it will be the means of getting the real values of the Kingdom across. The school bus will certainly please a good number of the people.

Dear Father Provincial,

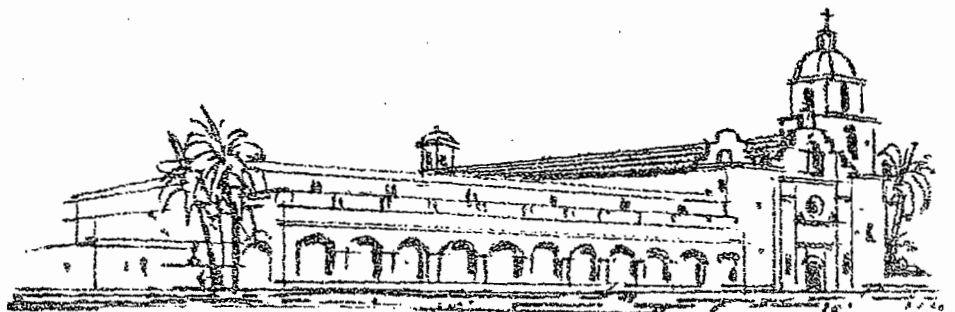

I am not going to be able to participate in the Institute at Santa Barbara next week. I had hoped that the organ would be finished by Easter, but there is going to be another four weeks of work to be done -painting, voicing, etc. Since I have to make the decisions and give the final approval on each step, I will have to stay here.

My prayerful wishes for a very Happy Easter.

Dear [REDACTED]

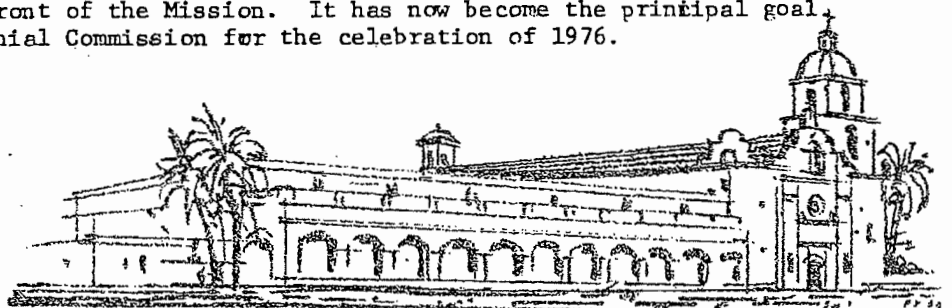

I apologize for my delay in answering your invitation to the Institute. I first had to learn my involvement in the Diocesan Synod which opens in October. Through October and November into the first week of December I am to lead the Speak-Up Sessions for the parish. I am already about four weeks behind in the organizational process. So I see no possibility of getting away this Fall.

I would have especially enjoyed this session of the Institute - particularly having Fr. David there. I will leave open my schedule to make the next session in the Spring. In view of this I would also like to suggest getting a replacement for me during the Institute. Frankly, Fr. Rupert would not be able to handle the parish by himself - the pressure will be a little too much, and it would lead to a series of kidney stones. Fr. Ralph wouldn't be able to give enough time - would be a help just when it comes to Masses (in speaking to me about going to this session he felt this could be about the most he could do, for he doesn't feel he should get into marriage cases, counseling, etc.)

I have taken another former priest on the parish staff. I am not bringing it up in the Chancery for awhile because I want this new parish program to get off the ground first. His name is Joseph Dillon and is a very close friend of Archbishop John Quinn, now of Oklahoma. I think I have found another real great person in this man - well qualified and very dedicated. I am enclosing some information on this new program. So far the response and cooperation from all the agencies and other churches in the area have been great. I have taken all the precautions necessary for such a venture (malpractice insurance, etc.) Right now we are forming a Board of Directors made up of principally professional people.

As far as other programs are concerned, we have been pretty successful. The Parish Food Commodity Program is serving over two thousand families a month now from our store downtown. We were recently told that we have the best in the county. In fact the County Board of Supervisors recently upped our annual operating budget to $17,000.....The new organ is finished. On October 14 we are having the Dedication Concert by one of the country's most renowned organists. The Bishop also wants a Dedication Mass in the latter part of November.....Things are beginning to jell as far as the park in front of the Mission. It has now become the principal goal of the city's Bi-Centennial Commission for the celebration of 1976.

You have probably already heard that Mr. Emerich Piebel, the artist who for the last twelve years has been responsible for the painting of the Mission, died two weeks ago. His work will be missed -but most of all, he as a person will be missed, for he was one of the most inspirational individuals I have ever met.

Again, thanks for the invitation, Father. I'm not trying to dodge it, but I would rather plan ahead for the Spring Session. Then I'll be free of the present responsibilities.

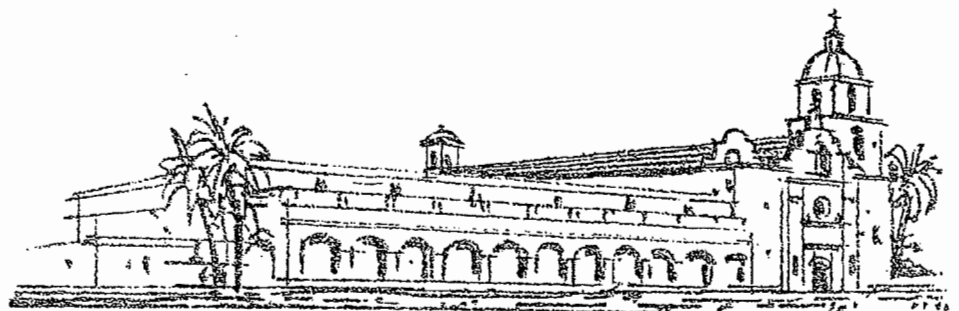

My best to the other friars, particularly to Fr. Martial.

Dear Father Martin:

Many thanks for your letter of Sept. 30th which arrived this morning. I certainly understand how difficult it would be for you to get away at this time. You have a really bush operation there. And I am very glad you were able to get Joseph Dillon on the staff. I had seen the folder on Human Enrichment program. It looks great. And I can see that you are really having an impact on the entire community with the Food Commodity Program, and now the organ which will surely be outstanding in the entire area.

I am glad to know the plans for the park in front are coming along. That will be a great boon for the city as well as for the mission.

I know you were all saddened by the death of Emmerich Piebel. He had contributed a great deal to the life of the community when he was there. And the mission will be much richer because of his contribution. Good that Val, Pat and Ben could come. All best wishes. Fraternally,

Dear Father Martin,

Greetings! Just a line to let you know that our next renewal institute for priests is scheduled for the Monday after Easter, March 31st. It will begin at 7:30 on that evening and continue until May 30th. We would be very happy to have you with us this time. A good number of the friars have gone through the institute, and we feel that it has been very helpful to them individually and to the whole province. Would you see if you could arrange your schedule so as to be with us from March 31 until May 30 at Old Mission Santa Barbara. In the latest institute we had a number of priests from other religious communities, as well as from two dioceses of the west, and the results were really very satisfactory. Please let us know at your earliest convenience if you will be able to attend.

With every best wish and greetings to the friars, I am

Fraternally in St. Francis,

OMNIBUS HAS LITTERAS VISURIS, SALUTEM IN DOMINO!

Virtute praesentium facultas fit R.P. Martino McKEON, almae nostrae Provinciae minoriticae S. Barbara in California alumno, iter peragendi in Urbem romanam in Terram Sanctam, occasione 25th anniversarii ordinationis sacerdotalis.

Amicos rogantur omnes rectores ecclesiarum ut prae-dictum Patrem cum caritate recipiant, eique permittant ut Sacra faciat.

Dear Marty,

It was very kind and thoughtful of you to send me the interesting clippings from the newspaper about all the good things that are happening at your parish center.

I thought the article and illustrations were very well done.

Most of all I want to congratulate you on such a wonderful achievement. While it is true, as you mentioned, that others have brought it about, especially the Sisters, I think it is equally true that your own personality and self-sacrifice have allowed this to happen and have encouraged others to work together in such a way that it did happen. You have set the pace and given the example and had the vision.

With thanks to you for such good example--and friendship, I am

Faternally yours,

Dear Marty,

Just a brief note to tell you I have been trying to reach you during this last week. Fr. Stephen Manoney is willing and able to take over the chaplaincy position at the Tri-Cities Hospital.

I would appreciate it if you would follow through by contacting the Bishop as you mentioned, and then letting me know what his decision is. If it is favorable I will then write a letter to the Bishop asking for the faculties.

With good wishes and prayers, I am

Faternally yours,

Dear Marty,

This is a belated thank you for your letter of March 9th together with the letters which you sent to the parish about the proposal of purchasing the academy. You have certainly done a great job there spiritually and financially, and I am sure that the Sisters' generosity and consideration is a response to your own well known zeal and sacrifice.

The Definitorium was grateful for the information and pleased by it, I believe, and we will certainly be hoping for the best to develop.

Best wishes and prayers for you and your work.

Dear Marty

Many thanks for looking into the situation at the Food Bank in San Diego.

Your observations sound good.

Alfred did call about his group taking over the property. His idea is that they would allow the food bank to share it. I wonder if that really is practical.

I am in a bit of dilemma about how best to proceed. I would appreciate any advice you might have.

I do think we would be content to retain ownership and let the food bank and/or the "Loaves and Fish" use it for very nominal rent.

Anyway, I would appreciate any advice you could give.

I will not accept the offer of Fritz Aherne.

Thanks again for your help in this matter.

Fraternally,

Dear Marty:

I hope all is well with you. Jorge has been with us the past week or so, since the hispanic meeting, quite ill with the flu. It's obvious that he does not take good care of himself. To be honest he looks rather terrible. Even while he was here he was still up, going out, saying masses, etc. There seems to be no way to hold him down.

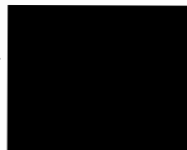

One of the hispanic friars here said he talked with Jorge and he is talking about going back to his province in Columbia. He did ask me to stop the process of incorporation as one of his brothers was in a very bad auto accident and is paralyzed. He thought he might need to go back and help the family. Also he mentioned to this other friar something about the fact that the new Provincial is a friend of his and has been urging him to come back. So, I would not be surprised to see him move in that direction. In any case he has been after Fr. Damian Gamboa to come down and assist in the work with the hispanics. I know I discussed this with you the last time we were together and you agreed that there was a need. Damian has been very anxious to leave Tularosa and the situation was getting a bit tense there so I went ahead with the move, asking Peter Kreig to fill in until summer when we can find another pastor.

Damian will be leaving Tularosa in a few days and then will spend about a week at San Juan and should be down in San Luis Rey within the next two weeks. I have written a letter to Bishop Maher asking for an appointment as associate pastor with faculties. I believe that is appropriate.

I hope this is some help for the ministry there and we'll just have to see how it goes as it moves ahead. Please keep an eye on Damian, he does tend to over-extend himself and get rather rung out. I believe he complained he was getting an ulcer in Tularosa.

Marty, you have a tremendous amount of things going on there. I know it's a great burden and a lot of work so do take care of yourself.

With warm fraternal regards,

Dear Marty:

I know this is late to get this off to you but I do want to do it before I take off for Europe. I had hoped to be able to get to your mother's funeral but was not able to do that and was not even free to send a card along with Tom Staley who was visiting us in Las Vegas and heading back in time for the funeral. I'm sure you heard more of the story.

I really want to extend to you my deep sympathy for you and the loss of your mother. I know it was long expected and in a way is a relief for her to be at final rest and peace yet it never is easy to lose one of one's parents and I know how very close you were to your mother. Many, many of the friars expressed to me their concern for you and I don't know if all of them have communicated it personally but you were very much in everyone's thoughts and prayers.

We have been praying for you and certainly our prayers have escorted your mother into a well deserved reward.

If there is anything we can do for you in the meanwhile, please do not hesitate to ask; although I personally will be gone for the next six weeks or so, I will be remembering you and your mother in my prayers in Assisi.

I do hope you have some time to be able to get a little break after the rough days you've had in recent months and be able to rejuvenate yourself.

Once again Marty, please know that we are all with you in your sorrow and we offer you our support.

With warm fraternal regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

My Lenten resolution is to catch up on correspondence, so this Ash Wednesday I'm writing letters. I should have gotten this off to you long before now.

I wish to thank you for your concern and kindness. I am really grateful for the opportunity that was given me and I can ^{see} God's wonderful providence in all that happened. My stay at Guest House was one of the great experiences in my life and most of all I realized how physically I had neglected my responsibility to myself. Am now feeling great and taking care of myself - particularly allowing myself more free time for physical exercise. I deeply appreciate all that the Province has done.

One former frustration was fully removed yesterday when I learned that our property closed escrow and everything has been finalized. (Now all we have to do is pay for it.)

Again, many thanks for all your help and my prayers for you in your heavy responsibilities.

Faternally,

Marty
