If 200 families would pledge $1,000 - which is $20 a month for five years, we would go over our goal. Remember $100,000.00 comes back to us and we do need 5 new roofs on our church. Please help and pray for Sacred Heart to respond for the glory of God, God Bless - Fr. Peter S. O. S.

PASTORS CORNER
Dear Parishioners,
We have finally come to that date when we will express our thanks to all the founders, priests, sisters, school children, and all who have contributed their talents, resources and services by receiving the decree from Rome, Italy in declaring Sacred Heart from October 3rd on as a minor Basilica. This will be acknowledged from our Holy Father, Pope John Paul II, as a testimony of the faith of our faithful founders and parishioners.

The procession will begin from the rectory. Here is the order for all to follow – Knights of Columbus, Flag Bearers – American, Polish, Papal, Incense, Cross, Candles – Presidents of Societies, Alar Boys, Readers, Lectors, Priests, Bishops with Deacons. All are to assemble outside the rectory by 10:45am. Reserved seats will be designated for all those in procession. At the recessional, only priests, altar boys, and bishops will process.

All choirs will be singing a special new Mass composed by our able organist, Martin Uczen. There will be instrumental music and this is to be one of our biggest celebrations – Thanks Be to God.

At 2:30pm, our testimonial banquet will take place at Hotel Syracuse. Bishop Costello will be our guest speaker and tribute will be paid to all the parishioners of Sacred Heart Church. A special program has been printed with letters of congratulations and a history of Sacred Heart Church. Memorial cards of the event will be placed on the tables. Tickets are on sale at the rectory. Tuesday, September 28, 1999, is the last time to purchase your ticket. A video of the entire event is being made and will be sold at $20.00 a tape.

I am most grateful to everyone for making this day possible and pray that the Good Lord bless all of us for this day, which is truly the "Day of the Lord" and which all of us will remember forever.

God Bless.
