

Attn: Eric MacLeish

Sometime between 1969 and 1970

I made a call on Fr John McCormack,
Director of Catholic Charities on Cross
St. Salem, Mass.

The purpose of my visit was to seek his help in the removal of Fr Joseph Birmingham from his duties at St James Parish, Salem, Mass due to the molestation of parish boys.
He put his hand on my shoulder and assured me, at this time, the matter would be resolved.

Sincerely,

6/2/02