

2 City Priests To Be Ordained

The Rev. George J. Koychick and the Rev. Michael E. Homola, both natives of Harrisburg, will be ordained to the priesthood April 2 in St. Patrick's Cathedral, it was announced yesterday by Bishop George L. Leech.

The ceremonies will mark the 15th anniversary of the ordination of Pope Pius XII and be the first in the renovated cathedral. As a reward for faithful service, hundreds of altar boys from all parishes in the diocese will attend the ceremonies.

The Rev. Mr. Koychick, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Koychick, 403 North Third street, Steelton, was valedictorian of the Harrisburg Catholic High School class of 1940. He will celebrate his first solemn mass April 3 at 10 a. m. in St. James Church, Steelton.

The Rev. Mr. Homola, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Homola, Mt. Carmel, was graduated in June, 1940, from Mt. Carmel Catholic High School. He will celebrate his first solemn mass April 3 in the Church of St. John the Baptist, Mt. Carmel.

Both men are completing their studies at St. Charles Seminary, Overbrook.

---

Oppose Meat Trade

MELBOURNE—(INS)—Establishment of a big meat export trade with the United States is opposed by Sir William Angliss, leading Australian meat authority. Sir William favors concentration on the important and growing British market.