

Country Day Graduation Slated Today

Commencement exercises at Asheville Country Day School will be held Wednesday at 11 a. m. in the school gymnasium.

The principal speaker will be the Rev. C. Grier Davis, president of Montreat-Anderson College. The invocation will be by the Rev. Hugh Clarke of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Hendersonville, and the benediction by the Rt. Rev. M. George Henry, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Western North Carolina.

The valedictory address will be by Miss Laurel Rathbun.

Awards will be presented by Headmaster Marshall M. Abell and diplomas will be given by George H. V. Cecil, chairman of the board of trustees.

There are 12 students in this year's graduating class, largest in the school's history.

Graduates are Cheryl Anders, Bill Farrell, Bruce Franz, Sam Freeman, Sandra Fullerton, Linda Long, Bill McConnel, William Monaghan, Brenda Slagle, Louise Stephens, Robert Tuller and Miss Rathbun.

The graduation ceremony will be directed by Mrs. Margery Burrowes.
